PASSENGER SEIZED IN FRANCE

Claim of U. S. Citizenship Is Made by Suspected Incendiary

PARIS, March 31, 5:10 a. m.—Raymond Swoboda, one of the passengers aboard the French line steamship LaTouraine, which was imperiled by a fire at sea on March 6, has been arrested, charged with setting fire to the vessel, according to the Matin.

Swoboda, the paper asserts, is suspected of having "close relations with the enemy," and correspondence found in his rooms is said to indicate he had been charged with the task of blowing up the LaTouraine. He has been taken to Havre.

Investigation by experts appointed by Admiral Charlier, who is conducting the inquiry into the steamship fire, has established, it is said, that the blaze aboard the Touraine must have been caused by the explosion of some detonating device. Statements made by passengers and members of the crew support this theory. The explosion was sufficiently violent to wrench loose the doors of cabins nearby. The authorities believe the explosive had been placed with criminal intent in a trunk which was stored with the baggage of first-class passengers in No. 2 hold.

PASSENGERS QUESTIONED.

With this first report of experts at hand, the state attorney at Havre examined as many passengers as could be reached. The witnesses stated, according to the Matin, that they had been amazed at the statement made one night during the voyage by a fellow-passenger when they were discussing German threats to torpedo ships passing through the war zone. This passenger is quoted as having remarked:

"Oh, that is not the only war zone that would be dangerous: Germany is strong enough to do what she wants. This ship herself, even before she reaches the war zone, might be obliged to have recourse to the doctors and nurses aboard to care for the passengers."

Only passing heed, however, was given to this assertion when it was made, but in view of subsequent events it appeared to the investigating attorney to have considerable importance.

FIGHT FOR NATION-WIDE PROHIBITION TO RESUME WHEN CONGRESS MEETS

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—The fight for nation-wide prohibition will be renewed with greater vigor than ever at the next session of Congress, Senator Sheppard of Texas announced today. Senator Sheppard started the movement for local prohibition in the District of Columbia which, however, failed of passage at the last session.

"We will renew the fight all along the line," he said, "as soon as Congress convenes. I expect we will have strong support from the Republican side as well as from the Democratic party. The effort will be for both favorable action for submission of a proposed constitutional amendment for prohibition the country over, as well as local prohibition in the District of Columbia."

Senator Sheppard declared the action of Lloyd George, the British chancellor of the exchequer, denouncing drink as a greater foe to fight than either Austria or Germany, was significant.

"The experience of Russia and the declaration of Chancellor Lloyd George, as to what should be done there," said Senator Sheppard, "shows there is a world-wide movement for prohibition."

H. S. HOWARD INSANE, IS FEAR

SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.—That Harold S. Howard, son of the late Charles Webb Howard, president of the Spring Valley Water Co. of this city is known to the police all over the East as "the man who follows Maude Adams around," was the statement of his second cousin, Hugh F. Aldrich, this morning. Aldrich is one of the witnesses summoned to testify in connection with the insanity charge against Howard.

At the hearing before Judge Van Nostrand shortly after noon, Howard requested that his mother be subpoened and that an attorney be obtained for him. His desire that the matter be continued until tomorrow

Both Steamers Are Sent Down Off Scilly Islands

Crew of Flaminian Is Given Time to Leave Craft

By Associated Press.

CARDIFF, Wales, March 31, 4:43 p. m.—The Cardiff Echo declares that the British steamer, Crown of Castile, has been torpedoed and sunk off the Scilly islands.

STEAMER FLAMINIAN SUNK

By Associated Press.

LONDON, March 31, 12:10 p. m.—The Ellerman line steamer Flaminian, with a general cargo from Glasgow to Cape Town, was sunk off the Scilly isles Monday, March 29th by the German submarine U-28. The members of the crew were saved.

The Flaminian sighted the U-28 at 1:15 o'clock Monday afternoon. The crew at once prepared to lower the boats, and at the same time the vessel was sent ahead at full speed. The submarine easily overhauled her, however, fired three shots, signalling her to stop. The Flaminian was stopped and the crew, abandoning all personal belongings, got off in small boats. The submarine then fired ten shots at the steamer. These proved to be ineffective and accordingly a torpedo was discharged. This sent the Flaminian to the bottom.

This is the same vessel that was reported sunk last night. Her name was not then known. She had no passengers on board. Her crew of 39 men took to their boats and were picked up by the Danish steamer Finland and landed at Holyhead this morning.

The British steamer Flaminian was of 2218 net tons. Shipping records located her at London on March 3.

Mystery Man, Hiding Near Home, Opens Fire On Strangers

Mistaken Identity and Revenge Thought Cause of Attack

Made the target of a fusillade of revolver shots when she ventured outdoors, Miss A. Benner, a trained nurse, was held a terrified prisoner in the home of G. Mautini, 2225 100th avenue, last night while a mysterious prowler, hiding in bushes near the home, stood guard and prevented her leaving the place until the police, notified by telephone, arrived at the place. He fled, and a thorough search failed to locate any traces of him.

According to Miss Benner's story, she had been employed to care for a patient in the home. She had planned to leave the house for a walk, had proceeded about fifty feet from the door when four shots rang out and the bullets whistled about her ears. Rushing back to the house, she locked herself in and called for the police. The prowler, behind the bushes, waited for some time and then slunk away in the darkness shortly before the detectives arrived on the scene.

Miss Benner is unable to give a clear description of the man, having only caught a glimpse of him in the darkness. Robbery, says the police, was not the motive for the attack and an investigation is being made. It is thought that revenge may have been the motive and the nurse mistaken for some other person. A guard of detectives has been thrown about the house.

Guard Patrol Asked for Raider Eitel

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—Commander Thierichens of the German commerce raider, Prinz Eitel Friedrich, today asked Rear-Admiral Beatty at the Norfolk navy yard to have a guard patrol the pier at which his ship is moored at the Newport News navy yard. The admiral suggested that the commandant at Fort Monroe send a detachment of coast artillerymen to mount guard, but action was delayed until the navy and war departments could decide which should furnish the men.

NEW CITY POSTMASTER IN OFFICE TOMORROW

JOSEPH ROSBOROUGH, who takes office tomorrow as Oakland's postmaster.

Oakland will have a new postmaster at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning. Bearing the signatures of President Wilson and Postmaster-General Burleson, the commission appointing Joseph J. Rosborough, society favorite of both sides of the bay, as postmaster of Oakland, arrived this morning, and the new official is now making arrangements to take over the affairs which have been presided over for the past several years by Paul J. Schafer.

Although Rosborough will not be, officially, postmaster until the first day of the month, he will take charge of the accounts, books and paraphenalia of the office tomorrow evening. He will be seated at the postmaster's desk April 1.

Rosborough comes from an old Southern family which has been active in Democratic politics of this state for a generation. His father, the late Judge A. M. Rosborough, was for 24 years county and, afterwards, district judge of the old Ninth District Court of Northern California, having been elected and re-elected six terms on the Democratic ticket. Later he was twice elected to the board of education. His brother, Alex J. Rosborough, has the distinction of being the first Democrat in forty years to be elected to the office of county tax collector when Alameda was the banner Republican county of California, and afterwards went through three more Democratic campaigns, the last of which he ran for secretary of state with Franklin K. Lane for governor.

SECOND APPOINTMENT.

This is the second Democratic appointment the new postmaster has received. In 1896 he was appointed by Governor Budd to a position with the state board of harbor commissioners, holding the office for five years, and was finally removed because of his activity in the Democratic gubernatorial campaign in 1902.

He was a staunch supporter of Woodrow Wilson for the presidential nomination from the time he was first mentioned for the office and became a member of two of the Woodrow Wilson clubs which did very effective work for the president throughout the state.

Having lived in Oakland for thirty-six years, Rosborough is thoroughly familiar with local conditions. He was educated at the Oakland High School, the State University and Stanford University, and has been associated with his brother in the California-Oregon Power Company, of which they are part owners, for several years. He has also been actively interested in the real estate and insurance business on both sides of the bay.

Mr. Rosborough said today:

FEELS LIKE FRESHMAN.

"I feel something like a freshman entering upon his four years' college course as I take over my new duties as postmaster of Oakland, realizing that it will take time to get into the regular curriculum. I have great faith, however, in modern buisness methods, and will apply them as far as possible to the office. It was my good fortune while in the east to study some of the new model postoffices, the last word, so to speak, in organization of office force, and construction of buildings for handling of mail to the best advantage, and the remarkable modern equipment for facilitating time and labor.

"It is a matter of sincere regret that Congress did not make an appropriation for enlarging the present postoffice building, which I understand is very much congested, although we were fortunate in securing sufficient funds for the purchase of more land.

"In regard to the two division system of reorganization, the A. B. C. system of distribution, the redistricting the city and other model plans, these will all be given careful consideration, for after all we are but servants of the people, desirous of accommodating them to the best of our ability."

Qualify for Women's Golf Semi-Finals

At this morning's play of the second round matches of the women's tournament for the golf championship of Northern California, Miss Josephine Johnson and Mrs. Raymond Wilson, both of the Claremont Country Club, qualified for the semi-finals to be played tomorrow.

Miss Johnson won easily from Mrs. Cleveland Forbes of Ingleside with two up, while Mrs. Wilson won against Miss Eloise Lehman of Claremont six and four.

Mrs. Forbes' bunker shot on the last green was a feature of the play. The ball was almost buried in the pits, but Mrs. Forbes managed to raise it over the bunker and drop it to a point less than 30 feet from the flag. Eight more matches are yet to be decided today.

CHINA FAILS TO GRANT DEMAND

Negotiations With Japanese Reach Critical Stage, Is Report

Ultimatum from Tokio May Be Outcome of Deadlock

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, March 31.—The East and West News Bureau received the following dispatch from Tokio: "The emperor has called for an extra session of the diet to open on May 17 and continue for three weeks."

By Associated Press.

PEKING, March 31.—In diplomatic circles the situation arising from Japan's negotiations of her demands upon China is regarded as more serious today than at any time since the conferences to this end were inaugurated.

After further consultation between President Yuan Shi Kai and Foreign Minister Lu Chang-Hsiang, the Chinese persist that they cannot accord absolute extra-territoriality to Japanese immigrants in Manchuria and at the conference of yesterday M. Hioki, the Japanese minister, refused to discuss this question further. It is believed in Peking that the conference to take place tomorrow very probably will bring a break in the deadlock over this question, which has lasted for a number of weeks. Failing to break the deadlock it is felt in some quarters that Japan will present an ultimatum.

M. Hioki said it was unnecessary to continue the discussion of articles II and III, concerning Manchuria, and article II of the Hanyehping groups. These three articles have been discussed at a number of recent conferences, but without result. Lu Cheng Hsiang was unwilling to agree to them, consequently the conference proceeded to the discussion of other articles.

CHINESE OPEN SUBJECTS.

Although the Chinese originally declared their determination to discuss only twelve articles with the Japanese, they are now talking of articles beyond this number. The Shantung preamble and the four articles of this first group already have been accepted with certain minor modifications which have been transmitted from here by telegraph.

The preamble referring to Manchuria and Mongolia has not been accepted. The question of Manchuria has been negotiated, but Mongolia has been reserved for separate discussion.

In regard to Manchuria, articles I, IV, V, VI, VII and the newly incorporated article VIII, have been agreed to, with certain alterations already telegraphed.

The first Hanyehping article has

OAKLAND TO GET PLAYER, IS DECISION

Lil Marcan, leading second baseman of the Southern League, has been awarded to Oakland by the national baseball commission, according to a telegram received this morning at local baseball headquarters.

Marcan was purchased this winter by Oakland, but the Little Rock club put in a claim for the player and the deal has been hanging fire ever since. The player was the leading run-getter of the league and rated as a star. His acquisition means that the Oakland club will be able to strengthen the only spot on the club that seemed weak and will take the field with a team that figures the equal of any on the circuit.

Local baseball officials were wild with delight when the news came this morning.

Marcan has been ordered by wire to report to Oakland at once.

Manager Tyler Christian today announced that Outfielder Daniels had been unconditionally released and that Catcher Price had been placed with the Des Moines club of the Western League.

The battery for tomorrow's game in Oakland will be, for Oakland, Pruett and Elliott.

SEEK GEMS STOLEN FROM DEATH HOUSE OF MYSTERY

Captain of Inspectors Lon F. Agnew left Oakland last night for Calexico, Imperial Valley, where he will attempt to run to earth Claud Young, the young man who frequented the "house of mystery" as a friends of Mildred A. Fulton and who is alleged to have taken jewelry belonging to the woman whose dead body was found with that of her sister about two weeks ago. Agnew left town shortly after the inquest, conducted last evening by Coroner Grant Miller, into the death of Mildred Fulton and her sister, Mrs. Jane F. Riley.

Agnews destination was not made known by the police this morning, it being stated that he was going to Los Angeles. It became known this afternoon, however, that he was on his way to Calexico and he will spend ten days or two weeks if necessary in trailing Young.

Young is known to have frequented the house in which the two women were found and in the letter left by Mrs. Riley she declared that Young had taken diamonds belonging to Miss Fulton.

Allied Attack on Dardanelles Resumed

LONDON, March 31.—A Reuter's Telegram Company despatch by way of Berlin says the allied fleet has resumed its bombardment of villages near the outer forts of the Dardanelles. Turkish aviators are making daily reconnoissances.

LEGISLATORS FAVOR TWO MORE JUDGES

By Associated Press.

SACRAMENTO, March 31.—Alameda county will have two additional superior judges after the next general election in 1916 if the legislature agrees with the finance committee, which reported favorably today a bill by Senator Tyrrell increasing the judges in that county. The Alameda county delegation of both houses has agreed on the bill for elective judges. Because the state pays one-half of superior judges' salaries the measure must go through the finance committee, but Senator Stroubridge, finance chairman, said he believed the bill would be approved. Bills that are pending providing for appointment by the governor of the Alameda county judges will slumber in committee.

WASHINGTON-STREET CORNER IS SOLD

An evidence of confidence in the future of Washington street is expressed by the purchase of the northwest corner of Thirteenth and Washington streets by the heirs of one of Oakland's pioneers. This corner has been purchased from the Matthews estate by the Wachs Realty Company at a figure approximating $200,000. The property fronts 50 feet on Washington street and has a Thirteenth street depth of 75 feet. The new owners contemplate the erection of a modern improvement on the property at an early date.

The Wachs Realty Company owns the property adjoining the corner on Thirteenth street, 75 feet frontage, which, together with their new acquisition, gives them one of the most valuable holdings in the city. The interests of the Wachs Realty Company in the sale were handled by Louis Levy and Lionel Wachs of Salinger's real estate office.

FRENCH CRUISER SINKS DIVER

By Associated Press.

PARIS, March 31, 12:50 p. m.—A statement indicating that a German submarine may have been sunk by a French cruiser was given out today by the ministry of marine. It is as follows:

"Yesterday afternoon a French light cruiser sighted a German submarine maneuvering on the surface of the Dieppe. The cruiser immediately gave chase, forcing the submarine to dive, firing meanwhile at the periscope and turning in order to ram it with the bow.

"The cruiser passed over the submarine at the moment the periscope disappeared and from the spot where the submarine was last seen quantities of oil floated to the surface."

LIBAU IS TWICE BOMBARDED

By Associated Press.

LONDON, March 31, 12:25 p. m.—The Libau correspondent of Reuter's Telegram Company sends a message saying that as a result of two bombardments of Libau by the German fleet three persons have been killed and seven wounded and fifteen houses have been damaged. Telegraph wires also have been wrecked and the steamer Baltica, in port, sustained damage.

BATTLE IN PASSES MAY CHANGE WAR

By Associated Press.

LONDON, March 31, 12:05 p. m.—The battle of the Carpathian Passes now rivals the bombardment of the Dardanelles in political possibilities. German experts assert that the efforts being made by Russia are of such vital importance politically that the supreme command of the Teutonic allies is justified in exerting every effort to check the invader there.

According to this view of the situation a sudden and dramatic invasion of Russians through the Carpathians into Hungary might stir the Balkan nations to action long before the tedious attack of the allied fleet on the Dardanelles attains definite result. Petrograd has officially warned the Russian people not to expect an early capitulation of Constantinople. There are no signs, however, that the allied fleet has given up the attack, as battleships are again shelling the outer defenses of the Straits, while the Russian assault on the Bosphorus has merely been interrupted by a thick fog.

On the western front the Germans are reported to be giving up their plans for breaking through the defenses of the allies near the coast along the Yser. They are making a new effort along the fortified Franco-German border by bombarding the fortress of Verdun. The reported withdrawal of cavalry from the Yser front, however, is of no great significance, since the use of this arm of the service in that vicinity is greatly restricted on account of the floods. At the same time the continued bombardment of Nieuport indicates that the Germans are still opposing any extension of the allied line along the Belgian coast.

Internally England is still concerned with the labor and drink situation. The Liverpool dockers show no indication of receding from their demands. Commercial bodies are coming forward with offers to back the government in drastic action against the drink evil, while the liquor interests are beginning to express fear of severe government regulations.

VENIZELOS CHECKS BULGARIAN HOPES

By Associated Press.

PARIS, March 31.—Former Premier Venizelos of Greece, who has returned to Athens after a short rest, has made declarations to political friends concerning concessions he obtained during his ministry in regard to territorial claims of Bulgaria, according to the Athens correspondent of the Havas Agency. M. Venizelos is quoted as saying:

"At the beginning of the war the demands of Bulgaria included not only Kavala, but Vodena. These demands, which were supported by certain powers, assumed a serious character, but my line of policy was such that I succeeded in obtaining the withdrawal of this support from Bulgaria. Later I succeeded also in arranging that no cession of Serbian Macedonia should be made to Bulgaria."

Speaking of the participation of Greece in the war on the side of the allies, urged by him, the former premier said he believed that with her fleet and a division of her army, Greece could have doubled her territory.

"After two wars we entered the sphere of world politics," he said, "and we need friends and allies. I formerly was accused of dreaming of a dictatorship, but all my acts have been a protest against this charge."

He is said to have urged his friends to have patience until after the elections, when the situation would become regularized.

OFFICIAL WAR STATEMENTS

"No modification of the situation has been reported since the last communication."

By Associated Press.

BERLIN, March 31, by wireless to Sayville.—At the war office today the following announcement was made

"West of Pont-A-Mousson, French attacks near and east of Regnieville and in the forest of LePretre were repulsed. The enemy sustained heavy losses and at only one place in the west of the forest of LePretre is the engagement still continuing.

"Hostile aviators yesterday threw bombs on the Belgian towns of Bruges, Thielelles and Courtrai without doing any damage to military establishments. In Courtrai, near a hospital, one Belgian was killed and one wounded.

"On the Russian frontier in the district north of Memel, the banks of the river were cleared of the enemy. The Russians were defeated near Tauraggian and retreated in the direction of Schaudewly.

"Russian forces which during the last few days advanced north of the Augustowo forest against the German position, were repulsed by Germans, who advanced into the forest lake district near Sejny. The number of Russians taken prisoner in the engagement near Krasnopol and to the north and east was increased by 500.

American Protest to England Public Today

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—Ambassador Page, at London, had before him today the American note to Great Britain regarding the British order-in-council against commerce to and from Germany. The communication was cabled to him last night by the state department. It was expected that the ambassador would present the note to the British foreign office today, when it will be made public simultaneously both in London and in Washington. Pending the presentation of the communication, officials refused to reveal its contents. It is known, however, that the American government stands firmly for its right to carry on legitimate trade with neutral countries, even though they be contiguous to the warring nations.

VIENNA, by wireless to London, March 31.—The cessation of fighting in Dukla Pass lasted only twenty-four hours, the newspapers report, the Russians then bringing up fresh reserves.

Fighting in the Valley of the Ondava and Laboroza has recommenced and now is in full swing. The Austrian troops are fighting desperately and the Russians, it is reported here, in spite of furious attacks with large forces, have not been able to gain their objective at any point for an invasion of Hungary. The fighting in the Carpathians is going on during a heavy rainfall.

The battle in Bukowina yesterday is reported to have resulted in favor of the Austrians.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, March 31, 12:45 p. m.—Leon Chester Thrasher, who was among the 111 persons who lost their lives when the British steamer Falaba was torpedoed last Sunday by a German submarine in St. George's Channel, probably was an American citizen, although the officials of the Broomassie mines company, which had employed him to go to the gold coast of Africa, did not see his passport and have no positive proof of his citizenship.

Thrasher was employed by the Panama Railroad Company, from 1909 to 1913, and in 1908 he worked in Ecuador on the staff of C. E. Roberts, chief engineer of the Guayaquil-Quito Railroad.

MAN OF PROMINENCE.

Commissary Duberet, attached to the secret service department of the ministry of the interior, undertook the task of tracing Swoboda. He found that the man was fairly well known in Paris financial circles and had been connected with several more or less important transactions. He was supposed to be a Russian, for he often spoke of his family connections at Petrograd and Moscow. He had served as a foreign representative for a broker named Morrison, who conducts one of the large brokerage houses in Paris.

None of Swoboda's business associates had seen him after the arrival of the Touraine at Havre, where she docked safely on March 8, but Duberet traced him to a hotel in the Avenue Kleber, only to find that he had left ten days before after a brief stay. He registered there under the name of Raymond Swoboda and professed to be an American of independent means who had come from New York on the Touraine. He had told the story of the fire in the hotel drawing room, but the secret service operative says he was told that Swoboda's manner had aroused some suspicion and the other guests kept aloof from him.

TRACED TO HIS LAIR.

He was traced to another hotel in the Place de Rivoli, where he was arrested. When his room was searched, the police declare, a number of letters written in German were found, which seemed to point strongly to his guilt. He was turned over to the Havre police by the Paris authorities.

Mr. Morrison, the broker, when told of Swoboda's arrest, expressed amazement.

"I had business relations with Swoboda," he said, "but he always was perfectly honorable in his dealings with me. I knew that he formerly was employed in a large Paris bank and I was not astonished at his wide knowledge of finance. I knew also that his business brought him a large income."

TRACED TO NEW YORK.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—Search of State Department records today revealed that Raymond Swoboda made application for an American passport in New York on February 26th. Swaboda gave his residence as San Francisco. The State Department today forwarded what information it has to the Department of Justice for investigation.

VISITS IN NEW YORK.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, March 31.—Swoboda's visit on February 19th to the office of Bosseraunt D'Anglade, the French consul here, was vividly recalled by the substitute clerk who waited on him. The passport which Swoboda presented, the French consul said, was undoubtedly an American passport. Swoboda's photograph was in the corner—a good likeness. The passport was vised, but the clerk did not record the date the passport was issued or its number.

Dr. Henry J. Swoboda of 167 West Seventy-second street said today that a man describing himself as Raymond Swoboda called on him in February. He was a stranger and not a relative, the physician said, but his caller expressed interest because of the family name. Some days later Dr. Swoboda received a postal card from Raymond Swoboda from aboard LaTouraine, on which he announced his sailing for France.

NOT KNOWN ACROSS BAY.

By Associated Press.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.—Raymond Swoboda, held by the French authorities in connection with the fire aboard the steamer LaTouraine at sea recently, is not listed in the directories here. Officers of commercial organizations and clubs where financial men congregate said they had no record or recollection of any one bearing that name.

RUSSIAN GUNS SHOOT 11 MILES AT TURKS

By Associated Press.

BERLIN, March 31, by wireless to Sayville.—Included in the items given out by the Overseas News Agency is the following:

"A special dispatch received here from Constantinople says the first bombardment of the Turkish fortifications on the Bosphorus by the Russian Black Sea fleet consisted of the firing of 128 shots at the forts from a distance of 17 kilometers (11 miles). The forts did not reply to this fire."

Petrograd official reports say the Bosphorus forts were bombarded by Russian warships last Sunday and that the Russian fire was accurate. The vessels of the Black Sea fleet drove back some Turkish torpedo boats which attempted a sortie and sent one Turkish ship to the bottom.

War Summary

A defeat of German forces in Northern Poland, attended with unusually heavy losses, is reported unofficially from Petrograd. This information is to the effect that the Germans fell back in the Niemen river district, expecting that the Russians would pursue them and be crushed by a flanking movement. Petrograd states that the maneuver failed and that "entire divisions" of Germans, themselves caught in a trap, were annihilated.

The German official statement of today, while making no specific reference to such an engagement, announces that the Russians have suffered reversals at various points near the Prussian frontier.

Concerning the western front, the Berlin communication states that French assaults were beaten back with heavy losses to the attacking forces. The French war office says that the situation is unchanged.

A German submarine was sighted and attacked by a French cruiser off Dieppe. A statement from the French marine ministry indicates that the submarine may have been sunk, as oil rose to the surface.

The British steamer Flaminian was sunk in the English channel by the German submarine U-28. The crew was permitted to take to the small boats and was rescued.

After a brief lull in the fighting for possession of Dukla Pass in the Carpathians, the Russians have brought up reinforcements and resumed the attack. At Vienna it is said that the Russians have not been able to gain their objective at any point along the Carpathian front for the invasion of Hungary, and that they were defeated in Bukowina yesterday. Dispatches to Swiss newspapers, however, say the Austrians have suffered enormous losses in Northeastern Hungary. It is estimated that they lost 18,000 men Sunday, and the Russians are credited with annihilating a column of 4000 Austrians in an hour.

The increasing pressure of the Russians on this front, together with the fall of Przemysl, may have an influence on the operations in the west. The report is being spread in Holland that the Germans are contemplating the abandonment of their present line in Belgium in favor of a less extended front running slightly west of Brussels and that withdrawal of German cavalry from the Yser line already has begun.

A Russian victory in the campaign against Turkey is announced from the headquarters of the Caucasian army. In the fighting in the Turkey Armenian, along the coast of the Black Sea, the Russians captured the town of Artvin.

German warships have again bombarded the Russian port of Libau, on the Baltic. Three persons were killed during two attacks.

As the result of an investigation of the fire on the steamship LaTouraine on March 6th the Paris police have arrested a passenger described as Raymond Swoboda, who was listed on the ship's record as "an American susbject." A Paris newspaper says the man is suspected of having "close relations with the enemy," and having been charged with the task of blowing up LaTouraine. He is said to have claimed San Francisco as his home.

SPIELER EDDY HELD.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.—Isaac Eddy, the spieler who shot and killed his sister, known as the Princess Portia, March 18 in the Russian restaurant on the Exposition grounds, was held to answer by Police Judge Openheim today. Ameer Lufty, who gave Eddy the gun and who was held as an accomplice, was dismissed.

All Truck Tire Money Back
If a Goodyear S-V Fails to Meet This Test

We are ready now—after 5000 careful tests—to issue this defiance to all other Truck Tire claims.

Equip opposite wheels—at the same time—one with a Goodyear S-V, one with any other standard Truck Tire, of like rated size, bought in the open market.

If the Goodyear S-V fails to cost less per mile than the other, we will return you its full purchase price, making the S-V free.

This offer is unlimited as to number of tires. Equip as many wheels as you wish under these conditions. Sign with us the proper blank when the tires go on.

But it is limited to tires bought in April, May and June. It is simply to show you, in a vivid way, that Goodyear now outranks all others in this line. Our regular mileage guarantee applies to these tires, in addition.

Accept this challenge. Let us prove, at our complete risk, that Goodyear S-V's will cut down your tire bills.

Why We Dare Do That

This means in three months a tremendous stake, and against the entire field.

But we have spent 8 years perfecting this Truck Tire. Scores of experts have worked on it. They built 29 types in their progress toward this one. Then they built 74 structures to attain the utmost in this type.

Our offer is based on records of 5000 test tires. And on side-by-side tests with rivals under all conditions. We know that none can stand up with S-V's.

The Reasons

We give you 20 per cent more available tread rubber.

We give you a shape which ends bulging or breaking by distributing heavy loads equally. And a shape which saves grind.

By a secret method, we weld the soft rubber tread, the hard rubber backing and the steel channel base into a life-long union.

We press the tires on—in 5 or 10 minutes—at a minimum of 50,000 pounds. Thus they cannot creep. In this tire there is no auxiliary fastening whatsoever.

This new Goodyear S-V appears to us the limit in a Truck Tire. Certainly it excels any rival production. We are staking on that fact the whole price of the tire.

We invite every truck owner who wants to end tire troubles to let us show him the way at our risk. Consult your dealer or our nearest branch.

Turk Arms Failing; Soldiers Disaffected

By Associated Press.

GENEVA, via Paris, March 31, 6.30 a. m.—A Constinople dispatch received here by way of Bucharest states that while ammunition is not lacking for the Turkish army, it is of poor quality. The supply of cartridges supplied by Germany in March, 1914, has been exhausted, and Turkey is now forced to rely on those of her own manufacture, which are inferior to those of German make.

Disorder and insubordination among the Turkish soldiers are of frequent occurrence, the dispatch says, during the transport of troops. Many Turkish officers are reported to have been arrested for their hostile attitude toward the Germans.

WIDOW PAID FOR MAN'S DEATH

Villa Forces Give Indemnity for Death of John B. McManus.

WASHINGTON, March 31—Despatches to the Villa Agency here today say that General Garza, at the head of the Mexico City government has paid to the widow of John B. McManus the American killed by Zapata troopers, 113,000 pesos which, at the present rate of exchange equals approximately $11,300 in gold, as indemnity.

Major General Funston at Brownsville made this report today to Secretary Garrison:

"Desultory firing on both sides last night. Everything quiet today.

"General Villa apparently has abandoned his plan to direct possibly the fighting at Matamoros. State Department and Carranza and Villa Agency reports agree that he is at Torreon going south, but differ as to the reason.

The Villa Agency announced that he was organizing an expedition to round up Carranza troops operating in Northern Sonora near the American border.

The Carranza Agency claims Villa went to Torreon to prevent General Triana from going over with his entire force to Eulalio Gutierrez after a quarrel with Gen. Angeles.

PREPARE FOR DEFENSE.

BROWNSVILLE, Texas, March 31.—Three batteries of United States Third Field Artillery arrived here early today to be ready if necessary to protect Brownsville when Matamoras is under attack.

Matamoras was quiet early today with no indications when the Villa troops would begin the attack which has caused fear of risk to Brownsville through rifle or cannon fire.

During the night two skirmishes were heard at widely separated points. One of these indicated that the Villa forces have penetrated to the river front below Matamoras thereby cutting the city off and establishing from the Mexican side a nominal state of siege. This line is too long and the Villa troops too few to make such a blockade very effective at resent.

WILL OPPOSE LAWS.

By Associated Press.

EL PASO, Texas, March 31.—Fifteen American mining men representing as many different foreign owned corporations in Northern Mexico at a meeting here decided to fight against the amendments to the Mexican federal mining law made recently by the Villa convention government, which they consider virtually prohibitive. According to the law, which goes into effect April 1, all mining property not being actually operated can be confiscated unless exempted under conditions which the mining experts consider impossible to fulfill.

The spirit of the Serbian army is said to be unbroken and the soldiers anxious for another opportunity to face the Austrians. The entire nation has bent its energies to making preparations for the next campaign.

Two hundred cannons captured from the Austrians are reported to have been added to the Serbian army while the ammunition obtained from the same source is sufficient to last for several months' operations.

been accepted. The controversy is over the second.

THIRD POWER OMITTED.

Concerning the fourth group of claims, Japan has accepted China's proposal to declare to all the powers her intention to cede or lease no territory in the future. The word "third" is eliminated, the paragraph now reading:

"The Chinese government agrees that no island, port or harbor along the coast shall be ceded or leased to any power."

The reference to a third power is stricken also from paragraph two of group one.

The Japanese have agreed to eliminate article one of group 5, China having declared her willingness to appoint Japanese in a purely advisory capacity without authority.

M. Hioki, at the conference of yesterday, pressed for the acceptance of articles two to seven in group five. The Japanese, as already has been reported, have withdrawn article three of group five, except as it applies to Manchuria. Only articles four, five and six in group five remain to be discussed.

Aldrich says that Howard fell violently in love with Maude Adams and was in the habit of sending her flowers and following her from city to city, principally in the East. From other witnesses it was learned that a New York alienist had once pronounced Howard insane.

Howard denies that he is insane. It was he who was barred from the White House at Washington two years ago after it is alleged he had forced hisattentions on a daughter of President Wilson. Some time ago he attracted great attention in New York by his speeches in the cause of the suffragettes.

"My brother's mind has been shattered for fifteen years," said Frederick Howard today, "and it was the fear of the effect of his arrest upon my mother that prevented me from taking action before this."

Aeroplanes Flock Over City, Dropping Bombs

LONDON, March 31, 9:40 a. m.—Great activity has been displayed in the last few days by German aviators, says a Petrograd dispatch to Reuter's Telegram Company, according to a semi-official Russian statement, which reads as follows:

"Fifteen German aeroplanes flew over Ostrolenka, Monday, dropping a hundred bombs at an isolated house, which they apparently mistook for Russian headquarters. None of the bombs hit the house and the occupants were not injured.

"Near Jedwabno we brought down an enemy airship, capturing the officer and the mechanic."

A boosting committee was appointed to further the interests of North Oakland politically and for better improvements and recognition.

Several communications were received from candidates for offices, signifying their desire to address the club, and on Monday a campaign committee, composed of Eugene Stachler, W. H. Lee, J. T. Addresses were made by Messrs. Riordan, Campbell, Lee, Chisholm, Godfrey, Hamilton, Crummey and Stachler.

BIG SUM WILL BE SPENT IN RESCUE

By Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 31.—Expenditure of $20,000 to bring the sunken submarine F-4 to the surface in Honolulu harbor was authorized by Secretary Daniels today after a message had been received from Rear Admiral Moore saying that the hawser attached to the boat had parted and that the present equipment was too light to raise her.

Admiral Moore's message reads:

"Lieutenant Smith has located F-4 and moved her a slight distance in shore. The lifting hawser then parted, the submarine evidently being waterlogged. The equipment is too light to raise her. Making arrangements too lift her by pontoon methods. Will report probable cost of rental of equipment when possible. Still have line on submarine and can hold on to her location. Depth, 45 fathoms."

A second message from Admiral Moore estimated the cost of obtaining additional equipment at $20,000 and said operations should begin at once to take advantage of good weather. He estimated the time required at fourteen days. Secretary Daniels immediately cabled authorizing the expenditure.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—Secretary Daniels was determined today to raise the sunken submarine F-4 in Honolulu harbor, no matter what the operation may cost. He wants to learn the cause of the accident so as to avoid similar disasters in the future.

This was made known after advices had been received from Rear Admiral Moore at Honolulu which said that preparations were being made to raise the submarine by the pontoon method. The fact that the admiral reported the submarine evidently was waterlogged and therefore too heavy to be raised by the equipment previously employed, banished the hopes of officials that any of her crew might be found alive.

Secretary Daniels announced that in the event of the failure of efforts now being made to raise the submarine, the Navy Department would send the necessary equipment to raise her. He said there was no truth in reports that he was dissatisfied with the work of naval authorities at Honolulu. On the contrary, the secretary said that they were doing everything possible to raise the submarine.

HONOLULU, T. H., March 31.—Grapnel cables attached to a heavy object, believed to be the lost submarine F-4, parted last evening and work was suspended for the night. The location of the spot was carefully marked and another attempt will be made to hook on to the object.

A huge diving tube which engineers have been hastily constructing was completed last night. It was submerged 35 feet and will be left in the harbor until morning to test its watertightness.

The city has been scoured to obtain 700 feet of reinforced hose to be used for air tubes.

FIANCEE SEEKS NEWS.

RENO, Nev., March 31.—Reading of the loss of the submarine F-4 at Honolulu, Mrs. Elizabeth Cody of Los Angeles, on her way home from Salt Lake City, stopped off here to get definite news of the disaster.

Child Is Killed by Student Motorman

SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.—If Larry Sullivan, fireman, had been on duty this morning he would have had to resond to a call to jack up a street car which had run over and crushed to death his five-year-old daughter Loretta. The child, who lived at 1030 Noe street, was crossing Twenty-fourth street, near Castro, when a car of the Hoffman avenue line ran her down. Her head was crushed and she was dead when the firemen had rescued her mangled body. The car was being operated by a student motorman, Louis Kauffman, under the instruction of Motorman Gustave White. Both were arrested. This is the same spot where another child was killed ten days ago.

TRANSFER BOND SUIT.

Suit to collect on a forfeited bond of $2500 given by H. C. Cutting and D. W. McLaughlin in Imperial county for the release of G. E. Kelly a year ago has been transferred to this county for trial. According to the complaint on which Imperial county seeks to collect the bond, Kelly was given his freedom following the disagreement of a jury which tried him on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses.

WILL FILE BRIEFS IN LAWSUIT AGAINST FORMER COUNTY CLERK

District Attorney Hynes has completed, and will immediately file with the Supreme Court, his brief in the cases brought by the county of Alameda against former County Clerk John P. Cook to recover the naturalization fees retained by Cook during his last two terms of office.

Under the Federal statutes providing for the naturalization of aliens throughout the United States, county clerks are required to ay over to the Federal authorities, quarterly, one-clerks are required to pay over to the in naturalization matters, the Act of Congress permitting such clerks to retain the other half. It is the contention of Cook that he has a right, under the Federal law, to retain the one-half of such fees personally, and that by such law they become his own personal property; the District Attorney, however, contends that the portion of such fees retained by Cook should be paid to the county treasurer of Alameda county for the benefit of the county, by reason of the fact that the Political Code, in providing a salary for the county clerk of Alameda county, and providing for deputies and assistants, has made full compensation for all services rendered by such county clerk and his deputies and assistants in performing the duties of that office.

The cases were tried by the District Attorney, several months ago, before Judge Waste of the Superior Court, and were won by the county. Cook appealed to the Supreme Court from the judgments against him, and the matter has been pending there since. About $5000 is involved in the cases, which sum will be recovered by the county if the judgment of the lower court is upheld on appeal. Since the filing of these suits, by District Attorney Hynes, several other counties have instituted similar actions and the outcome is being watched by the taxpayers with a great deal of interest.

CHIMNEY FIRE BEING INVESTIGATED BY POLICE

Smoke issuing from doors and windows and flames from the chimney at M. Senda's flower store, 2271 East Fourteenth street, resulted in a call for the fire department last night and an investigation by the police. It was found that somebody had stood on the roof of an adjoining building and had dumped waste paper and refuse down the chimney, thereby effectually blocking the flue.

The papers and refuse had been taken from the garbage receptacle of Cataldi & Lunardi, who conduct a fruit store at 1249 Twenty-third avenue, and had been stuffed down the chimney. A fire was averted by the discovery of the smoke, due to the chimney being blocked. The papers had also been scattered over the roof of the flower store.

It was discovered that Earl Hansen, a 10-year-old boy, living with his parents at 1247 Twenty-third avenue, knew something of the affair. The boy confessed that he had scattered the papers over the roof, but denied having stuffed any of the refuse into the chimney. The boy will be questioned by detectives today.

Lime Combats Tuberculosis

"It is difficult to escape the conviction that lime starvation and lime assimilation are the real issues behind the masks of vulnerability and resistance in tuberculosis," writes Ira Van Gieson, M. D., in the May 11, 1912, issue of the New York "Medical Record."

Dr. Van Gieson is eminent in his profession, and his assertion that lime assimilation is the "real issue" in resistance to tuberculosis bears the stamp of authority.

Ordinarily lime is not easily assimilated medicinally, but Eckman's Alterative is one preparation containing it in such form and combination as to insure assimilation by the average person.

This is one reason for its success in many cases of tuberculosis which apparently have yielded to it and others which have been benefited through its use.

Our experience-based faith in this remedy is shared by a large number of men and women who say they owe health strength and life to it. It contains no opiates, narcotics or habit-forming drugs, so is safe to try.

If your druggist is out of it, he can get it, or you can order direct from us.

COUNTRY COMBED FOR BANDIT GANG

Posses Scour Oklahoma While Strangers Fall Under Suspicion.

By Associated Press.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 31.—Posses in the neighborhood of Stroud and Chandler, Okla., have not been the only seekers of bank robbers since Henry Starr and his band rode into Stroud, robbed two banks and did battle with the citizenry last Saturday. Nearly every town in Kansas, Oklahoma and Western Missouri has been aroused by the bank robberies and posses have been hunting them for the last three days. This interest increased today when Oklahoma officers announced that the robbers probably escaped to Southwest Missouri.

Descriptions of the men who escaped after the raid on the Stroud banks have been passed back and forth until a stranger who rides a horse, wears a drooping mustache or assumes the air of a bandit, is lucky if he escapes arrest and investigation.

At least a dozen suspects have been arrested. In Kansas City early today two cattlemen from small Missouri towns were aroused from their beds in a hotel and made to open the door in the face of revolvers held by police officers.

At Pittsburg, Kans., yesterday a swaggering man in a sombrero and high boots dashed into town on a pony but he was soon under arrest and was compelled to prove his identity.

When a policeman at Ottawa, Kan., attempted to arrest two men they disarmed him and fled. They answered a description he had received of two members of the Starr gang, so a posse was organized and engaged the men in a revolver fight. Both were captured but were not connected with the Oklahoma bank robbery.

SEAL FISHERIES FAIL.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., March 31.—The seal fisheries are a failure thus far, according to owners of the vessels sent out. Only a few of the ships have obtained any pelts. Wireless messages received last night from several of the fleet brought word that they were still jammed in the ice off Notre Dame Bay, where they were first caught nearly two weeks ago. There are no immediate prospects of a loosening of the flow.

DAYS OF OLD TO APPEAR IN 1915

Colonial Dansant Will Revive Past; Lavish Details Arranged.

With the appointment of committees to arrange details for the dinner dansant to be held at Hotel Oakland on April 17, the affair promises to be one of the most brilliant and unique functions as yet held for the benefit of local charities. This will be a Colonial ball even to the dinner, the menu for which is in charge of Mrs. William E. Sharon and Mrs. A. H. Glasscock who have consulted the hotel's chef, and have planned many of the old dishes which tempted our forefathers in "good old Colonial days." The table decorations are to be in charge of Mrs. J. F. Carlston who will gather flowers from Oakland's and Piedmont's prettiest gardens. The hostesses of the evening will arrange with Mrs. Carlston and her committee for the decorations of their tables at extremely low prices and the funds derived from this source will go to the treasury of the Anti-Tuberculosis Society. While the majority of those attending will wear evening gowns, many of the ladies have promised to appear themselves in full Colonial costume and all the ladies attending the dinner and dansant will carry tall Colonial staffs which were so popular with the Colonial belles. The staffs and their ribbons are being prepared by Mrs. Herbert Hamilton Brown and her committee. Old-fashioned corsage boquets will be in profusion and the preparation of these is to be arranged by a bevy of young society maids of Piedmont.

FANS FINISHING TOUCH.

Small fans of the Colonial period will add the finishing touch of daintiness and charm that characterized the debutantes of our grandmother's day. The graceful minuet, the favorite dance of the Colonial ball room, will be danced by eight couples in full Colonial dress to the sweet strains of Mozart's minuet. Nearly three hundred places have been reserved at the hotel for the dinner which will precede the dansant. While tickets may be purchased from any member of the committee of one hundred or from the office of the Alameda County Anti-Tuberculosis Society, table reservations must be made at Hotel Oakland and those who are purchasing tickets are urged to reserve their tables at an early date. The funds derived from this dinner dansant will be devoted to the support of the Free Tuberculosis Clinic which the Alameda County Society maintains for the treatment and care of the tuberculosis poor of this county. The officers of the society are: Mr. Harrison S. Robinson, president; Hon. William H. Donahue, first vice-president, Mrs. Allen G. Freeman, second vice-president; Miss Annie Florence Brown, secretary; and Mr. Fred B. Taylor, treasurer; executive committee, Dr. A. S. Kelly, Rev. Clifton Macon, Mrs. Mark L. Requa, Mr. Charles E. # PLAN PATROL AT FIGHT IN HAVANA

Streets and Race Track to Be Guarded; Troops to Be Present.

By Associated Press.

HAVANA, March 31. — Arrangements have been completed for affording police protection for the crowds during the Johnson-Willard fight next Monday. The race track and Havana streets leading to stations of the electric line to the track will be policed by a double force. In addition regular troops will be held in reserve near the track.

The trolley company is arranging for a fast service from the center of Havana and from nearby towns.

Sentiment in favor of Willard seems to be increasing rapidly and is affecting the betting odds. Plenty of money still is being offered on Johnson, but at shorter odds. Quotations now are generally less than 2 to 1. Willard backers are holding off in the hope of getting the former price of 2 to 1.

Reports are being heard with increasing frequency that Johnson is having difficulty in putting on the final edge. The drying out process is said to be extremely difficult for him on account of his age and he finds it a constant struggle to deny himself water.

It is now evident that Johnson will go into the ring heavier than in any previous fight—probably at 220 or 225 pounds. Otherwise he appears to be in fine condition. Nevertheless doubt is expressed quite generally that he can go more than half of the 45 rounds. His best chance appears to be to beat down Willard during the first 15 rounds.

Willard is likely to attempt a slow, holding fight during the early stages.

The hot weather of the last two days has made the pugilists cautious in their work. The temperature this forenoon was above 90. The road work of both men was easy and their public exhibition work later was to be several rounds shorter than heretofore.

SENATOR HOLLIS SPEAKS ON PEACE PROMOTION

NEW YORK, March 31.0—In an address last night before the Economic Club here, United States Senator Henry F. Hollis of New Hampshire, speaking on the subject "How Can America Best Promote Permanent Peace Between Nations," declared that in his view the best way in international affairs was for a nation "to act among nations as a man among gentlemen." Senator Hollis wanted to know why the Secretary of State should be a "trained diplomat" any more than the Secretary of the Navy or the Army should be a trained sailor or soldier.

"I have greater faith," he said "in the efficiency of the example we are setting other nations by our own high-minded 'undiplomatic' dealings with the foreign powers, by the maintenance of a small army and navy, by your refusal to let commercial interests dictate our foreign policy, by our treaties with many nations providing for a year in which to cool off, and by our careful neutrality in the present crisis. The best way to promote peace among nations is to act among nations as a man among gentlemen."

RUNS DOWN AND KILLS UNIDENTIFIED LABORER

An unidentified man, probably a laborer in the employ of the Southern Pacific Company, was run down and killed by a Southern Pacific electric local at Pine street last night. The body of the man was dragged for over a block before it was discovered by Motorman H. Kaiser that he had run the man down.

The man was taken to the receiving hospital, where he died from fractured skull and other injuries within an hour after being placed on the operating table.

The body was removed to the morgue, where an inquest will be held. The man is described as about 55 years of age, of medium height and build and roughly dressed. Kaiser will be booked on a charge of manslaughter and released on his own recognizance pending the finding of the coroner's jury.

FALLS AMONG PHILISTINES.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.—Bert McKellop, guest at the Hotel Stewart, paid dearly for a visit to the region of the bright lights early this morning. After he had made the rounds of the tenderloin cafes and resorts he discovered that he had been robbed of his return ticket to Australia and $7 in coin. He had also lost his overcoat, which he had hung up in a restaurant. Patrolmen Thelan and Burg accompanied him on a round of the resorts, but he was unable to identify any persons with whom he had been in conversation.

MEMORIA FOUNT HAS DEDICATION

Y. W. C. A. Workers and Guests Enjoy Luncheon and Speeches.

After a luncheon and many congratulatory speeches yesterday, the recently installed fountain adorning the court of the new Young Women's Christian Association was ceremoniously dedicated. The decorative addition to the building was designed by Miss Julia Morgan and is the gift of Mrs. E. C. Hagar of Piedmont in honor of her husband. To the disappointment of the Association, it was not ready in time for the dedication of the "House of Opportunity," and had to wait for a separate occasion.

The workers during the last financial campaign and the board of managers were the guests, while Mrs. L. G. Burpee presided at the luncheon. Among the speakers were Miss Grace Fisher, president of the Association, and Mrs. J. B. Richardson, honorary president, who made the dedicatory address. Miss Lillian Janes, territorial secretary, also spoke.

The water was then released for the first time in the basin of the fountain by little Edward Hagar Moore, the six-year-old grandson of the donor. During the afternoon Miss Edith Hibberd sang a group of songs.

The members of the board of directors and managers are: Mrs. J. B. Richardson, Miss Grace M. Fisher, Mrs. C. M. Hill, Mrs. L. G. ## ENTERTAINMENT BY NEW CENTURY CLUB POSTPONED

Owing to the amount of business to be transacted next Friday at the April meeting, the Oakland New Century Club has postponed being hostess to the Board of Education until May as the annual election must be held and the annual reports presented at the coming luncheon. Excluding Mrs. Robert Watt, who is again nominated for president, there are a number of changes on the ticket to be voted on. Those proposed for office during the ensuing year are: President, Mrs. Robert Watt; vice-president, Mrs. John Newton Porter; recording secretary, Mrs. C. W. Chalfant; corresponding secretary, Mrs. C. E. Farmington; treasurer, Mrs. J. H. Rohr; financial secretary, Mrs. Harry Cable. Four of the five suggested members of the board of directors are: Mrs. J. L. Fuller, Mrs. W. C. Stratton, Mrs. H. J. Platts and Mrs. Bert Sloan.

The monthly social afternoon of the Glenview Ladies' Club will be an affair of tomorrow afternoon at the clubhouse on the boulevard. Mrs. George Preston, who will preside as chairman of the afternoon, has arranged a musical and literary program to follow the short business session.

Summarizing his ideas on "The Art of the Exposition," Eugene Neuhaus will give the last of five lectures under the auspices of the Ebell Club at the clubhouse next Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. In conjunction with his final talk he will show special colored stereopticon slides of particularly important paintings and architectural views. The series of lectures has been very well attended by clubwomen and their friends.

MASKED BANDITS TAKE HIS COIN AND REVOLVER

Two armed and masked bandits last night held up William Anderson, of Anderson's dairy, on the Redwood road, and robbed him of his money and of a revolver. The hold up occurred shortly before midnight, as Anderson was driving to his dairy.

Anderson was stopped by the two men on the Redwood Road where it crosses Harbor View avenue. A bandit stood at each side of the road, and levelled a revolver at his head. They ordered him to get down from his seat, searched him, and took a purse containing $1. The two men then searched the wagon, and took a loaded revolver belonging to Anderson from the seat.

The two bandits left Anderson and walked hurriedly toward Hopkins street. Anderson hastened to the dairy, and telephoned the police. The district was searched, but the robbers had made good their escape.

Mrs. Hanson is 55 years of age and has gray hair. Alback, according to the description, is young and debonaire. He is only 28 years of age and is a tall man and well built.

Mrs. Hanson was last seen last Saturday, when she left her home and was seen to go toward the central part of town with Alback. It is thought that both have left Oakland. The police have so far been unable to give Hanson any information concerning his mother.

EXPORTERS PLAN FOR COPPER SHIPMENTS

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, March 31.—Several of the largest copper producers and exporters have entered into a tentative agreement with the British government, subject to the approval of the state department at Washington, which provides for future exports of the metal to neutral European countries, chiefly Denmark, Norway, Sweden and Italy, without further interference by the ships of the British navy.

Under the proposed agreement, a copy of which was mailed to Secretary Bryan today, exporters will file with the British consular authorities at this or any other port of departure copies of their contracts.

CAPTAIN OF MILITIA WILL BE REPRIMANDED

SACRAMENTO, March 31.—Governor Hiram W. Johnson has confirmed and directed the execution of the orders of the Adjutant-General's office that Captain Ho— W. Varney, Company 12 of the coast artillery corps, of San Francisco, be publicly reprimanded for disrespectful behavior toward his commanding officer, Major William G. Hyde, whom he threatened to put in jail, declaring that he was a special police officer.

Varney was tried by a court martial composed of Lieutenant-Colonel Edwin G. Hunt and Major William P. Humphreys, which found him guilty on three charges and not guilty on two others.

Varney's reprimand will be public and of such a nature as to humiliate him before fellow soldiers.

THE NEW BUSINESS ERA.

Before setting sail for a trip down the east and up the west coast of South America, to be followed by a voyage to the Orient, Senator Burton of Ohio, who has been a close student of international finance and international trade, made, at a banquet in New York, some observations concerning the new relations in a business way with foreign nations, which the present European war is bringing to us. Both Senator Burton and Mr. Root, formerly Secretary of State and expert on South American affairs, were emphatic in their assertions that the leadership of the world, commercially speaking, is within our grasp and that the thing of immediate importance for American business men and statesmen is to strengthen our relations with the Latin-American countries. Manifestly a new business era, full of new opportunities, is opening before the United States, not by our own volition, but because that part of the world which is at war wills it so. We are having trade and profits thrust upon us in a quite unprecedented manner, and the indications are that if the people of the United States who are interested in increasing the markets abroad for United States products are wise and alert and energetic they will be able to make more progress by reason of favorable present conditions in the next three or four years than they could have made under ordinary circumstances in one or two decades. In this connection the leading independent Democratic paper of the East, and doubtless of the whole United States, the New York Times, observes that there are offered for choice in the matter of further business development in this country and abroad the methods of Washington and the methods of business. Two things are certain of the past and promise to be certain in the future. Law never has created prosperity and business has always made its own way to profits. The question now is whether business shall be allowed to make its own way or whether it shall be forced to adopt the methods of those whose strong point is rather the spending of money than the making or saving of it. The administration at Washington has recently assumed supervision of business subjects which used to be left to the courts. We refer, of course, to business methods, not to business morals. The law makers at Washington seek control of prices and of profits and the lawful amount of business to be done by individuals, and concern themselves with methods to be used in selling rather than questions of right and wrong. The cotton trade is a case in point. Shall the size of the crop be regulated by the law makers or by the growers of cotton? We have had all sorts of effort to tamper with the legitimate flow of the cotton trade. For a considerable time there was an energetic demand that the government should carry the cotton producers and loan them millions of dollars of money on vague security. As opposed to the methods of the law makers at Washington we have the efforts of such institutions as the National City Bank, which has proceeded in a direct and practical way to build up trade in Latin-America from the foundation. This banking corporation has for the first time in the history of the United States made it possible for American exporters to have direct financial dealings with South America without making use of the medium of London. The National City Bank has established large credits in the Argentine Republic, in Brazil, and is to make similar arrangements in Chile and other South American countries. It is publishing a journal, which it circulates widely, devoted to practical hints and information respecting South American commerce, such as men actually engaged in business most desire and need. A number of other important banking and exporting houses in New York City and in the East are taking great pains to educate American manufacturers and shippers to make it easy and practical for them to have business communication with Latin-America. The government in the past has tried to do a good deal through its consular service in the way of calling attention to foreign trade opportunities, and the consuls have been very efficient and active reporters. No consuls in the world are more efficient observers than those employed by the United States government, but the efforts and the warnings and the pleas of the consuls have had very little effect, and the great outstanding fact is that we never commenced to make decided progress in a large way in the matter of securing foreign trade until the patriotic bankers and business men of large capacity took the matter up themselves and began to deal with it as an important and pressing business issue. There is no reason to doubt that the vision which Senator Burton and other far-seeing, enlightened statesmen see, a vision of the United States filling the marts of the world with its commerce, will be realized if only the meddlers and the theorists at Washington will leave the machinery of business alone and content themselves with the legislation concerning its morals.

"THE FEDERATION OF THE WORLD."

A very wise old man died in Washington the other day. His name was Charles Francis Adams. His grandfather was a president of the United States, his father was minister to London during our Civil war. He, himself, was a man of importance and distinction. A month before his death, writing about the European war, he made these sage observations:

"We suddenly find ourselves thrown back an entire century. Again we are confronted by 'paper blockades' on an almost unprecedented scale, and by 'Milan' and 'Berlin' decrees, with 'orders in council' in reserve and in response thereto.

"Such a situation has got to work itself out; and, in my belief, can do so only through the complete exhaustion of those more immediately engaged. When that condition of exhaustion is fully developed the neutral powers, if in the interim they have held themselves in reserve, will be in a position effectively to intervene. The whole sea usage of nations, commonly known as 'international law,' will then have to undergo a process of fundamental revision. The basic principles only will be left; and a new system, which will include in my belief a world federation, an organized judicial tribunal and an international police must be evolved.

"This is a large contract; and yet the task is one to which both legislators and publicists cannot, I think, too soon or too seriously address themselves. A great educational process is involved, and cannot be prematurely entered upon; but the time and mode of action and concrete outcome are as yet hardly foreshadowed.

"Under the conditions, therefore, which I have thus sought to outline, it seems to me that the present is a time when those who think and feel as I do should possess their souls with patience. I, for one, certainly feel no disposition to lift up my penny trumper amid such an uproar of ill-considered speech."

There is a deal of thought and knowledge of history compressed into the foregoing paragraphs. The story of our relations with Europe during the administrations of Jefferson and Madison fairly bristle with serious national incidents very like those now which confront us in the matter of contraband, neutrality and blockade.

The important suggestion in Mr. Adams' letter relates to the future. He believes there will be a fundamental revision of international law, and that upon existing basic principles there will be erected, in time, a world federation, a United States of the world, so to speak, which shall give expression to its judgments through an international judicial tribunal, which in turn, will expect to have its decrees enforced by an international police or military force. This suggestion furnishes the one great central thought upon which the minds of intelligent people should be centered. It will take all the wisdom and patience and forbearance of every civilized country to organize a world federation which shall be effective and enduring. The task will be a stupendous one, fraught with most discouraging difficulties, but it will be worth any amount of endeavor, for its successful achievement will mean the establishment of a reign of "the peace of justice" throughout the world.

JUSTICE FOR THE JEWS.

There was held in New York a few days ago the national meeting of the Hebrew Sheltering and Immigrant Aid Society, at which nearly 3000 delegates assembled to hear the report of the president, ex-Judge Leon Sanders. Speeches were also made by Dr. Frederic C. Howe, Commissioner of Immigration for New York, and United States Senator James E. Martine of New Jersey. Judge Sanders, who is one of the intelligent men of New York City, dealt forcefully and suggestively with some very practical and timely topics. The burden of his discourse related to Jewish immigration, to the disposition to be made of it in this country and to a consideration of the fact that as a result of the temporary cessation of immigration owing to the war an enormous increase in the number of Jews coming to this country may be expected when the European war closes.

The Hebrew Sheltering and Immigrant Aid Society is wisely giving careful study to the great problem of Jewish immigration which confronts it. Funds are being raised and plans scientifically formed for receiving, caring for and ultimately placing advantageously large numbers of Jewish immigrants. The point of first importance and which goes to the root of things was emphasized by Judge Sanders when he said: "We will also work to secure better conditions for Jews in Europe after the war, so that fewer of them will want to leave their homes. The continuous migration of Jews from Eastern Europe," he said, "is due to the unrelenting persecution and inhuman oppression by government officials of Russia and Rumania." When the next international peace conference meets to decide the grave issues arising from the present war, it should be asked to translate in terms of justice and humanity the legal, social and political status of the East Europe Jews. Should the fortunes of war turn the disposition of Palestine into a question for consideration, not only the historical claims of Jewry to its ancient fatherland should unhesitatingly be presented, but also those based on the work of regeneration which has been accomplished by Zionist influence.

Although the Jewish immigrants who came to New York in 1914 numbered but 66,557, as compared with 130,237 who came in 1913, the work of the New York society in 1914 has been more assiduous and more extensive than ever before.

The purpose of the alert and effective Hebrews of this and other lands, as intimated by Judge Sanders, to demand better treatment for the Jews of Eastern Europe at the conferences which are called to settle the terms of peace, is one that will commend itself to all right thinking people.

Mr. Thomas H. Browne of Rutland, Vermont, who was a member of the Democratic National Committee from his State, has made an interesting assertion in an interview at Washington concerning the town of Barre, Vermont. He says that the average wages paid to labor, approximately $3.50 a day, are a larger average wage than are paid in any other community. The working men are mostly stone cutters and Mr. Browne states that if any one wants to have his lawn mowed or his garden made he has to pay at the rate of $3.50 per day or he does not get the work done. "The owners of the quarries," says Mr. Browne, "have established a system of payment for men who, through age, have become less efficient than others, that perhaps might well be adopted by the executive departments of the Federal government. This provides for these older employes being put on piece work and thereby given a chance to earn what they are worth. Instead of summarily dismissing them, as I understand sometimes is done with aged employes of the Federal government, the employers give these men the privilege of remaining at work, but they are given piece work instead of a regular wage."

Three dollars and fifty cents is a very fair wage average for an industrial community, particularly so in a small New England town, where the cost of living is doubtless 25 per cent less than it is on the Pacific Coast.

We gather from the news dispatches that an enterprising Baltimore manufacturer is bidding for the privilege of supplying Sarah Bernhardt with an artificial leg, to replace the limb she lost through a surgical operation at Bordeaux some weeks ago. Oakland manufacturers in this line ought to be up and doing. It is not wise to allow a sleepy old town like Baltimore to beat them in the European markets. We can't afford to allow the Eastern manufacturer to be even one leg ahead.

Mrs. Louise W. Arnold, president of the Mount Holyoke Alumnae Association, joins issue with Professor Robert J. Sprague of the Massachusetts Agricultural college, who was incautious enough to assert that "graduates of women colleges do not marry." Mrs. Arnold comes forward with emphasis and spirit to declare that the average college graduate, while she may not be so romantic as a younger and more untrained girl, does marry but not so hastily. Mrs. Arnold takes occasion to add there is no truth in the report that college educated girls do not wish to marry. Her point is that while they believe in matrimony they also cherish the sensible belief that it is their duty to prepare themselves thoroughly and scientifically for the duties of matrimony.

THE FORUM

LETTERS FROM TRIBUNE READERS ON TIMELY TOPICS.

(The TRIBUNE invites its readers to write their views briefly on current topics. The TRIBUNE will try to answer all proper questions asked in good faith.—The Editor).

Editor The Tribune: As a student of psychology and an observer of its phenomena, I ask you to give space to a protest.

A young girl of Richmond, Sandella Gadberry, according to the news columns, was recently the victim, it is alleged, of a man named Jesse Tingstrom, now charged with having contributed to the delinquency of a minor.

The girl has been quoted as saying that her misfortune was due to hypnotic influence exerted over her by Tingstrom, and to that statement my protest is directed.

No person, having been hypnotized, can be induced by the operator to do any act to which they would have strong moral objection while in a normal condition.

I wish to utter this protest in the interest of truth, and because such statements, when given publicity by the press, tend to increase the already dense ignorance and great misinformation concerning the most absurd of all psychic phenomena.

No person, I feel very sure, who understands the laws governing the effects of hypnotism, will ever seek the more than doubtful refuge from the consequences of any act, behind a statement of hypnotic influence. Respectfully,

ALFRED LINDSLEY.

THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AND SPANISH.

To the Editor of The Tribune: In view of the fact that there is a great movement under way in this country looking to the building up of important commercial relations with Latin-America, it seems to me that the public schools of Oakland and of the State and indeed of the United States, ought to devote some serious effort to the matter of teaching Spanish thoroughly. The most important language for any boy or girl to learn in the country today, who expects to have a business career, is Spanish. Our trade relations for the future are going to be in a large measure with Mexico, Central America, South America and the Philippine Islands. It is much more important to teach Spanish than it is to teach French or German. French and German business men who trade with this country learn our language and it is really not necessary for us to be able to speak in their tongues. But the case is entirely different with South America, which is composed of new countries, where in the main education opportunities have been very meager and limited. I would like to see this matter taken up in a determined way by the Chamber of Commerce and Board of Education jointly. It is a matter well worth considering and one that will have an important bearing upon the business future of Oakland and the coast. If we can get a lot of our young people well trained in Spanish so that they can speak the language fluently and correctly, it may help to bring trade here within the next ten or twelve years and indeed for a much longer period after that.

It seems to me that the Chamber of Commerce and the Board of Education ought to co-operate and work earnestly and enthusiastically, hand in hand, in practical matters of this kind. This is one of the instances in which team work is plainly demanded, and if this city is to have the growth and prosperity which we all believe it will have and should have, one thing needful is intelligent team work. R. S. T.

Berkeley, California, March 30, 1915.

"A LOAD OF LIQUOR."

Editor of The Tribune: I read in the daily papers not long ago that the schooner "Anna A. Campbell" was cleared by the custom authorities in San Francisco and sailed for the Island of Guam. This boat, according to the printed accounts, was loaded to the guards with a cargo of intoxicating liquors for the officers and men of the little German gunboat "Cormorant," which is interned at Guam. The entire cargo of the vessel was liquid. It is specified that in the hold there was 420 cases of beer, 20 cases of Vermouth, 24 cases of rum and 40 cases of whisky.

Why should the United States government allow this heavy shipment of poisonous liquors to be sent to a handful of German sailors on the Island of Guam, when it is well known that for years the United States government, which controls this island, has been trying to combat and eradicate the liquor habit among the natives? Nothing is more fatal to native tribes, the world over, than intoxicating liquors. It has been a curse on all the South Sea Islands. Now the customs officials at San Francisco seem not to have the sense of propriety to prohibit the sending of a whole cargo of liquor to a few German sailors when it is practically evident that much of this intoxicating fluid will get into the hands of the natives. Our own sailors and soldiers are not, under any circumstances, allowed to have wine, beer nor liquors in their camps, quarters or on board ships. Why then should we be sending this huge quantity of intoxicants to German sailors who are practically prisoners of war and who ought to be governed by the same regulations which control the health and diet of our own sailors and soldiers?

We could, in reality, do no graver harm to these German sailors who are interned on a small tropical isle and who are living in idleness, than to provide them with wine and rum and beer. They will drink themselves into stupidity or crime and probably they will all become degenerate and inefficient men by reason of the fact that they are allowed to soak themselves with rum in a climate where strict temperance in eating and drinking is specially indicated.

I would like to know the opinion of some of the thoughtful people of this community on this subject. I would like to know what the doctors think about it and what the preachers think about it and what other sound people think about it. It occurs to me that it is a matter which ought to be brought to the attention of the government and ought to be inquired into by congress.

E. N. SCOTT.

WANTS LOWER TAXES.

To the Editor of The Tribune: I am incensed at the idea of $6000 being paid for the illumination of the city hall exterior. That is only the first cost and the maintenance will be a continual expense. The city hall has already cost the taxpayers almost double the original appropriation. Instead of adding to expense why not try to reduce the taxes. When the manufacturers and prospective purchasers learn our taxes are $3.65, only a few of the very courageous remain to invest. A TAXPAYER.

GERMANY'S "IRON ROD."

Force Men to Advance by Enfilading Rear of Their Lines.

Truth, of London, which has been printing a series of articles on German military discipline under the title "The Iron Rod," adds, in its issue of February 17, the following piece of testimony, which, it must be remembered, comes from British sources.

"A lieutenant who had nearly lost his hands from frostbite and was sent home on sick leave has called on me on his way back. He more than confirms my notion about the rod of iron. At La Bassee, for instance, the Germans, in planning their attack—a frontal one—on a British trench, coerced their men into valor by the following means: As soon as the German lines of assailants had begun to advance a number of machine guns in a position of enfilading them began to sweep the ground just behind them, the direction of the firing being altered as the men advanced so as to keep always a zone swept by bullets behind them. This fire continued to the very end of the action.

"There was, therefore, no middle course open to the Kaiser's men but to die or win at the storming of the British trenches or to be slaughtered by the hillside fire if they retreated. The assault, I may say, failed. The runaway Germans were mowed down by their own guns, a few somehow escaping after all. The lieutenant I quote saw with his own eyes this carnage of Germans by Germans. The obstinacy shown by the assailants had no source in heroism.

"Pomeranians and Wends are better men of war than Swabians, Saxons, or Bavarians. They have spirit, muscle and stature. The rod of iron in the eyes of their leaders is less needed with these Northerns than with the Central and South Germans."

Campaign Expenses.

In the last general election to the Japanese Diet the 620 candidates expended some $2,230,000 for campaign expenses, an average of $3815 for each aspirant, although some few spent as much as $20,000. As his salary, if he is elected, is $1000 a year for four years, he can only come out even by the Parliament running its whole term. His expenses cover everything, from agents to printing and advertising. The cost is higher in the rural than in the urban districts.

Belgian Relief.

The commission for the relief in Belgium received word from its London office yesterday that the total amount of relief to Belgian inhabitants is estimated at $25,853,017.23. All but about $4,000,000 of this has been used in the purchase of food and clothing, which have been given away. The remaining $21,000,000 has purchased supplies which have been sold at less than cost to those who could afford to buy.

1480 Horses for War.

The French Line steamer La Gascogne sailed on March 22 from New York for Bordeaux, carrying 1489 horses purchased by the French government for use in the army. Owing to the necessity of dispatching the shipment immediately it was impossible to transform the steamer into even a temporary cattle ship, and the famous old Gascogne, which has carried the millionaires of two continents across the Atlantic, sailed with horses in the cabin de luxe, bridal suites, main salons, in the staterooms and on the decks. The hold was necessarily loaded with forage for the horses, for which an average price of $225 each was paid.

No Bismarck Celebration.

Emperor William has decided to cancel the celebrations planned for April 1 to commemorate the centenary of Bismarck's birth, on the ground that present conditions make such a celebration unsuitable, says a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Amsterdam.

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Dr. Edward R. Sill has accepted the appointment of Health Officer, to succeed Dr. Frank Adams, whose term expires next month. The appointment was tendered to Dr. Sill, who is Davie's family physician. It was understood that Dr. S. H. Buteau was to receive the appointment of Health Officer, but the prize did not come to him. Dr. George Stimpson, veterinary surgeon, has been slated for the appointment of Market Inspector. He will get the appointment.

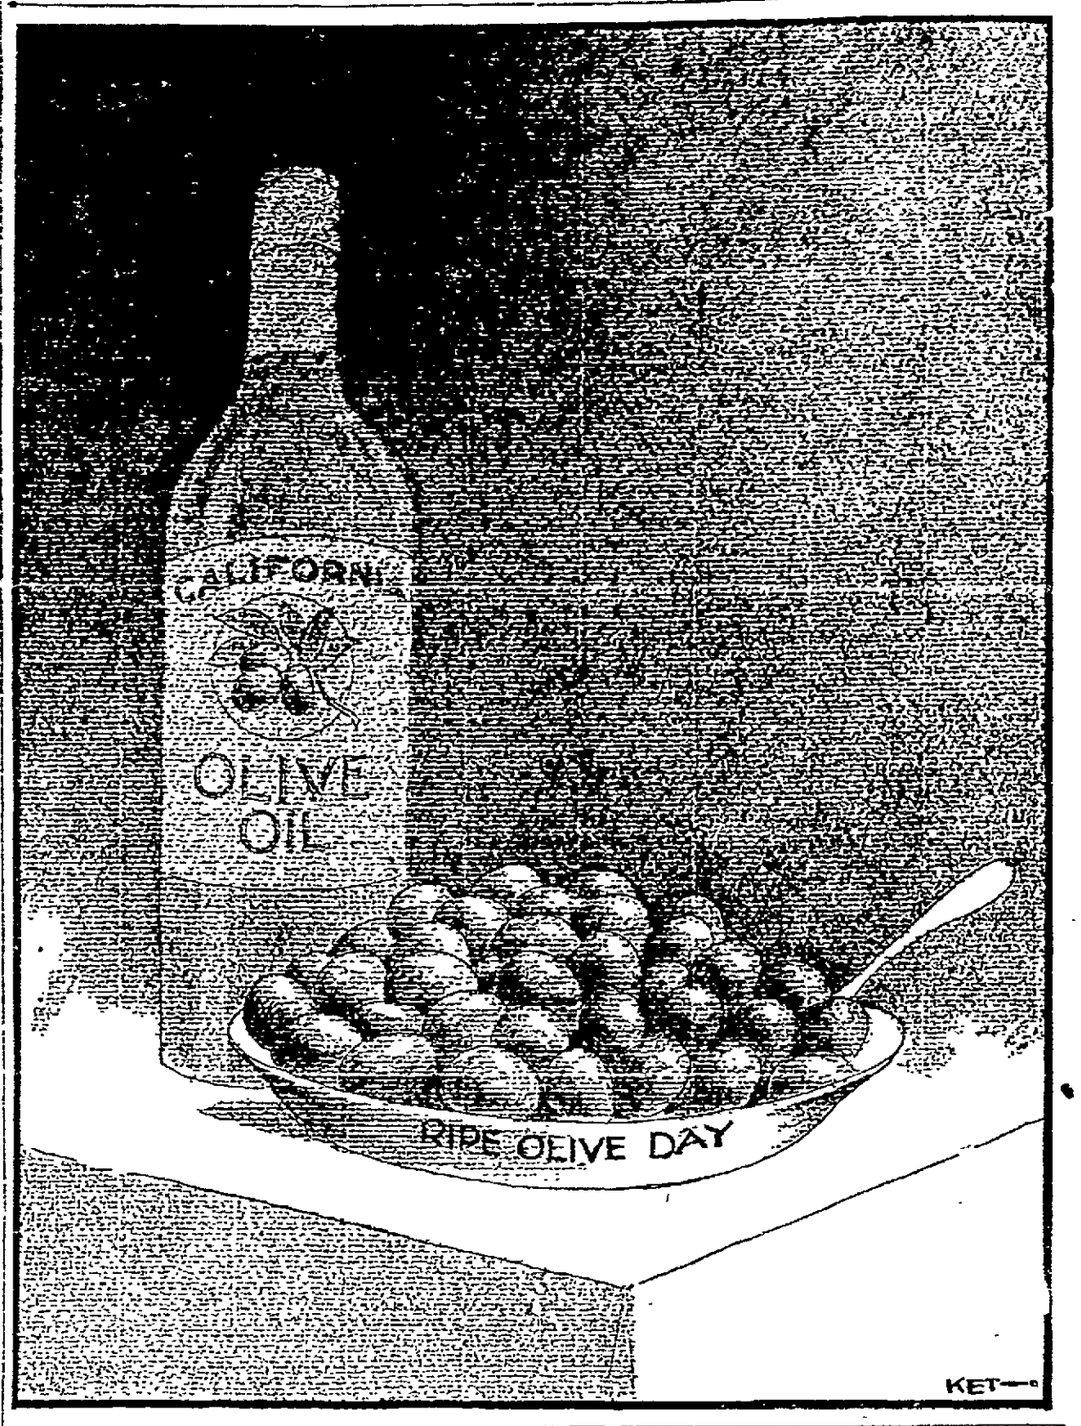

Ex-Sheriff Kellogg has resumed duty in the employ of the Southern Pacific Company at the Peralta street yards.

Ex-Sheriff Robert McKillican can be chief of police under the new city administration if he will accept the position. Mayor-elect Davie has offered the place to him and he now has the matter under consideration. The reason that McKillican has got the matter under advisement is because he wants to see how his fight for warden of San Quentin turns out.

The committee in charge of the Fabiola May Day fete held a meeting in order to discuss the program. Among those present were: Mrs. John Yule, Mrs. Remi Chabot, Mrs. A. A. Barton, Mrs. T. G. Harrison, Mrs. T. W. Standeford, Mrs. Q. A. Chase, Mrs. Robert Knight, Miss Crockett, Miss May Burnham, Miss K. Chabot, and Messrs. R. M. Fitzgerald, Phil Remillard, P. E. Bowles, E. B. Pomeroy, Walter Hackett, John Yule, D. W. Standeford, Colonel Edwards, J. P. Garlick, J. W. McClymonds, Robert Knight, C. D. Bates, Jr., George F. Neece, and J. Grimwood. The ladies agreed to take full charge of the luncheon to be served on May day.

Edward Gilligan has started his contest against William Watkinson in the Superior Court to oust him as Councilman from the Sixth Ward. The contestant claims that there were irregularities in counting the votes in some of the precincts. The official count gave Watkinson 279 votes and Gilligan 274. A recount will not be had in court.

PARTAKE!

CAR STRIKE IN SEATTLE A FIZZLE

Street Railways Running as Usual; Company Claims Only Two Quit.

By Associated Press.

SEATTLE, March 31.—Street cars of the Puget Sound Traction, Light and Power Company, were running as usual this morning and the strike declared against the company with sanction of the Central Labor Union appeared to have come to naught. The company says that only two men of the 2300 in its employ quit last night. Others were pulled from the cars, but afterwards reported for duty.

No arrests were made this morning and there was no disorder of any kind. About twenty arrests were made last night for cutting trolley wires and other attempts to damage street car property. The financial loss suffered by the company was trivial. Mayor Gill says the Industrial Workers of the World were to blame for such disorder as occurred last night.

According to union men, the plan of the Central Labor Union was to make a peaceful street demonstration against the street car company's rule forbidding its men to join the union, but the irresponsible mob that gathered was soon using violence.

UNIONS CALL STRIKE.

The strike was called by a mass meeting of all labor unions held by the Central Labor Council last night. The vote to call out the car men was taken at 9 o'clock and within a few minutes committees were out appealing to the motormen and conductors to leave their posts and join the union. The strike was called to compel recognition of the union.

Service on all lines operated by the Puget Sound Traction Light and Power Company was seriously interrupted and during the first two hours was completely disorganized. On several downtown streets deserted cars blocked traffic until inspectors and shop employes appeared to remove them to the barns.

Except for these delays no line was completely tied up, although blockades occurred frequently when crowds which filled the streets at the principal junction points cut trolley ropes, broke windows and endeavored to take off crews who refused to strike. In a few instances trolley wires were broken and fell sputtering to the street but no one was injured and the company repaired the damage.

CLAIM 100 QUIT.

Sam Atkinson, international organizer of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway employes of America and W. B. Fitzgerald, chairman of the executive board of that organization, directed the movement. They said that 100 carmen had left their posts in response to the call and that they had 50 membership applications on file as a result of their campaign. They said last night's demonstration was only the beginning of the strike and that within a few days the tie-up would be complete. They said the only question at issue was the right to organize.

During the night the police were kept busy preventing attacks on the cars, which soon were without passengers. Many warrants were made on charges of disorderly conduct. None were street car men. Although several men were bruised or slightly cut during fights around the cars no one was reported seriously injured.

DIES ON STREET WHILE ON WAY TO HIS HOME

VALLEJO, March 31.—To be stricken with acute gastritis and expire on the curb when but a short distance from his home, where his wife was waiting at the gate for his home-coming, was the fate of Herbert Belisle, pilot on the steamer Vallejo, about 6:30 o'clock last Monday night. Mrs. Belisle had been complaining of pains in his chest during the day and in the afternoon visited Dr. E. A. Peterson, who ascertained that gas was pressing on the unfortunate man's heart. However, Mr. Belisle did not think enough of the trouble to remain away from work and returned to the steamer. After making the 6 o'clock trip from the yard he started for his home in Sacramento street and was but a short distance from his residence when he was observed to sit on the curb and then fall backwards onto the lawn.

DEMONSTRATE SAFETY TANK.

HAYWARD, March 31.—A demonstration of a non-exploding gasoline tank was held here under the auspices of the fire department yesterday. Fire Chief Manuel Riggs invited the town officials and a number of the citizens to the test of the tank, which was previously demonstrated before the fire and police departments in San Francisco. By means of a patent safety valve apparatus gasoline in auto and other tanks can be prevented from exploding.

GIRLS WIN GAME.

VALLEJO, March 31.—A girls' baseball team defeating a boys' club? It may not seem possible, but it happened in Vallejo yesterday when the Home Run Juniors, an organization composed of girls ranging from 10 to 13 years of age, defeated the Vallejo Bears, a team composed of boys who have had much experience at the game. The game took place in the 400 block in Ohio street, and at the end of the ninth inning the score stood 14 to 7 in favor of the girls.

JUDGE IS RECOVERING.

SAN LEANDRO, March 31.—Judge Frank Mitchell, who was slightly indisposed earlier in the week, is back again on the bench. Up to date the new magistrate's tenure of office has been uneventful. The performance of marriage ceremonies has been his specialty.

Meet your friends, write your letters, rest—in THE TRIBUNE booth, Liberal Arts Building, Third street, between Avenues C and D. You are welcome.

GOVERNOR LEADS PRUNING SESSION

No Excessive Appropriations Will Stand, Is Word from Mansion.

By Associated Press.

SACRAMENTO, March 31.—Application of the administration shears to the appropriation bills before the legislature, totalling millions, was commenced at the first of a series of budget conferences attended by Governor Johnson, Senator Strobridge, chairman of the Senate finance committee; Assemblyman W. H. Wright, chairman of the assembly ways and means committee, and John F. Neylan, president of the board of control.

"The governor has given out the word that everything is going to be cut down to the bone and that the people who are up here asking for special or extra appropriations might as well go home," said one of the administration leaders today.

The rigid pruning of appropriations is in line with a policy of strict economy announced by the administration before the legislature convened in January. Adjustment of the budget is one of the signs of the approach of the end of the legislature. An administration spokesman declared that the session would close on May 1.

FINN TO FORCE BILL.

A constitutional amendment by Senator Finn proposing to fix terms of superior judges at twelve years and permitting judges in office in 1917 to remain until twelve years from the time of their election came up for final consideration in the Senate, but Finn did not feel sufficiently confident of its success and postponed a vote. It was forced to the foot of the file, but Finn said later he will put it to a vote, although it requires approval of two-thirds of the Senate and there exists a general belief on the floor that the amendment will not carry.

Senator Carr's bill providing that the registrar and his deputies in Los Angeles county shall perform the election duties of the county clerk and his deputies was passed. Another bill approved by unanimous vote was Senator Hans' bill requiring salaries of at least $90 a month for laborers under the state harbor commission at San Francisco.

ASSEMBLY MERELY VOTES.

An Assembly record of twenty-four bills passed and three defeated was established in the lower house yesterday. When adjournment was taken late in the afternoon Speaker Young complimented the members for the expedition shown in proceeding with the serious business of the session, and stifling any desire to indulge in oratory or wasteful debate.

Six Senate measures were included in the day's output of bills passed. One of the upper house bills, by Campbell, would aid wives or families to prevent saloonkeepers from selling liquor to habitual drunkards. The bill empowers a district attorney or peace officer to forbid the sale of liquor to persons when a request has been made by the families for such action.

The remainder of the Senate bills were validation acts and a measure forbidding the use of trawl nets in waters under the jurisdictaion of the state.

Among the Assembly bills to receive favorable action were:

The Mouser bill, providing for semi-monthly pay days; establishment of post-graduate elementary schools in rural districts, where high school instruction is obtainable; consolidation of the offices of assessor of tax collector in cities under a freeholders' charter; granting tidelands to the city of Redondo Beach for the purpose of building bulkheads as protection against destructive high tides.

MARE ISLAND NOTES

MARE ISLAND, March 31.—Orders were received from Washington, D. C., Tuesday at Mare Island for the third submarine division, consisting of the divers K-3, K-4, K-7 and K-8 with Lieutenant Joseph V. Ogan, U. S. N., commanding, to prepare to depart for Honolulu next July or August to base in company with the F boats.

The destroyers Whipple, Ferry, Preble and Truxton arrived at Mare Island Tuesday from San Francisco bay. The Paul Jones, the other member of the first flotilla, will arrive here from San Diego some time next week.

Mare Island officers announced Tuesday that all arrangements have been made to hold a dance at the navy yard sail loft on the night of Thursday, April 15th.

Commandant F. M. Bennett, U. S. N., of Mare Island went to San Francisco Tuesday to visit Admiral Uriu of the Japanese navy.

The keel for water barge No. 25 will be laid at Mare Island at 8 o'clock Thursday morning. The keel will weigh in the neighborhood of 35 tons.

IF BACKACHY OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach go sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.—Advertisement.

Capitol Notes

SACRAMENTO, Cal., March 31. — A keenly contested fight between the fishermen and the property owners of Lake Tahoe to restrict commercial fishing on the lake was compromised in the Senate fish and game committee. Instead of reducing both the season and number of trout that can be shipped from Tahoe as urged in a signed petition of the property owners headed by Stewart Edward White, the committee decided only to postpone opening of the season from May 1 to June 1.

A bill by Senator Scott creating a separate State board of examiners for the drugless schools of healing, a measure similar to the initiative defeated at the last general election was sent from the Senate public health committee without recommendation.

Another medical bill loosening the requirements for admission to practice of osteopaths was given an affirmative recommendation.

At the request of the Kern county grand jury, a committee from which was in Sacramento yesterday, a commission, composed of three State officials will investigate to determine whether or not Kern county wasted $16,000 in the purchase of a rock crushing plant when there was no suitable rock to be crushed.

Passage of his bill by the Senate permitting chartered cities to combine their task of collector and assessor with the county collector and assessor completes what Senator Benedict regards as an equitable benefit for Los Angeles as that aimed at in his bill for a consolidated city and county of Los Angeles.

Some opposition to his bill to prohibit district attorneys from engaging in private practice will be removed by Senator Jones by an amendment he said he would offer to exempt incumbents from its restrictions. A big lobby from district attorneys' offices is here fighting the bill.

Senator Scott's bill designating "I Love You, California," as the State song, was favorably recommended for passage last night by the Assembly education committee. The bill was passed by the Senate last week. It will meet with some opposition, it was understood, when it reaches the floor of the House this week.

From 25 to 50 per cent of the children under five years old who contract tuberculosis are infected with the disease by impure milk, it was declared before the Senate public health committee last night in a paper by Dr. Donald H. Curtis, secretary of the State board of health at a public hearing on the Shearer pure milk bill.

BIBLE IN SCHOOLS HAS COMMITTEE ATTENTION

By Associated Press.

SACRAMENTO, March 31.—The question of submitting to the people the Dennett proposed constitutional amendment permitting the introduction of the Bible in public schools, occupied the attention yesterday of the assembly constitutional amendment committee. H. McGraw, field secretary of the National Reform Association, in urging favorable action for the measure, said he could not see how any possible harm could be done to children by a study of the Bible's many lessons.

T. R. Simpson of Sacramento opposed the amendment on the ground that the Bible was not a proper book for children.

The measure provides that the Bible shall be read in schools without sectarian comment.

ASSEMBLY REFUSES TO RECONSIDER PETTIS BILL

By Associated Press.

SACRAMENTO, March 31.—The Assembly, by a vote of 56 to 7, refused today to consider its action this week in passing the Pettis bill requiring the Board of Harbor Commissioners to issue monthly statements of receipts and disbursements. The passage of the bill was urged by the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce. The employment of a certified accountant by the Harbor Commissioners is authorized.

SPECIAL TEACHER BILL REPORTED FOR PASSAGE

By Associated Press.

SACRAMENTO, March 31. — Special teachers' certificates will be issued by the county board of education instead of the state board, according to a bill reported for passage by the Senate education committee today.

Other bills favorably reported were for supervising deputy superintendents of schools in the counties and for uniform minimum courses in the State Normal schools.

LEGISLATIVE TRIP TO SAN DIEGO POSTPONED

By Associated Press.

SACRAMENTO, March 31.—The legislative excursion to the San Diego exposition originally fixed for April 3, has been postponed until April 10 because of the press of business in both houses. Assemblyman Conrad requested the postponement in the House today.

RATIFY CHARTER AMENDMENTS.

By Associated Press.

SACRAMENTO, March 31. — Amendments to the San Francisco city charter, adopted at a special election on March 16, were ratified without dissent today by the Assembly. Similar action is to be taken in the Senate.

FITCHBURG ORGANIZES CIVIC LEAGUE CENTER

FITCHBURG, March 31.—The East End Center of the California Civic League was organized at a meeting at the home of Mrs. Harry Boyle, 973 Seventy-fifth avenue, yesterday afternoon. L. E. Blockman, organizer of the league, was present and assisted in the organization of the new Center, the members of which are residents of Fitchburg. All women in the community interested in civic and improvement work are invited to join the East End Center, which, in keeping with the policy of the Civic League, is non-partisan and non-political.

Temporary officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. G. Campbell; vice-president, Mrs. A. Hudson, secretary, Mrs. Harry Boyle; treasurer, Mrs. H. C. Newth. Other officers will be elected at the next meeting of the Center.

Charter members of the East End Center are: Mrs. A. C. Kalas, Mrs. G. C. Sherver, Mrs. William Bray, Mrs. George McClellan, Mrs. A. Busch, Mrs. E. Mesick, Mrs. A. B. Lewis, Mrs. W. Parrott, Mrs. J. M. Chandler and Mrs. O. Kreider. Mrs. Sarah Greenwood and Mrs. George Ingraham represented Melrose Civic Center at the first meeting of the new Center.

Extra fire protection for Fitchburg will be urged by the East End Center, which will put in a request for more fire hydrants and for a fire engine for the third district. On account of the insufficient fire protection in Fitchburg, it was pointed out, the fire insurance rates had lately been raised considerably.

The secretary was instructed to thank the Melrose Business Men's Association for securing a promise of more street cars on East Fourteenth street. Delegates to the Council of Women's Clubs East of Lake Merritt will be appointed by the Center at its next meeting.

MANY FIGHTS ON BILLS IN SIGHT

Legislators Lining Up for Battle in Both Houses at Capital.

By Associated Press.

SACRAMENTO, March 31. — Several keen fights were on the final passage calendar for today's session of the Senate with any one or all of them likely to set the members off on a long debate. The turmoil of legislative contest was interrupted for a few minutes in both houses while the members paid complimentary attention to "California Ripe Olive Day" and munched big, ripe olives distributed by members from the olive districts.

Senator Butler's dry zone bill, fixing a mile limit law around all normal schools, which was put over yesterday was ready to receive the legislative lists. It was reported early today that amendments modifying the bill in its application to San Francisco would be offered.

The women juries bills on which a final vote was postponed from Monday were expected to be called up by Senator Butler by their author, and some echoes of the fight on the Finn cemetery bills was looked for although the issue was considered to have been settled by the decisive defeat of the principal cemetery bill yesterday.

FAVOR ANNULMENT OF APPRENTICE RESTRICTION

By Associated Press.

SACRAMENTO, March 31.—A measure by Senator Owens, intended to annul labor union regulations restricting the number of apprentices who may learn a trade, was recommended for passage in the Senate judiciary committee for passage by a vote of 5 to 3 last night, Senators Benedict, Ballard, Campbell, Maddux and Purkitt voting aye, and Senators Kehoe, Luce and Tyrrell nay. The action was taken in the face of vigorous opposition by a dozen representatives of organized labor, led by George A. Tracy, president of the California State Typographical Conference. The bill is regarded by organized labor representatives as one of the pieces of legislation most inimical to their interests. Several employers present, supporting the bill, said "the unions combined to prevent boys from learning a skilled trade, thereby establishing a trust, and driving boys into unskilled lines."

ANTI-CIGARETTE BILL URGED BEFORE COMMITTEE

By Associated Press.

SACRAMENTO, March 31.—Opponents and supporters of the Phillips anti-cigarette bill presented their arguments on the measure last night before the Assembly public morals committee. Sacramento ministers and members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union strongly urged the passage of the bill, emphasizing that the welfare of the state's boys and girls should weigh above any financial consideration advanced by dealers and manufacturers.

George W. Whittaker, president of the John Bellman Tobacco Company of San Francisco, Assemblyman J. J. Byrnes and Senator Scott spoke against the bill. No action was taken by the committee, which is composed mainly of non-smokers. It fixes a misdemeanor penalty for any persons, company or corporation, to sell or give away any cigarettes or cigarette papers, or to have them in any place for free distribution.

COMMISSION ASKS FOR CONTROL OF STEAMERS

By Associated Press.

SACRAMENTO, March 31.—Senator Carr's bill amending the public utilities act to place tramp coastwise steamers under the jurisdiction of the state railroad commission, was given a public hearing last night by the joint Senate and Assembly public utilities committee. The chief opposition against the bill was made by Seth Mann of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, and W. Coggshell, speaking for the Humboldt Chamber of Commerce and other Eureka civic bodies.

In was contended by Coggshell that in view of the keen competition existing among steamers plying between Eureka and San Francisco, the freight rates were not excessive and the necessity for state regulation was not required.

STEAK UNDERDONE IS PLAINT; BLOWS FOLLOW

HAYWARD, March 31.—Mildly criticising an underdone steak, C. Villa, a restaurant guest here, claims he was suddenly set upon by the chef, E. J. Ludtke, who overheard the remark and who unceremoniously bundled his customer from the table and out at the door.

In a complaint charging Ludtke with assault, Villa says the chef's temper got the better of him, although the criticism of the dinner was offered in a friendly way. Ludtke admitted he left his pots and pans to burn while he defended his culinary reputation against the slur he contended Villa cast on it by his remark. In his opinion there was considerable provocation.

Judge Charles Prowse, who heard both sides of the story yesterday, imposed a fine of $10 on Ludtke.

IMPROVERS GIVE HEYWOOD APPLAUSE

Mayor Is Warmly Received at Meeting of the Bay District Memership.

BERKELEY, March 31.—Mayor Heywood spoke to the Bay District Improvement Club at its invitation last evening in California hall. He met with a rousing reception and discussed the campaign issues without gloves. Frank Connors is president of the club; Mrs. J. Rumsen, vice-president, and John La Strange is secretary. Verne Germain acted as chairman and George C. Pape, E. O. Turner, Walter Gompertz, E. T. Bartlett, F. T. Robson and W. B. Herms spoke.

"I began my career among the factories of West Berkeley," said the mayor, "and when I come back here I am coming home. As organizer and first president for three years of the Manufacturers' Association I headed a movement which has been successful in putting Berkeley on the map as a manufacturing town. I am in favor of co-operating with Emeryville and Oakland in the development of the waterfront, for by this plan only can we have the backing of the United States government. I believe these cities should get together on a common ground where their interests are mutual, and I am confident that our water and transportation problems can be solved in no other way. I know that I do not need to come here to solicit your support, because I have always had it without asking. Let us all pull together and make Berkeley a great manufacturing as well as an educational center."

PRAISES CLUB.

"Just a word as to the stability of your club. I know of no other in Berkeley which has been organized for ten years as yours has, nor do I know of another that had had for years as you have a fund in your treasury. Keep up your boosting for the bay district."

At the Howard residence on Dwight way the Heywood meeting was addressed by the mayor. Fred G. Athearn spoke of the splendid character and record he had made and H. S. Howard called attention to the fact that he had been and always would be against machine politics.

BIG RALLIES PLANNED.

Tonight will be two big rallies for the mayor. All candidates for councilman and school director are invited. In West Berkeley at Finnish Hall Thomas F. Dowd will preside and entertainment will be furnished by the well known humorist and reader, Fred Emerson Brooks. At the Lincoln School in South Berkeley will be another rally, where O. B. Caldwell is to preside with D. C. McCurdy, H. Schenckel, J. Martin and A. T. Bartley are vice-presidents of this precinct organization.

Thursday evening he will address a house meeting at the residence of Stephen E. Kieffer, 74 The Uplands, where candidates E. Q. Turner, F. T. Robson and Carrie H. Gibbs have also been invited. The committee in charge is H. B. Green, Thomas H. Nichols and John B. Dennis. Friday afternoon the mayor will speak to the Women's Democratic Club at the board of education rooms at 3 o'clock, and Friday evening at 8 o'clock J. M. At the meeting of the campaign committee working for the candidacy of Mrs. Carrie H. ## MORE THAN SCORE IN FIELD AT COLLEGE CITY PRIMARIES

Berkeley to Vote on Candidates for Mayor, Auditor, Councilmen and School Director

BERKELEY, March 31.—Twenty-two candidates will bid for votes at Saturday's municipal primaries. The Berkeley voters will cast their ballots for Mayor, Auditor, Councilmen and School Directors. The candidates and a history of their public life, follow:

MAYOR

CHAS. D. HEYWOOD.

Charles D. Heywood was born in this city in 1881. His career is one of a self-made man having been a newsboy on the streets of Berkeley at the age of 13 and mayor at the age of 33. His education was good but not polished and he graduated from the public schools of this city at the age of 13. After finishing school he helped his father in the latter's grocery business and later became chief clerk at a hotel in Woodland. After serving in this capacity for some time he became secretary of the West Berkeley Lumber company and after the death of his father in 1903 he was made president and manager of the concern.

He held this position until 1913 when he was elected mayor of the city of Berkeley. Heywood was also one of the organizers and president of the Berkeley Merchants' association and for two times was appointed director of the Chamber of Commerce. In the first position he held the presidency for a period of three years.

Heywood is the originator of the "Heywood Idea" which is now in vogue in the city of Berkeley and stands for efficiency, constructiveness and progress.

SCAMUEL C. IRVING.

Samuel C. Irving, candidate for mayor, was born in Cleveland, Ohio, in 1858. Coming to California he graduated from the Vallejo high school in 1875 and the University of California in 1879. The next two years he spent in travel around the world to complete his education. In 1882 he entered the business world and for about 25 years was vice-president and general manager of the Paraffine Paint company. He has made his business an international success, and is now carrying on trade with no less than 57 countries in different parts of the world.

His firm employs hundreds of Alameda county workers, and according to his statements, brings millions of dollars yearly to this State.

Irving was formerly a regent of the University of California and recently president of the Berkeley Chamber of Commerce. He has taken a prominent part in business and civic affairs in this city for more than ten years past.

Irving stands for greater efficiency in municipal government, both in the manner in which city business is conducted and the economy with which it is carried on.

J. STITT WILSON.

J. Stitt Wilson, candidate for mayor, was incumbent of that position before the present term. He was born in Ontario, Canada, in 1868, and educated in the Northwestern university, where he took his bachelor's and later his master's degree. He was pastor of Methodist, Episcopal churches in and about Chicago, resigning ministerial work to take up Socialist propaganda in which he has been engaged for 18 years.

He has written many articles and periodical contributions on Socialist subjects. He was Socialist candidate for governor in 1910. He is now a registered graduate student in the University of California, seeking a doctor of philosophy degree.

In the present campaign Wilson is making a stand against private corporations or self-seeking groups using the government for their special gain. He stands strongly for public ownership of public utilities, aid to the unemployed and a fair and equitable system of taxation. Civil service receives his hearty support.

AUDITOR

E. S. GUTIERREZ.

E. S. Gutierrez, candidate for auditor, is 60 years of age and a native of New York State. He has resided most of his life in the west and was educated in the public schools of this State. He is a descendant of one of the oldest families in California, an ancestor in the direct line having been the first governor of this State under Spanish rule.

For some years Gutierrez was cashier of a leading bank at Vallejo. His health breaking he came to the bay region and since then has been engaged in marine engineering and other work in the bay district. For some years he was in the employ of the United States government as a marine engineer. He was employed for nine years by Robling & Sons on the Brooklyn bridge. Recently he has been engaged as a bookkeeper for a San Francisco firm.

Training in office methods are urged by Gutierrez as one of his chief qualifications for the office of auditor. He promises to bring to the work if elected a knowledge of the most modern business methods.

M. L. HANSCOM.

M. L. Hanscom, candidate for auditor, was born in the State of Maine and received his early education in that State and later attending Exter college from which school he graduated in 1863. Following his graduation he entered Harvard and received a diploma from college in 1867. One year after his graduation he married and moved to California, residing in San Francisco for five years. Then he moved to Oregon and after seven or eight years in that state came to Berkeley where he has been ever since.

Starting in the wholesale lumber business in Berkeley he built up his business and later branched out into the wholesale and retail lumber trade. In 1895 he was elected to the position of city clerk in which capacity he served for several years.

Hanscom's work in the city clerk's office is a strong point in his favor as he has had the practical experience in civic positions. He is at the present time city auditor and has served in this position for a longer period of time than any man in the city government.

ADOLPHUS F. EDDY.

Adolphus F. Eddy, candidate for auditor, is 54 years of age, has resided for 25 years on this coast and for 12 years in California. He has been accountant 30 years, and was for 12 years in mercantile business. He was employed in turn by the Union Iron Works, United States Steel corporation and the Westinghouse Electric company. He has letters from his former employers complimenting him upon the character of his work. His son and daughter are in the university.

Eddy displays with pride an invitation he has just received from a prominent Oregon merchant for whom he worked 18 years ago. Despite the lapse of time this man pleads with him to return to his former position at a largely increased stipend.

A candidate on the Socialist ticket, Eddy subscribes to the local platform of the party, which is for municipal ownership, a fairer system of taxation, assistance to the unemployed and civil service. He seeks the office on the basis of his business qualifications.

COUNCILMAN

C. E. AYER.

C. E. Ayer, candidate for council, is the son of one of the pioneers of the State, his father having come to California in 1849. Ayer was born in 1853 in Donnerville and after residing in that city for some time came to San Francisco where he held various civic positions. Ayer served on the board of education of San Francisco and was also an employe of the collector of the port. Again he was assistant clerk in San Francisco in the building department and later entered upon a business career which lasted until the fire when he moved to Berkeley, and has been in business here since that time.

Ayer has stated that he is a Republican in national politics and non-partisan in local politics standing for lower taxes and every form of political economy.

Ayer was also a candidate for mayor at the election of two years ago and his experience under C. D. Haswell as clerk of the building department of San Francisco has stood him in good stead in the various political positions which he has held.

WALTER GOMPERTZ.

Walter Gompertz, candidate for city councilman, was born in 1872 in Mexico, where his father was teacher in the schools. In 1879 with his family he removed to Berkeley, where he has made his residence ever since. Gompertz is distinctly a product of the Berkeley educational system, a student from the lowest primary grade to the end of Berkeley high school.

After his school days he was employed by the R. Dunsmuir Sons, wholesale coal company, in which he rose from a modest position to be cashier and treasurer. Nine years ago he entered into partnership in the firm of Durgin & Gompertz, with which he has since been connected.

He is vice-president of the West Berkeley bank. He has previously served in a public capacity and was a member of the board of town trustees which appointed the freeholder board and was instrumental in the institution here of the commission form of government. Gompertz has chosen as the slogan of his campaign, "Economy, efficiency, experience and energy," believing an efficient administration can be built only upon these four cardinal civic virtues.

CHARLES GREEN.

Charles Green, candidate for council, was born 42 years ago in Wilmington and educated in the Polytechnic Institute there. He was chief engineer and draughtsman for the Louis Nixon Shipbuilding works at Elizabethport, N. J., and later superintendent of the Baltimore Shipbuilding and Drydock company. Passing the civil service examinations he entered the employ of the navy department in the navy yard at New York City. He was transferred to this coast and for two years was in the Union Iron Works in San Francisco.

He has resided in Berkeley for 14 years. He was organizer of the board of trade and of the flower festival. He was director of the Chamber of Commerce. He drew the map of Berkeley which is in general use, and made up plans for Berkeley harbor development which were complimented by Colonel Reese.

Green believes in recognition by the citizens of the younger men. He stands for the achieving of efficiency in the city administration at all costs and is against wasteful expenditure.

NORMAN W. PENDLETON.

Norman W. Pendleton, Socialist candidate for council, has resided in the bay district for 25 years. Working his way through the night grammar and high schools of San Francisco, he went to work upon graduation as a cash boy for a firm in that city, working his way to the position finally of assistant manager. He then attended the University of California, supporting himself through his studies. He organized the municipal employment bureau in Berkeley and received almost 100,000 votes for lieutenant-governor on the Socialist ticket last fall.

He was pastor of the People's Center in San Francisco for five years, one of the managers in the men and religion forward movement on this coast and of the international board of managers of the Baptist Young People's Union. He is 35 years of age and the head of a family.

Pendleton believes in the new spirit in city government which not only administers technical details but conserves and protects human life. He has made a special study of municipal government problems.

CARLETON BARTLETT.

Carleton Bartlett, candidate for council, is one of the few native sons in the race, being a native of Jackson, where he was born in 1872 and where he was educated. He was formerly president of the board of education of Amador county. For two years Bartlett was engaged in reform work at the State institution at Ione. Later he entered the government mail service, caring for the mails between San Francisco and Los Angeles. In 1907 he organized the Alpine Wood company in this city where he devised the cordwood character, "Billy Blox," which has since become locally famous. He has resided in Berkeley for 15 years, is married and is the father of six children.

Bartlett is making his campaign on an entirely independent basis and points out that he will go into office if elected, untrammeled by any affiliations. He believes in a municipal administration founded on sound business principles and proposes to administer the affairs of the city with the caution, economy and judgment that he has tried to bring to his own business.

GEORGE C. PAPE.

George C. Pape, candidate for council, was born at Dobbs Ferry, New York, in 1857, and came to California in 1883, to Berkeley in the next year. He bought property and located at Bonita avenue and Berkeley way a lumber mill, which he later removed to Addison and Milvia streets. Two years ago he gave up his plant to attend to the outside business of the F. W. Foss company in the same line of business. He has two sons grown and residing here.

Pape points to his long residence in Berkeley as specially qualifying him for the councilmanic position because of his acquaintanceship with local conditions. He believes the council must maintain a close relationship with the people and must induce the coming here of new manufacturing ventures and seek some way of providing homes here for their employes. He argues earnestly for the improvement of the waterfront.

In the years of his experience as a mill man and an employer of men Pape points to his absolute freedom from labor troubles of any kind and his constant amicable relations with the unions.

JOHN A. WILSON.

John A. Wilson, candidate for council and incumbent, was born in Illinois. Finishing his schooling he was employed by the John V. Farwell drug company. Later he engaged in mining in Colorado and later still managed the mining interests of Farwell in Idaho. He has resided 25 years in California and 16 years in Berkeley. He is proprietor of a bicycle and repair concern in South Berkeley.

Wilson was elected to the city council on the Socialist ticket in 1911 and has served as an ex-officio member of the school board. He calls attention to the fact that through his initiative the amount of insurance premiums the city has had to pay on its schools has been greatly reduced and that he instituted another economy by furnishing the high school with its own water supply. These two things, he shows, have more than saved the city the amount of his salary.

He believes in a more logical system of raising money for improvements than bonds and points out that the city is unnecessarily spending $90,000 a year in interest on such investments.

FRED T. ROBSON.

Fred T. Robson, candidate for council, has resided in Berkeley for years and is well known both in the city and in the college community. He is a native of Illinois, 35 years of age.

Educated in the schools of that State, Robson spent a period of five years after finishing high school as a representative of a large unware manufacturing establishment in the Orient, where he acquired a knowledge of business methods and of men. Later he was engaged with a lumber company in Tuolumne county. Returning to the bay region to finish his education he entered the University of California, from which he was graduated in 1909 as a civil engineer.

Since that time he has been engaged in the pursuit of his profession, with especial attention to sanitary engineering problems. He has established sanitary and storm systems, water supply systems and streets in many interior cities of the State.

He is emphasizing in his campaign the need of solid business methods in city government, which he thinks should be conducted as a large corporation.

E. Q. TURNER.

E. Q. Turner, candidate for council, is a native of New Brunswick, Canada, in which place he lived until he was 16 years of age. He then moved to Boston, where he completed his education and after four years in that city removed to California in 1874 and resided in San Francisco. Here he spent several years and later came to Berkeley where he started in business and where he has resided ever since.

Turner was a member of the Berkeley board of trustees in 1899 and was also appointed a member of the street department in 1903 being vested with the position of superintendent of streets in which capacity he served for almost seven years. Following his service in this branch of city work he entered the street construction business and in 1911 was elected a member of the city council in which position he has served until the present time.

Turner has filled all of his civic positions for more than one term and his record in office is one of which he can be proud. He has had considerable experience in the capacity of councilman, having served since 1911 in the city council of Berkeley.

CHARLES J. WAGNER.

Charles J. Wagner, candidate for city council, has resided for several years in Berkeley, where he has been engaged in business and where he is identified with leading commercial activities. He is 39 years of age, a man of family and a resident on Woolsey street in South Berkeley. He was educated in American schools and afterwards pursued studies in engineering, serving for a time as instructor in a coast engineering school. Of late years he was connected as sales manager with one of the large specialty houses doing business on the coast.

For the past three years Wagner has taken a lively interest in civic affairs, especially in the interests of South Berkeley, where he has served as secretary of the South Berkeley Improvement club.

Wagner promises, if elected, to stop extravagances of all sorts, and sees a chance in street repairs for one economy. He believes there are too many employes in several city departments for the amount of work which has to be done. He promises special attention to the business and desires of the improvement clubs.

SCHOOL DIRECTOR

ROBERT E. BAIRD.

Robert E. Baird is possibly the one candidate for school director who has never had occasion to leave California for a longer period than a pleasure trip. He was born in Oakland and has lived in Oakland and Berkeley all of his life, being a graduate of the Berkeley grammar and high schools and starting in business in that city immediately after his graduation from high school. After several years as a successful business man he was elected director of the Chamber of Commerce in which capacity he served for several years.

Baird has stated that his policy will be strictly economical and low taxes is a strong point in his platform. At the present time Baird is employed in the real estate business under the firm name of Justin & Baird and his close connection with the schools of Berkeley as a student and later as a resident has made him a strong candidate for the office.

During his term as director of the Chamber of Commerce several new civic ideas were instituted and many improvements made in the work of the Chamber in Berkeley.

CARRIE H. GIBBS.

Carrie H. Gibbs, candidate for school director, is a native of San Francisco and for fourteen years a resident of Berkeley. Her education was secured in the public schools of San Francisco and in college in New Jersey. After her college career she made an extended trip to Europe where she completed her education.

Following her tour of the continent, she returned to San Francisco where she occupied several positions as teacher in the public schools. After several years as teacher she moved to Berkeley, where she was a member of the Hillside Mothers' club and president of this body for three years. She was also president of the Federated Mothers' clubs for one year and resigned after a re-election, in order to take up her duties as president of the women's committee for the city of Berkeley. Mrs. Gibbs is now a member of Mayor Heywood's advisory school committee in which capacity she has served for some time.

During her period as teacher in the schools of San Francisco, she came in close contact with the children of the bay cities and she is the women's candidate in the coming election having been selected by representatives from the various women's organizations of Berkeley.

FRED J. GOBLE.

Fred J. Goble, candidate for school director, is a native of Tulare county and educated in his early years in the schools of that section of the State. He came to the bay region fifteen years ago and in 1905 was graduated from the University of California. He pursued law studies for two years thereafter, being graduated from Hastings College of the Law in 1907. Since that time he has been practicing his profession with offices in the Hobart building in San Francisco. He is married and has two children, residing at 1610 Josephine street.

Though this is the first occasion on which Mr. Goble has been a candidate for office in this city, he has continually taken a profound interest in civic affairs and has made an exhaustive study of municipal government. He is especially well versed in the legal phases of city administration.

Goble believes in efficiency as the watchword of municipal government and is emphasizing that quality particularly in his campaign.

PROF. W. B. HERMS.

Professor W. B. Herms, candidate for school board, was born at Portsmouth, Ohio, in 1876. At the end of his first year in high school he had to quit school for lack of funds and worked his way through a commercial school. He went later from workman in a lumber yard to a responsible position in the yard office; then worked from the shops of a shoe factory into the position of paymaster. For four years he attended Baldwin-Wallace college, later organizing there a highly efficient college of commerce. He taught and studied, working to support himself meanwhile, in Ohio State college and in Ohio Wesleyan, and finally went to study at Harvard. He entered the faculty of the University of California in 1908 in the department of agriculture and has since become a world-wide recognized authority on parasitology. His work in public health in the rural districts is well known.

Professor Herms urges his own life experience as his chief argument for election. He declares the schools must turn out useful, healthy, happy children, capable of meeting the world face to face and of conquering for themselves a position therein.

HERMAN I. STERN.

Herman I. Stern, candidate for the school board, is a present the president of that body, to which he was elected four years ago, and a Socialist. Stern was born in Ohio in 1854, receiving his education in the schools of that state and his degree of bachelor of arts from Heidelberg college, Ohio. He took this degree at the age of 18, which is considered extraordinarily young, and three years later secured also his master's degree.

At 18 he was teaching in the Jeffersonville, Ohio, high school. Later for ten years he taught English in the Mission House, a German college, a big institution of that day. He taught also in Pennsylvania near Philadelphia and in other schools in the east and middle west. Resigning at last from teaching he entered the ministry, preaching for many years in German. During this period he occupied pulpits in Louisville, Washington, Cincinnati and San Diego.

Stern stands for the improvement of the common schools, believing that all classes of society should find it possible to send their children to school and prepare them for life work. He is a Socialist and defends the local platform of that party.

HELEN VAIL WALLACE.

Helen Vail Wallace, born November 15, 1865, in Ontario, Canada, and a candidate for school director on the Socialist ticket, was educated in the public schools of Nebraska to which she came when three years of age. She also received a college education in the University of Iowa and following her graduation from college came to California where she served in various teachers' positions in San Francisco, Oakland and Berkeley.

At one time Mrs. Wallace was employed as a writer on one of Oakland's daily papers and for a period of three years she was a member of the staff of the New York World in New York city.

It is her opinion that every one connected with the education of the children should be of the highest type obtainable and that nothing is too good for the boys and girls who are to become our citizens within a few years. Ideal buildings, teachers and surroundings is the motto of Mrs. Wallace and humanity is her platform.

"EXPO" ATTRACTS UNIVERSITY MEN

Positions at the Fair Are Filled By College Students.

BERKELEY, March 31.—The lure of the Exposition does not apply alone to visitors from the eastern states or to residents of the bay cities but it applies also to students at the University of California. There are numbers of university students, graduate and undergraduate, employed in some capacity at the fair.

Statistics in one department of the work now done by university students were gathered and it was found that in the guide department, forty out of the sixty employed are university men. Seventeen of the forty have attended or are attending the University of California, seven are from Stanford and the rest are from one of the following institutions:

University of Indiana, Marietta College, St. John's, Kansas State, Nebraska State, Universities of Washington, Nevada and Cincinnati, Ohio Northern, Michael's, Lane Technical School, Harvard, Dartmouth, Columbia and Trinity College in Dublin.

It is not the money that attracts the educated man in most instances as the salary in most of the positions is noting phenomenal but it is the Exposition itself and the glitter and bustle of the Zone as well as the places of interest and education on the grounds which appeals to the college student and makes a position at the Exposition desirable.

Several different branches of work are now being filled at the Exposition by university men. Guiding visitors around the grounds and through the bay cities is the most popular of the positions, pushing wheel chairs is the next in line and several other jobs of various capacity employ university men.

CHECKER CHAMPS CLASH.

BERKELEY, March 31.—The Inter-City Checker Tournament between the Oakland and Berkeley Y. M. C. A.'s was won by Berkeley last night in the lobby of the Oakland association.

The final score showed that the Berkeley team had won by the narrow margin of one game. Out of thirty-two games played, the Berkeley men won fifteen, lost fourteen and drew three. Priest, Lightfoot, Aspinwall and Yeomans of Berkeley played against McClelland, Buchannan, Evans and Johnson for Oakland.

GET RID OF HUMORS

Hood's Sarsaparilla is the Medicine to Take—Makes Pure Blood.

Dry, moist, scaly tetter, pimples, boils, and other eruptions come from humors, which may be either inherited, or acquired through defective digestion and assimilation.

Hood's Sarsaparilla, the old reliable medicine, helps the system to discharge the humors, and improves the digestion and assimilation.

Get Hood's Sarsaparilla from your druggist. It may be confidently relied upon to do its work. It purifies the blood, tones the stomach, and builds up the whole system. It goes to the roots of diseases, and its beneficial results are permanent. It sets things to rights in the system. Remember to ask for Hood's Sarsaparilla, because nothing else acts like it and nothing else can take its place. —Advertisement.

It was originally planned to hold the contests Friday afternoon of this week, but it was decided to advance the date one day so the big race will be on Thursday afternoon, starting at Webster street and Santa Clara avenue.

The athletes of the school are showing the greatest interest in the event and it promises to promote general rivalry. The handsome cups will be on exhibition tomorrow in the window of A. O. ## TENT CITY PLAN PUZZLES COUNCIL

New Sites Proposed; Lively Argument Result of Protests.

ALAMEDA, March 31. — That the members of the city council, with the representatives of the Oklahoma Tent City company, get together immediately and discuss a location for the proposed tent city for Oklahomans who desire to attend the Exposition other than the proposed site at Encinal avenue and Grand street, was the decision last night of the city council. Councilman George W. Stewart moved that the application of the Oklahoma Tent City company to establish a tent city at Grand street and Encinal avenue be granted. His motion was seconded by Councilman George T. Morris. Councilman William Hammond Jr. moved as a substitute that the council meet with the tent city people at the call of Mayor Frank Otis and discuss another location. The motion was seconded by Councilman E. J. Probst and was adopted by the following vote:

Noes—Councilmen Stewart and Morris.

Following the reading of the application of the tent city company, in which it was agreed to obey all sanitary laws of the city, an extended discussion took place. Residents in the immediate vicinity of Grand street and Encinal avenue entered emphatic protests to the petition. They declared that a temporary tent city would decrease realty values and would make their property deteriorate. Thomas C. Jordan represented Edgar Painter and other residents in the neighborhood.

TAYLOR URGES PLAN.

E. K. Taylor spoke in behalf of the petition, declaring that he believed tourists should be encouraged to come to Alameda. H. Hauch also spoke in favor of the application, asserting that the best people would come here and that they would do an immense amount of advertising for Alameda. Jordan replied to Taylor and stated that tent cities are only erected in summer resorts, not in the midst of home districts.

Councilman Stewart declared he favored the application and moved that the request be granted. Councilman Morris seconded the motion.

Councilman Hammond declared that he favored the establishment of a tent city in Alameda, but not at the corner of Grand street and Encinal avenue. He then moved as a substitute motion that all interested parties get into immediate conference with the council and select a site which would not be opposed by residents in the immediate neighborhood. He said that he hoped this motion would prevail, as he did not want to see the council go on record as opposed to the tent city being located here.

Councilman Stewart said that he did not believe such a motion to be fair to the applicants.

Taylor said that he wanted to know the attitude of the council as to what location could be selected. He said that the tent city representatives would not know which way to turn unless the council told them in what district they could seek.

Councilman Hammond said that he could answer Taylor's question. "There is a tract of land north of Washington Park which is available for such purpose, which would be near the beaches and near a park. This would be an ideal site for a tent city and the property is open to the tent city projectors."

Taylor asserted that he did not know that this property was available.

MAY REJECT OTHER SITE.

J. A. Forbes said that if the permit was not granted for Encinal avenue and Grand street, that the tent city representatives would select no other.

The substitute motion of Councilman Hammond was then adopted. Mayor Otis, it is understood, will call a meeting of the council and the representatives of the tent city at once, so that the proposition can be discussed and an effort made to have the controversy amicably settled.

Upon the recommendation of the police and fire commission two chassis for the combination hose and chemical wagons of the fire department were ordered purchased. An invitation to attend the California Ripe Olive day celebration at the Exposition was accepted.

An ordinance was adopted abolishing the license on delivery wagons. A measure providing for the licensing of jitney buses was introduced and will be considered later by the council. The removing of the wagon tax ends a long controversy.

Upon the motion of Councilman F. H. Bartlett, the council directed the street department to keep the streets and sidewalks clean about the various polling places in Alameda. The department was allowed not more than $75 for this purpose.

Nelson C. Hawks resigned as a member of the Board of Library Trustees, and upon the motion of Councilman E. J. Probst Dr. H. A. Miller was appointed to fill the unexpired term.

PIONEER WOMAN PASSES; CAME HERE IN SIXTIES

ALAMEDA, March 31.—After many months of illness, during which she has been surrounded by the most solicitous care of the members of her family, Mrs. Mary Jane Emmons, widow of Elisha Emmons and father of George W. Emmons of this city, passed away at her home 3749 Sacramento stret, San Francisco. Mrs. Emmons, who was a native of Bangor, Maine, and was 87 years of age, was one of the pioneer women of the state, coming here in the early sixties and for several years making her home in Nevada county, later taking up her residence in San Francisco, where she passed away. Surviving her besides her son are two daughters, Miss Idelia Emmons, who has been connected with the San Francisco school department for a number of years, and Mrs. C. P. Fonda. A son, Elmir Emmons, who passed away in his early manhood, was a well known business man of San Francisco.

CONVICT RIVALS NOAH WEBSTER'S DEFINITIONS

BERKELEY, March 31.—Josh editors, critics and Noah Webster had best beware lest they become overshadowed by the genius of a prisoner in the state penitentiary. This prisoner is taking a course in English through the medium of the extension division at the University of California and one of the questions asked of him was to define the term "snob." The answer was this:

Not a college definition we must admit, but a definition which can be easily understood by any English speaking person and which is certainly to the point. The extension department at the university is constantly receiving witticisms of this character which were written in the gravest of thought but which turn out to be better than some of the definitions now read every day by the disciples of Webster.

PROGRAM OFFERED.

ALAMEDA, March 31.—One of the most inspiring programs of the series was given at the Alameda High School by Mrs. Cedric Wright and her accompanist, Mrs. Robert Hughes.

The numbers were "Melody," Tschaikowsky; "Liebesfrued," Kreisler; "To a Wild Rose," MacDowell; "Scherzo Tarantelle," Wieniawski; "Serenade," Schubert; "Chanson Sans Paroles," Tschaikowsky; and a Brahms Hungarian Dance.

DEFEND PRINCIPAL IN OPEN LETTER

Heads of Several Departments Answer Criticism Directed Against C. L. Biedenbach.

BERKELEY, March 31 — Heads of several departments, officials and other teachers of the Berkeley High school have addressed an open letter to Superintendent Morris C. James defending Principal C. L. Biedenbach against the criticisms which have been recently leveled at him by pupils and others. Proximity of the university and Berkeley teachers, is responsible for the high school pupils attempting to pattern after the more adult students and objecting because they are not permitted to do so.

It is understood that an original plan projected by those responsible for the drafting of the letter, to secure the signature of the heads of all departments of the school to the letter failed. Some of the teachers, when approached and requested to sign, refused to append their names. The letter bears the signatures of ten of the 53 teachers in the school, all of the ten being teachers in responsible positions. The letter, which was received by Superintendent James this morning and will be laid by him before the school board, is as follows:

Mr. M. C. James, Superintendent of Schools, Berkeley, California.

Dear Sir: The one institution of a community which, above all others, should have its good name protected from false reports and its atmosphere kept free from outside agitations, is the school.

The people of Berkeley are supporting a splendid high school of about 1100 pupils and 53 teachers. This high school is being absurdly misrepresented in the press to the detriment of the school itself and also of our city, for these statements about the school are being copied in papers in other parts of the state. It is only justice to the Board of Education, to the school and to the community that these misrepresentations should be explained and a true statement of conditions made.

EDUCATION, PRIME PURPOSE.

A few words may be helpful first in clearing up mistaken ideas about "faculty control" and "student control" of activities. The principal and teachers of the Berkeley High school are assuming that the prime purpose of the school is education, and that we are responsible to the community for keeping this purpose foremost. The justification of the existence of student activities and of their being sanctioned by the school authorities lies in their educational value. School athletics, the school paper, dramatic performances, dances and other student interests may be hurtful as well as beneficial in their effects, and we feel it is our duty, and, in fact, one of the responsibilities of our office, to see to it that the hurtful features are minimized and the good features strengthened.

In our high school we are confronted with special problems in the management of student activities, for our proximity to the State University makes our pupils desirous to imitate the students of the higher institution and to claim the privileges and the freedom that may safely be given only to the young men and women of more mature judgment. A few of our pupils viewing the business transactions of the University Associated Students get the idea that high school student officers should have a free hand in the management of their funds. The last copy of the little paper called the "Black and White," published, by the way, by boys not now connected with the high school, and not even its graduates, says "We demand that students be allowed to control—student appropriations. In case of a conflict between faculty and board of control, submit the question to the student body, whose decision shall be final."

INVOLVES LARGE SUM.

Not even in the University is such a method used, and parents need but to be informed of the situation here to support the present system of handling student finances. The quotation of a paragraph from Mr. Biedenbach's letter to parents of December 18, 1914 will show what a large sum of money this involves.

"As an illustration of the magnitude of the business transacted in connection with the student organizations in the High school, the following will be interesting: During the year 1913-14 a total of $12,906.31 was handled through our commercial department bank. The total for the current year, 1914-15, will reach $15,000. The collection and spending of every cent of this money is carefully supervised. Pupils are taught not only how to handle money, but also how to spend it wisely."

No further argument is necessary to prove that boys and girls of high school age could not safely be given control of such funds, and that it would be impossible for them to administer so large a sum as $13,000 wisely, economically and fairly, without faculty supervision.

In social affairs there is the same tendency among our high school students to imitate the older students of the University. Before faculty supervision of student affairs began, the class parties cost sometimes several hundred dollars and were so elaborate in style that only the more well-to-do of the pupils could attend. It is possible now, with the fine dancing floor that our new gymnasium affords, to give such parties at a nominal cost, which attracts all the students and makes the affairs truly representative parties such as are becoming to a public high school.

OFTEN HINDER EDUCATION.

School activities, if left entirely under student control, become mere distractions from the regular work, aimless and disconnected, and often a positive hindrance to the ends of education; under faculty supervision they have been made helpful adjuncts to the studies and they fall into the educational place that all properly conducted recreation has in a modern school system. Without faculty supervision they fall into the hands of a few aggressive students and are carried on for the pleasure and interests of the few; with faculty supervision they invite the participation of all the students, and become a practical training in honest and democratic citizenship. Unless school organizations and activities can be made to do these things they have no place in our public high school.

To this end, there has been established at the Berkeley High school, by Mr. Biedenbach, a system of faculty supervision of all student organizations and affairs, or, it might better be called, a system of co-operation between teachers and students. Each activity has a teacher as supervisor. We recognize that a part of the educational value of these activities lies in the training in the conduct of affairs that they give young people, and, for this reason, the management, within prescribed limits, is given to the pupils. We advise and assist in the carrying out of student activities, and, as a rule, our function ends there; but we must also, when occasion arises, have the authority to control in essential particulars, if the pupils, because of their immaturity of judgment, are running into extravagances unbecoming a publicly supported school, or if they are making social distinctions that are undemocratic, or establishing unsafe precedents, or losing a sense of the dignity of things and allowing school activities to hinder rather than to aid school work.

UNDERLYING POLICIES.

From this brief explanation of the management of student affairs, you will gather that there are certain definite policies underlying the present administration of our high school. These, it seems to us, should meet with the approval of all parents. Succinctly stated they are as follows:

1. A proper subordination of student activities to the educational aims of the school.
2. A careful supervision of student activities to develop their educational value.
3. A development of simplicity and democracy in student life.
4. A securing of honesty, economy and good judgment in the handling of money through student activities.
5. The elimination of the semi-professional athlete and the encouragement of athletics for all the students.
6. An elimination of the power of illegal student organizations.

It can easily be seen that the carrying out of these policies might displease a few students, who, because of their youthful inexperience or heedlessness, would not fully appreciate the necessity of such a course. However, in spite of the large number of pupils in our High school, the disaffected element is extremely small. There is general harmony prevailing at school and a fine, effective spirit of co-operation between faculty and students and between the different departments, so noticeable and appearing in such practical ways that it invariably remarked upon by outsiders visiting the school. The interesting exhibit of the Berkeley High school at the Panama-Pacific Exposition, and the Shakespear performance of last Friday evening, are instances of the creditable things accomplished by this spirit of co-operation. A public service bureau for the school recently established in the manual training department is another example of this spirit.

Those of us teachers who have been in the school the longest, some for 20 years or more, recognize the remarkably steady and vital improvement that has been going on during the last few years in the work and life of the school. The Berkeley High school was never in better working condition than it is today, in its administration, in its organization, in its scholarship, in its spirit and in its recreational activities.

Yours respectfully,
FANNIE W. McLEAN, Vice-Principal, Head of English Department.
WM. JOHN COOPER, Vice-Principal, Head of History Department.
C. C. BARTON, Head of Science Department.
MANUEL J. JACOBS, Head of Mathematics Department.

ORIGINAL PLAY OF U. C. STUDENT WELL RECEIVED

BERKELEY, March 31. — "Bagdad," a four-act play by Kenneth T. Perkins, graduate student in the university, interested an audience that crowded Twentieth Century Club last evening where it was produced by the English Club. The play betrayed subtlety, ability at analysis and at sheer story-telling, as well as deep psychological study. The oriental setting materially increased its effectiveness.

Perkins has in the past three years achieved an enviable fame in campus circles for his original contributions to dramatic literature. Critics generally have hailed him as a young writer of much promise. His previous plays, "Beyond" and "Blind Alleys," were brief, but this longer effort bore out the prophecies of his ability at extended work.

TO REPAIR BLEACHERS FOR ALAMEDA PARK

ALAMEDA, March 31.—The backstop and bleachers in Lincoln park are to be permanently rebuilt by the recreation commission, the city council last night granting that body permission to expend not over $490 in making the improvement. Councilman A. L. Morgenstern said that the backstop and bleachers need alteration and improvement and upon his motion the additional funds were allowed.

Councilman Conrad Roth urged that the city clerk communicate with the owners of property at the northwest corner of Lincoln avenue and Willow street and ascertain how much the city will be charged for ten feet, in order to establish a sidewalk along Lincoln avenue west of Willow street.

FORMER PASTOR TO SPEAK.

ALAMEDA, March 31.—At the Passion Week services now being conducted at the First Methodist Episcopal church, corner of Oak street and Central avenue, Rev. Edward P. Dennett, superintendent of the Oakland district of the Methodist denomination, and a former pastor of this church, will preach. Dr. Frank M. Larkin of San Francisco gave the sermon last night on "Obedience Is Better Than Sacrifice."

ALBANY MAYOR RESIGNS AS TRUSTEE PRESIDENT

ALBANY, March 31.—George E. Thompson has resigned his position as president of the Board of Trustees of this place, which bears with it the complimentary title of mayor. Thompson's resignation came as a surprise to his associates on the board and he declined to specify his reasons. It is understood, however, to have followed various differences of opinion which have recently arisen.

Against Thompson and former Mayor Frank Roberts petitions were filed in a recall movement a year ago and both were returned to office by large majorities. Thompson has been on the board for three years.

Trustee Frederick J. Brown was appointed president of the board pro tem to succeed Thompson. The vacancy will be regularly filled at the meeting of the board next Monday night.

FOUR TO PARTICIPATE IN STEPHENS RECEPTION

BERKELEY, March 31.—Local college and social circles are taking an interest in an affair to be given in honor of Professor Henry Morse Stephens of the University of California this evening at the Gamma Phi Beta sorority house, when an interesting program is to be given. Professor Stephens will be the guest of honor at a dinner after which an entertainment will follow.

In this will participate Miss Lurita Stone, former well known dramatic star at the university; Mrs. Marie Partridge Price, soprano; Ida Waldrop, pianist, and Elias M. Hecht, flutist. Miss Stone will read John Galsworthy's "The Little Dream." Vocal numbers between the parts of the play will be given by Mrs. Price, assisted by Mr. Waldrop and Mr. Hecht.

Miss Stone, who is planning a dramatic career, is a pupil of Mrs. Price at her San Francisco studio.

LICENSES IN DEMAND.

ALAMEDA, March 31.—The police office started its land office business yesterday in the sale of licenses. Peddlers and the owners of dogs must have these permits by the first of April, hence the hurry to the police office. Police Sergeant Walter O Jacoby is on the job, with plenty of licenses.

RETURNS FROM EAST.

ALAMEDA, March 31. — Mrs. Dora Werner has returned from an extended visit with relatives in the southern states. She went east accompanied by her sister, Mrs Annie Ney, about a year and a half ago, to the home of a brother in North Carolina at Charlotte. Here the latter was taken ill and passed away.

WILL NOT CAMPAIGN.

ALAMEDA, March 31.—The East Bay Republican Club held a meeting at its quarters in this city and decided not to take part in the municipal campaign, which is non-partisan. The club endorsed resolutions to this effect.

YOUNG MUSICIANS PLANNING BAND

Hayward Talent Is Proved; Musical Organizations Many in Town.

HAYWARD, March 31.—Replying to the assertion of a well-known musician that this city, although possessing individual musical talent of a high order, did not encourage those who displayed musical ability, prominent music lovers have entered a vigorous denial. As proof that Hayward is just as ready and willing to support musical combinations and takes as much interest as other cities in the development of her virtuosos, they point to the recent formation of a young men's orchestra and of a band, the instrumentalists in which are receiving the support of businessmen and merchants.

"Hayward is improving musically," declared Mrs. C. B. Rogers, who takes an active interest in musical affairs. "If anything retarded the development of our young musicians and gave ground for the statement that Hayward people do not take sufficient interest in music, it was perhaps that our boys and girls might have more musical training than hitherto," continued Mrs. Rogers. "Now music classes are starting up, teachers from San Francisco, San Leandro and elsewhere as well as in our own community, are taking a hold here and we look for this city to take a bigger share in the world of music in future."

Despite the fact that local musicians do not claim anything in the nature of great combination in Hayward, it is difficult to believe that musicians are given little encouragement. Youthful enthusiasts are forming a band of 25 performers here which will take the place of an official town band. Clement Lemose, son of Attorney F. I. Lemos, is chief organizer of the new band, which has been promised the assistance of a number of the merchants and which proposes to give a regular series of concerts on the town plaza. Almost all the members of the band are proficient in playing an instrument and according to the promoters it only wants combination practice to evolve a first-class band.

Other Hayward youths have started an orchestra which supplements the choir of a church and which is composed of Howard Chadbourne, cornet; Nils Quist, violin; Charles Quist, clarinet; Lister Rogers, cello.

TAX COLLECTOR 74 YEARS OLD

Expected to Resign on Account of Feebleness — Gained Strength and Twenty-four Pounds by Taking Vinol.

CORINTH, Miss.—"I am a city tax collector and seventy-four years of age. I was in a weak, run-down condition so that I became exhausted by every little exertion. My druggist told me about Vinol, and I decided to take it. In a week I noticed considerable improvement; I continued its use and now I have gained twenty pounds in weight, and feel much stronger. I consider Vinol a fine tonic to create strength for old people."—J. A. PRICE, Corinth, Miss.

As one grows old their organs act more slowly and less effectually than in youth, circulation is poor, the blood gets thin, the appetite poor and digestion weak. Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, is the ideal strengthener and body-builder for old folks because it creates a good healthy appetite, strengthens digestion, enriches the blood, improves circulation and in this natural manner builds up, strengthens and invigorates feeble, run-down, nervous and aged people, and if it does not do all we say, we will pay back your money.

Nunes, daughter of a Berryessa rancher, when she refused to marry him, indicated that he had gone to the ranch with the intention of killing both the girl and himself. Miss Nunes testified that she "liked" de Eldo well enough, but that he didn't have enough money for her.

'TWAS FOUR MILES FROM SOUP TO "SMALL BLACK"

Hayward, March 31.—Society folk here "put one over" on New York's smart set in the way of freak dinners this week. Each course of a big dinner was served in a different house, and the diners were led a merry tramp of four miles before they arrived at the coffee end of the meal. A mistake on the part of the dinner route guide resulted in the entree being served before the soup. In their tramp through the hills to an outlying hostess, the diners were so long overcome, the third course, a delicate culinary creation, spoiled.

As an aid to raising an appetite those who participated in the tramp dinner say the idea is one which ought to rank high among food fads. The houses at which the different courses were prepared were widely apart, two and a half miles separating the soup from the roast chicken, while the small black lost its digestive properties by the time the guests arrived from the ice cream and sweets.

Among the hostesses who presided over the dinner were Mrs. Nils Quist, Miss Alice Haar and Mrs. Howard Cradbourne. One course was also served at the Presbyterian church parlors.

ENDORSE OAKLAND FOR GRANGE CONVENTION

Oakland and the municipal auditorium were indorsed as the place for the national convention, and the Hotel Oakland as the 1915 convention headquarters, for the convention of the National Grange, at a meeting of the state executive committee of the organization in the Hotel Oakland late yesterday. The indorsement will be sent to national headquarters for approval. The convention will take place in November, and will bring thousands of people to the Pacific coast, from all arts of the farming districts of the United States.

Among the State officers who attended the session yesterday were:

IGNORES RECONCILIATION.

In spite of the fact that a reconciliation had taken place, Mrs. Marion Legris changed her mind and insisted upon obtaining an interlocutory decree of divorce from Charles Legris, a wealthy contractor. Legis hastened to Oakland from Rhode Island six weeks ago after his wife had filed a suit against him. Mrs. Legris also accused her brother-in-law of assisting in an effort to defraud her of property rights.

A Hint for Coming Maternity

In a little book designed for expectant mothers more complete instruction is given in the use of "Mother's Friend." This is an external embrocation applied to the abdominal muscles for the purpose of reducing the strain on ligaments, cords and tendons.

It serves to ease the mind, indirectly has a most beneficial effect upon the nervous system and thousands of women have delightedly told how they were free of nausea, had no morning sickness and went through the ordeal with most remarkable success. "Mother's Friend" has been growing in popular favor for more than forty years. In almost every community are grandmothers who used it themselves, their daughters have used it and they certainly must know what a blessing it is when they recommend it so warmly. It is used very successfully to prevent caking of breasts.

"Mother's Friend" has been prepared in the laboratory of Bradfield Regulator Co., 304 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for more than two generations and can be had of almost any druggist from coast to coast. Write to-day for the little book.

CONCEIT

By LILLIAN RUSSELL

(Copyright: 1915: By Lillian Russell.)

LILLIAN RUSSELL.

It is generally conceded that any good looking man or woman is conceited. The fact that they are careful of their clothes, keep clean, appreciate their good looks, and are thankful for such blessings as have been bestowed upon them is sufficient to call for much criticism from those less blessed with physical charm.

There is no conceit in keeping one's hair clean and well coiffed. There is only duty displayed in keeping one's complexion clear and smooth. To exercise one's body until it is as symmetrical as the marble statues which sculptors have devoted their lives to imitate is only showing proper respect for health and beauty. It is not conceit but an act of appreciation to make the best of every inch of your body and every thought of your mind.

Real conceit is far more conspicuous among so-called plain people. The man who only takes pleasure in airing his own opinions on all occasions is conceited. The woman whose mind never extends beyond her own experience will talk hours about herself, her husband and her servant with as much excitement and feeling as though the whole movement of the world depended upon what those three people said and did.

Take a woman, for instance, who has been through an unfortunate illness. She would rather talk about the sordid details of that period of her life than listen to the sweetest music or the most instructive lecture. In fact, she finds veritable joy in recounting her woes to willing ears.

Nor does it necessitate a good talker to enjoy talking. Some of the worst talkers, people with unpleasant voices and faulty expression, get great pleasure and satisfaction out of filling, either willing or unwilling, ears with their opinion. That is the essence of conceit.

Personal affairs are of slight interest to outsiders; details are tiresome. Loud speech is vulgar and forcing one's opinions upon another's conversation is not only conceited but antagonizing.

One of the best cures for the conceited talker is to let him talk himself out without comment or question. There is nothing a conceited person enjoys more than being asked questions; those questions feed his vanity or her vanity in the case of a woman.

It is the beginning of disaster when a woman is so carried away with her own opinions that she can't listen to the opinions of others. It is the beginning of her fall from grace. It is one thing to have opinions and another to keep them within your mind until their expression is of importance. One of the greatest mercies of speech is brevity.

Remember: There is far more charm in saying little and saying it well than in all the long stories ever told.

Lillian Russell

Answers to Queries

JANET: I think it is far better not to clip the cuticle at the base of the nail, as after it has once been clipped the skin is apt to break and become rough and saggy. If you will dip the orange-wood stick first into cold cream and then into powdered pumice-stone you can get rid of all the superfluous skin about the nails.

DOROTHY: You might do yourself much harm by taking exercises which have not been prescribed by your physician when you have a deformity of the hips. He knows your condition and what exercise is best.

BEAUTY DOCTOR TELLS SECRET

Detroit Beauty Doctor Gives Simple Recipe to Darken Gray Hair and Promote Its Growth.

Miss Alice Whitney, a well-known beauty doctor of Detroit, Mich., recently gave out the following statement: "Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home, at very little cost, that will darken gray hair, promote its growth and make it soft and glossy. To half a pint of water add 1 oz. of bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound and ¼ oz. of glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a gray-haired person look twenty years younger. It is also fine to promote the growth of the hair, relieve itching and scalp diseases, and is excellent for dandruff and falling hair.—Advertisement.

OBTAINS DIVORCE; CRUELTY ALLEGED

Lieutenant Accused of Violent Acts in Wife's Suit

SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.—Dorothy Palmer Speer, a belle in the army set, was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce yesterday by Superior Judge Trout from George Alexander Speer, former lieutenant, on the ground of extreme cruelty. Speer, whose wedding in the autumn of 1913 was one of the brilliant events of that season, did not appear to resist the action. He is reported to be in Atlanta, Ga., where his father is a retired banker.

The young wife was accompanied in court by her mother, Mrs. E. H. Palmer, of 2519 Divisadero street. Her attorney and the court officials were the only auditors of her testimony as to the acts of the man who had led her to the altar.

"I'll 'get' you some day," Mrs. Speer testified her husband cried out to her shortly after the wedding.

"What do you think he meant by that expression?" asked Judge Trout.

"He meant he was going to kill me," replied Mrs. Speer. She spoke very low, and with a quivering lip, as though still possessed of a fear that she said came over her whenever the terrible threats were remembered. On that occasion she said her mother came to her assistance and prevented Speer from doing any harm.

Another time, Mrs. Speer testified, the lieutenant forced her to take a revolver and told her he was going to make her shoot herself. She struggled desperately, she said, and got away from his grasp.

WOMAN TO WED, BUT KEEP MAIDEN NAME.

SALEM, Ore., March 31.—Miss Marian Sheldon of The Dalles, need not take her husband's name if she decides to marry, is the opinion of the attorney general, given yesterday in response to the question of the perplexed woman, asking if there was any law against a woman retaining her maiden name after marriage. The attorney general has notified Miss Sheldon that there is nothing to hinder her from retaining her name instead of taking that of her husband in case of her marriage, if she so desires.

SUFFRAGETTES START ACTION IN BALTIMORE.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—The Congressional Union for Woman's Suffrage announced yesterday that Baltimore has been selected as the place for launching the new nation-wide campaign which is to be waged in the next nine months to develop sentiment among members of Congress for the submission of an amendment to the constitution granting votes to women.

The selection of Baltimore was made at the meeting of the executive committee. The campaign will begin May 1.

WEALTHY WIDOW KILLS SELF IN APARTMENTS.

SANTA CRUZ, March 31.—Mrs. Amelia Hagemann committed suicide in her apartments at the Hotel Waldo last night by strangling herself to death.

Mrs. Hagemann had spent the early hours of the evening in chatting with some friends who had called at her apartments, and was apparently in good spirits when they left the hotel about 8:30 o'clock.

At 9:30 Mrs. Hagemann's niece, Miss Alice Wedekin, on going to her aunt's room to bid her goodnight, discovered the body and summoned aid, but the physician who responded pronounced life extinct.

MRS. GUGGENHEIM IS WINNER OF DIVORCE.

NEW YORK, March 31.—An interlocutory decree of divorce was granted yesterday to Grace S. Guggenheim, wife of M. Robert Gugenheim, a son of Daniel Guggenheim. An "unknown woman" was named in the complaint, which was filed in January. Every effort was made to keep the proceedings secret and the testimony was not disclosed.

WISCONSIN UNIVERSITY CRITICISED IN REPORT

By Associated Press.

MADISON, Wis., March 31.—There is an average of one professor or instructor to each seven students in the University of Wisconsin, according to the report of the State university survey, compiled by Dr. William H. Allen of New York and filed with the State Board of Public Affairs yesterday.

The report charges extravagance and criticises the regents as unable to learn from the faculty the needs of the institutions. In many cases, the report asserts, there are classes of fewer than ten students, while the report names classes of five, four, three and even one person each. A case is alleged of a class of one having as its instructor a $1500 salaried educator who has no other class.

AVIATOR DROPS IN TO GREET VICE-PRESIDENT

By Associated Press.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., March 31.—While Admiral Thomas Benton Howard, commanding the Pacific fleet, was giving a reception to Vice President Marshall on board the flagship Colorado yesterday afternoon, Raymond V. Morris, the aviator flew from North Island to the ship in his hydroplane. He circled around the ship three times and then came alongside the boom, where a launch met him and carried him to the starboard gang way. The aviator met the vice president and Assistant Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt, chatted a while, joined the dancing on the quarter deck, then boarded his craft and flew back to the North Island camp. The Marshalls and Roosevelts were given a dinner at Coronado Beach last night by Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Davidson, president of the San Diego Exposition.

NO BIBLE IN SCHOOLS.

By Associated Press.

MONTPELIER, Vt., March 31.—Senate bill to regulate the reading of the Bible in the public schools was defeated in the House yesterday. The bill provided that ten or more verses of the Bible should be read each morning in every school, and directed the superintendent of education to prepare an official syllabus free from sectarian controversy and containing selections "suited for historical, literary and moral instruction."

VISITING PIEDMONT.

Miss Virginia Walsh of Los Angeles is visiting her aunt, Mrs. E. A. Jones, at her home in Piedmont. Before returning south Miss Walsh will be the guest of another aunt, Mrs. Charles Overton in San Francisco.

THIRTY-ONE LOVERS ALL TRUE, SHE SAYS

MRS. ANDREW SCHOLZ, "WILL O' THE WISP GIRL," WHO HAS DEFIED THE POLICE OF LOS ANGELES TO PROVE THAT HER LOVES WERE NOT REAL.

You can be unfortunate, but not a loser in the game of love.

I do not know if my kisses are different from those of other women, because I have never studied another woman's kiss.

One man threatened to kill me because I did not love him. It is unfortunate that I did not love him.

I have not tried to make myself attractive to men. It must be because I am natural when I am with them.

Love is not a thing to play with. It is as dangerous as fire.

("Love Philosophy" of Mrs. Andrew J. Scholz, "Will-o'-the-wisp" girl, who is puzzling Los Angeles police.

LOS ANGELES, March 31.—Defying the police to uncover any act of hers on which charges of trickery can be based, Mrs. Andrew Scholz, girl of the thirty-one lovers, is awaiting preliminary investigation in rooms decked with flowers. Bouquets from hundreds of friends and admirers have poured into her home—many from former lovers who have forgiven—and the beautiful girl has declared that never, in all her affairs of the heart, has she "acted her love."

According to the police, she is a "Typhoid Mary" of love, scattering love germs wherever she goes. On the police books they rudely designate it as a "badger game."

"Of this I am innocent!" declares the accused woman. "I am accused of trying to make myself attractive to men. I do not. Love is too dangerous to play with, and really I have often thought I loved. I never really loved more than two men. Both of these I married. My kisses were for those I loved. They were not stage-kisses. You can be unfortunate, but never a loser, in the game of love. One man threatened to kill me because I did not love him. It is unfortunate that I did not."

DRY ZONE BILL IN HOT DEBATE

Butler, [illegible]n Floor of Senate, R[illegible]s Threats Against His Life.

By A[illegible]ed Press.

SA[illegible]AMENTO, March 31.—Debate on the Butler dry zone bill occupied most of the morning session of the Senate. It was opened by Senator Butler, who contended that his mile liquor limit around universities and normal schools was necessary to protect the youth of the state. A letter threatening his life if the bill passed was read by Butler.

"I don't relish the idea of being sent over the great divide," he said. "I have no desire for the daisies to bloom over my grave. But if it be so that my action on this bill will bring that result, so let it be. I will not falter in my duty."

Argument on the main bill was interrupted by the offering of amendments by Luce of San Diego to exempt cities of more than 20,000 population which would exclude San Francisco and San Jose, and leave the bill to accomplish the closing of saloons only in Santa Clara and Chico. Luce declared that he stood for Statewide prohibition and would quickly vote for such a bill, but that the Butler bill violated a principle fully as important as prohibition.

"The day of the saloon is going, and it is only a short time before it will be gone, but why force this measure on cities like San Francisco and San Jose that do not want it," said Luce.

For the second time this session of the legislature the long sheet bill which requires strict sanitary regulation of hotels and lodging houses was passed today by the Assembly 44 to 26. The bill has pursued an unusual course though the lower house. It was defeated yesterday and came up today for reconsideration, the house voting 45 to 21 to give it another hearing. The bill now goes to the Senate.

California Olive Day was observed in the house. Every assemblyman found a jar of ripe olives on his desk, the gift of Assemblyman Meek of Oroville. Between bites the members debated various bills or answered roll calls. The Rominger proposed constitutional amendment exempting from taxation church property used for purposes other than religious worship was adopted 60 to 3.

Downing's proposed amendment to the constitution taking away from the state courts the power to declare unconstitutional any law enacted direct by the people or the legislature was voted down 63 to 11.

DELEGATES ARE NAMED.

RICHMOND, March 31.—Delegates to the state convention of the F. O. E. Aeries of California, which is to be held at Fresno on May 10, were named at last night's meeting of Point Richmond Aerie at A. O. U. W. Hall. They are Max Michaels, Phil Barry, W. J. Brown and George F. Kelly.

ADOPT CONSTITUTION.

RICHMOND, March 31.—At a meeting of M. M. Club at the Christian church last night, a constitution and by-laws were adopted. About twenty members were present. A. Turner is leader and president of the organization, which is composed of young married people. Rev. Boyer is instructor.

When You Are Eating Ripe Olives Today—

stop and think for a moment. Behind that fruit lies an industry over which California holds a monopoly — nature's monopoly and an extremely profitable one.

The finest California ripe olive—which is of the "Mission" variety—can be grown successfully and commercially only in this state.

The demand for ripe olives is increasing rapidly. California alone requires more ripe olives than are grown.

The California selling field has not been aggressively cultivated. The rest of the United States—the East—the Middle West—the South—has not been touched.

The price paid by the packer to the olive grower has increased rapidly. In 1906 the average price paid was $50 a ton. In 1914 the average price had increased to $165 a ton. And for the highest grade of olives, the packers are offering to contract for ten, and even fifteen, years at $200 a ton.

The olive industry is the only branch of fruit-growing in which the packers have such faith in future demand and future profit that they are willing to invest their own money in land and enter the business of growing.

Even every part of California cannot grow olives. The largest, the best-flavored, the highest-priced olives are produced in the warm, red-soiled region comprising the Oroville-Mission Olive Belt.

This country, the financial responsibility of which can be ascertained at any bank or from any mercantile agency, is composed of men who are practical, successful fruit growers and who have acquired and are developing a large tract of the best land in this region.

The steps necessary for the acquisition of a five-acre Mission Olive Grove, in full bearing, as a foundation for an estate, as an income-producer for old age, as an investment, safer, more certain and more profitable than any other known, are outlined in a booklet we will send upon request.

A Mission Olive Grove is a clean-cut, cold-blooded business proposition that will appeal most to the careful, cautious investor—the man who won't gamble on possibilities, but who demands to be shown certain profit before he will do business.

THE APOLLO Player Piano

An Extraordinary Announcement, A Real Player-Piano Opportunity

On and after April 15th, the entire line of Melville Clark's famous Apollo Player Pianos will be represented in this territory and in all cities north of the Tehachapi mountains by

THE WILEY B. ALLEN COMPANY

With their central headquarters at 135 Kearny Street, San Francisco, and with stores and agencies in every important city of California and the Northwest.

This announcement we make with much pleasure, because it guarantees to users of Apollos and to those hundreds who contemplate their purchase that satisfaction will always be theirs; that every consideration, every courtesy will at all times be extended to them.

In making the transfer of agency, The Wiley B. Allen Company, because of its policy never to show or receive goods from a factory that are not absolutely of the latest design and model, have declined to take over or consider any used pianos in our possession or instruments that have seen service in demonstrating. Neither will they accept any of the numerous pianos exchanged for Art Apollos or other instruments of our line.

This being the case, it is incumbent upon us to

Sell Every Player-Piano in Our Store

Within the next two weeks, and, beginning tomorrow morning, we shall place on sale our entire stock of Art and Electric Apollos and a large number of miscellaneous Player Pianos, which have been taken in exchange by us.

This does not mean that Apollos will be sold at one-half their original values. The Apollo is too high standard, too artistic, too beautiful in its rendition and too perfect to permit of its deliberate sacrifice, but to you and to every one who has considered or may consider the purchase of a Player Piano within the next year

The prices and terms which we will offer now must appeal.

Sufficient here to say that each and every Player will be sold with a reduction of not less than $150.00 off the price at which it is sold in every city in the United States, and that on some of the special Solo Apollos which have been used in demonstrating, and which cannot be sold now as new, startling reductions will be made.

For example, we offer three styles R. Apollos, with down touch and spring motor, always $700.00; now $550.00. One style R. Solo Apollo, regularly $900.00, at $625.00. One style R. Solo Mahogany case, used in demonstrating only, $675.00. Besides these are two of the new Artapollos, electrically operated, the very latest, most desirable, ever brought out at correspondingly low figures. A $1,300.00 Solo Artapollo, used in recital work only, in perfect condition, $950.00.

Of course, we have taken a great many Player Pianos in exchange for Artapollos. Here are a few and their prices: A Behning Player Piano at $290.00, an excellent instrument at a wonderfully low price. A Milton 88-Note, at $275.00; a Knabe Angelus, in art case Mission, originally $1,150.00, at $625.00. A Hardman Autotone, formerly $900.00, at $535.00. Then there is a Steinway Pianola, sold a year ago for $1,300.00, this, with a large number of music rolls, for $845.00, and it cannot be told from new.

Now, about terms. Our telegraphic instructions from the head office in Chicago are to sell all of these pianos within the next two weeks, and if earnest effort and giving the biggest values for every dollar expended will do it, we will succeed.

Besides these, a number of very excellent Upright pianos of the ordinary type will be shown.

Those of you who are wise will come early. See tomorrow's papers.

Besides the above, there are dozens of others, all good, all splendidly cared for and in perfect condition, and each one represents a value in proportion to its price that is almost irresistible.

COMPLETE PLANS FOR COUNTY DAY

Enthusiastic Meeting Held by Richmond Boosters in City Hall.

RICHMOND, March 31.—Enthusiasm was rampant at the city hall last evening, where an overflow audience gathered to make final plans for the observation of Contra Costa county day at the Exposition on next Saturday. Sheriff R. R. Veale and Mayor E. J. Garrard were in charge of the meeting and practically every detail of the big day was settled.

George O. Jackson reported that 26 auto owners have registered their cars for places in the parade up Market street and that at least double this is expected by Friday evening. Numbers will be issued at Market and East street, and each auto will take a place in the line. In addition to the regular ferryboats from the foot of Broadway, Oakland, a special boat capable of handling 75 cars will be run out at 7:45 o'clock sharp, and an effort is being made to get the Richmond autos on that boat. The parade will start promptly at 9:30 o'clock.

Mrs. E. M. Ferguson announced that 25 girls from the high school gowned in white will serve punch at the California building during the afternoon dance. The up-country will also provide 25 high-school girls.

Joseph F. Brooks announced that the Santa Fe railway shops, California Wine Association, Standard Oil Company, the Pullman Company and other plants will be closed for the day.

Crockett has promised 800 people, and a big float representing the sugar industry. Bay Point and Pittsburg will furnish auto-lumber floats. Antioch will show its asparagus, Pittsburg its rubber and steel industries. Brentwood will be proud with its certified milk. The Richmond Moose military company will also be in the parade.

NEW SALOON ORDINANCE PLANNED BY RICHMOND

RICHMOND, March 31.—An ordinance for the regulation of the local saloons is under preparation by the Good Government League and will be presented to the city council at an early date by that body. No date for bringing it before the council has been set.

The new ordinance will have as its aims a raising of the age limit of those who can enter saloons, the closing of all side entrances, the elimination of all private rooms and the making of the council the final court of trial. Under the ordinance petitions for license must be advertised for a period of time in order to allow for objections against granting them.

INSPECTION PLANNED.

RICHMOND, March 31.—An engineer from the State Railroad Commission is due to visit this afternoon to go over with city engineer, H. D. Chapman, the various crossings of the Santa Fe railway which the council desires as extension of Third, Fifth, Eighth and Sixteenth streets, and also the Macdonald avenue subway improvement. The city is planning to pave across the railway right of way, but must first secure a permit from the state board.

MAY SUE FOR BILLS.

RICHMOND, March 31.—According to District Attorney Thomas D. Johnston, it may be necessary for persons having bills against the county for work on the Contra Costa exhibit at the Exposition to bring suit against the county to get their money. "The grand jury has recommended by resolution that the bills be held up and payment refused," said Johnston. "It looks like the individual claimants will be forced to bring suit against the county to get their money."

WOODMEN HOLD SOCIAL.

RICHMOND, March 31.—A social evening was enjoyed last night by the members of El Cerrito Camp, Modern Woodmen of America at Woodmen Hall. Prizes were won by Mrs. H. N. Hurt, F. J. Frost, J. H. Ferguson and the consolation prize by Fred Pohley. District Deputy G. O. Williams of Oakland was present at last night's affair. The committee in charge consisted of C. R. Evans, C. R. Neckel and Roy Wells.

JITNEY HIT BY TRAIN; 3 HURT

Richmond Crossing Is Scene of Accident; Two May Die.

RICHMOND, March 31.—Crashing into a jitney bus at Ashland and Santa Fe avenues, last night, the outbound Santa Fe train hurled three men to serious injury and grave fears, it was declared this morning are felt for the recovery of two of the victims of the accident.

The injured:

William Kearney, driver, cut by glass.

Witnesses of the accident declare that the machine drove across the tracks, as if to attempt a crossing before the train arrived. The driver swerved his machine in a desperate attempt to avoid the crash as the onrushing train bore down upon him, and the car was struck by the pilot of the locomotive.

The automobile was hurled high into the air by the impact, the occupants being dropped to the ground.

Eddington and Pavacish fell on their heads and were unconscious when picked up and hurried to a local hospital. An investigation is being made.

URGES YOUTHFUL PARDON.

RICHMOND, March 31.—Urging speed in getting out the petition for the pardon of Kenneth Johnson, now confined in San Quentin on a criminal charge, Rev. F. E. Peterson last night asserted that unless some action was taken this morning he would start out with such a petition himself. "The prison officials," said Rev. Peterson, "feel that the boy should be released and sent home."

NEW GIRLS' CLUB IS FORMED AT Y. W. C. A.

The younger girls of Kahn's Department Store recently organized a club at the new Y. W. C. A. building, under the name of Encino Club. The purpose of this club is to promote social and athletic activities amongst the girls. W. C. A. The office holders of this club are as follows: President, Miss Eulah Edwards; vice-president, Miss Hazel Brown; secretary, Miss Mary Brown; treasurer, Miss Sadie Snide.

GOVERNOR MOWS LAWN TO REDUCE EMBONPOINT

By Associated Press.

PHOENIX, Arizona, March 31.—Governor George W. P. Hunt decided yesterday that he was becoming too stout and forthwith decided upon an outdoor exercise—mowing the lawns of the capital grounds every day. The chosen hour is noon, indicating that luncheon has been taken off the governor's schedule of meals.

Yesterday's mowing was done under the supervision of the ground keepers, who declared the governor had showed that he knew how.

WATER BOARD WILL FACE GRAND JURY

Finances to Be Inquired Into By Inquisitors at Martinez.

RICHMOND, March 31.—An investigation into the finances of the municipal water commission of Richmond was scheduled for the grand jury session at Martinez this afternoon. Subpoenas were served last evening upon Levi P. Boswell, former chairman of the commission; Secretary W. J. Lane, former Secretary John H. Chandler, Auditor Wetmore and Frank Lucas, the local garage owner.

It is understood that this investigation is made upon complaints filed with the district attorney's office that publicity should be given to the manner in which the money collected in taxes by the water board has been expended. District Attorney Thomas D. Johnston has refused to discuss the matter, stating that he is not at liberty to discuss the case until an investigation has been fully made.

The grand jury yesterday heard Chief of Police Charles H. Walker and Constable Meltoza of San Pablo in relation to the Odom charges against Supervisor Zeb Knott relative to refusal of a transfer of Odom's liquor license. Walker is [illegible] in the matter in any sense [illegible] that he had been interviewed by Sheriff R. R. Veale, who was in charge of the investigation. His connection with the case is understood to have been more in the courtesy that one police officer extends to another when working in Walker's territory.

Rumors were current last evening that Sheriff Veale would be called by the grand jury today also to tell what he knows about this case. Supervisor Knott was not heard in the case by the jury yesterday.

"DULL CARE" WILL DIE ON APRIL 3

Press Club Dedication to Mark Assassination of Gloom.

TRIBUNE BUREAU, Panama Pacific Exposition, March 31.—Dull care will be banished when newspapermen celebrate on April 3. Dull care, the jinx of all joy and pleasure, has been captured and confined by members of the San Francisco Press Club, and will be officially assassinated and buried with great pomp and unusual ceremony by that organization Saturday afternoon, April 3, at 3 o'clock. Death dances of all nations will be held at the grave, and weird rites never before witnessed or even thought of will mark the burial.

The occasion for slaying dull care will be the official dedication of the Press building at the Panama Pacific International Exposition, and the alleged grim some rites will be held on the lawn of the Press Club building. So important is the event to be that, for the first time in the history of the United States, the federal government has officially designated the famous battleship Oregon to participate in the ceremony. The following telegram, received by the Press Club, is taken by its members as an expression of extreme courtesy.

Chairman San Francisco Press Club,
San Francisco, Calif.

The Oregon has been designated to participate in the ceremonies attending the dedication of your exposition building on Saturday, April 3. Suggest that you confer with commanding officer Oregon as to details.

(Signed) DANIELS,
Secretary Navy.

Surprises fast and furious, stunts original and startling, will be sprung during the dedication, and as always is the case where newspapermen break away from their work for a bit of fun, there will be laughs every minute.

The official slaying of Dull Care will be at midnight Friday, April 2. Thirteen assassins, garbed in gruesome robes appropriate for the occasion, will put the jinx to death. At 3 o'clock the following afternoon the figure will be lowered into the grave in front of the Press Club building. A marble slab will be placed over the tomb. On the slab will be inscribed:

HERE LIES
The Unloved Son of Woe and Misery.
Buried by the Press Club
of San Francisco on April 3, 1915.

The death dances of all nations will follow. Girls from the Zone—Somali girls, Hawaiian girls, Maori and Turkish girls, girls from Tehauntepec and Mexico will do the ceremonial dances peculiar to the respective nations. Diving girls will swim races in the lagoon in front of the Press Club building—the official Press Club lake which has never been christened—and the Press Club pennant will be raised over the building as the battleship Oregon fires a salute of twenty-one guns.

The dedication will be unique in that no person will be permitted to make an address of more than three minutes' duration—unless the speaker wishes to pay a fine of $20 a minute for listening to his own voice, for it is a cinch that no member of the press cares about speeches. That is their usual daily diet from which they cannot escape.

On this occasion the Press Club lake will be officially christened. As yet the club members have been unable to decide what their lake shall be called, and in order to have an appropriate name the club offers a prize—what the prize is no one knows and everyone must take a chance—for the best suggestion. No one is barred from participating in the contest. Suggestions should be mailed to the Chairman San Francisco Press Club, Exposition grounds. A committee of newspapermen has been selected to decide which name is most appropriate and to make the award.

MONTANA CROWDS SEE ELABORATE CEREMONY

TRIBUNE BUREAU, Panama Pacific Exposition, March 31.—One of the largest gatherings of Montana people ever held outside of the Treasure State was Montana dedication day at the Panama Pacific International Exposition today. Fully 500 present and former residents were in attendance. Included in this number were members of the Montana Society of California in great numbers and more than 200 Treasure State visitors now in San Francisco.

Among these were W. W. McDowell, Lieutenant-Governor of the state, and one of Montana's foremost political figures. Lieutenant-Governor McDowell had a prominent place on the program of the day and brought a message from Governor S. W. Stewart.

The program of addresses for that day also carried the name of Congressman Tom Stout and Commissioner David Hilger of Lewiston. J. B. Clayberg of the Montana Society of California was the chairman of the day.

As an approval of woman's suffrage Montana gave a place to a woman on its program of dedication. This honored one is Mrs. Grace Billings of Berkeley, a member of the Montana Society of this state.

The home that Montana dedicated was intended by the designers to be both a place for public gatherings and a home for its people. Both in exterior appearance and interior arrangement it fulfils this idea. A large veranda which runs around three sides of the building and numerous French doors distinguish it from the type of public building which otherwise it would resemble.

The soft tones employed in the decorations of the large lobby and of the balconies again give the building the appearance of a home. This lobby is tinted in green, the crex rug which covers the walls is of the same color. The woodwork is dull white. To the left of the lobby are located the offices and the smoking room. A fully equipped motion picture theater is on the right.

Around the lobby is a balcony on which are located reed refreshment tables. Opening off this balcony is an attractive reception and dance hall.

The few exhibits which will have a place in the building will be placed in attractive cabinets on the lower floor beneath the balconies. These will include products of both the mine and the field.

"HYPOCRITES" IS MAKING BIG HIT

MYRTLE STEDMAN.

UPSETS JERSEY TRADITION SITS IN HISTORIC CHAIR

MISS BERNICE PATTERSON, first woman to sit in New Jersey's "Governor's Chair," and the noted piece of furniture in question.

TRIBUNE BUREAU, Panama Pacific Exposition, March 31.—Tradition has been defied! History's tablets have been upset!

A woman has sat in the famous "Governor's Chair" of New Jersey!

No! She isn't a suffrage governor, she's just Miss Bernice Patterson; but in time to come she will be able to say that she was the first woman to occupy the seat of some of the most famous state executives in the history of the nation.

It happened today when committees were preparing for tomorrow's dedication of the New Jersey building. Among the features is the famous chair, in which every Governor has sat to be inaugurated—a sort of coronation chair, with silver plates bearing the names of its different occupants.

This didn't awe Miss Patterson at all. She sat in the chair and held court and so made another page in history.

The New Jersey building is a reproduction of the Trenton Barracks, built on request of the provincial inhabitants to house the troops sent by the English, so that they might protect the citizens against attacks from the Indians.

During the Battle of Trenton this building was the headquarters of George Washington and his staff. The New Jersey building follows closely upon the lines of the original barracks and is replete with objects of the colonial times.

President Woodrow Wilson, when he comes to San Francisco later in the year, will make his headquarters in the building of the state of which he was the Governor, and Governor James F. Fielder will live within its walls next month. The Alumni of Princeton University have permanent headquarters here during the Exposition.

The furnishings of the structure are in wicker and cretonne, the front faces the bay and in the rear two wings enclose a plaza laid out in grass and flowers.

OLIVE QUEEN RESIGNS: BUTTE HOLDS CEREMONY

TRIBUNE BUREAU, Panama Pacific Exposition, March 31.—Like a veritable Santa Claus, Butte county descended on the Panama Pacific International Exposition on its dedication day today. Tens of thousands of gifts filled the "joy maker's" pack. Music and flowers made the occasion a festive one.

Butte county came to make the "Dream City" glad. It also came to teach the cosmopolitan hosts an enjoyable lesson. Through the great variety of gifts which it has prepared it let the thousands who shared its hospitality know that Butte is an El Dorado.

Four thousand pretty packages of prize olives were among the souvenirs for the visitors. Three thousand fancy cartons of prunes also were prepared for this holiday celebration. Bags of almonds to the number of 5000 and a like number of boxes of Butte county matches were given away. Several thousand sacks of rice were also ready for those who made their way to the Exposition that day.

As pretty girls have a part in the Christmas cantata so the "Springtime Santa Claus" called upon the fair ones to assist in making the day one of gladness. Garbed to represent the industries in which their county takes greatest pride five girls mounted thrones of honor and superintend the presentation of the gifts. Maids of honor waited on these queens and will add their graces to the occasion.

Heading the list of gifts givers was the "Olive Queen," who will be led to her throne with much ceremony. As she accepts her crown and the duty of reigning over the Exposition hosts for a day she will waive her maids of honor to their lesser thrones and will see them begin their rule over their smaller dominions.

Among these four were a peach girl with her long straight robes of yellow and her cap of red. Then there was the rice maid, dressed as a bride with rice in her veil and in the folds of her pretty gown. The almond maid was splendidly crowned in a color suggestive of the almond. The prune girl had one of the finest of the lesser costumes.

OLIVE DAY BIG FAIR FEATURE

TRIBUNE BUREAU, Panama-Pacific Exposition, March 31.—California's morning sunshine today ushered in California Olive Day. Today was the day they ate ripe olives at the Exposition and followed suit all over the United States, and one of California's most famous industries received official recognition.

For the ripe olive's great sociability—and observing the law is a pleasure. The olive as an industry is well known to those who delve into the statistics of California. Today the Olive Growers' Association made it an institution.

The program of Olive Day was held in the California building, where a bronze plaque was presented the association officers. Miss Lillian Gurley presented olives to the visitors and Frank L. Brown was chairman of the day. Senator A. E. Boynton was the day's orator, and praised the olive. Large crowds participated.

Promotors Are Said to Have Vanished After Brief Speculative Venture.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.—Leaving [illegible] made a veritable mess of debts and a [illegible] state creditors and holders of stock [illegible] Kinleyside and his partner, a man named R. W. Mallaeb, are said to have quit San Francisco surreptitiously and without warning within the last two weeks and gone to parts unknown. Kinleyside came to San Francisco with a few months ago and immediately attained considerable prominence both as a "business man" and a leader of the loyal British contingent here. He played an active part in the staging of the entertainment given by the British Patriotic Society of San Francisco January 2 at Dreamland Rink for the benefit of war sufferers.

Last November Kinleyside organized the National Deposit and Mortgage Company [illegible] and Mallaeb to be president and himself secretary, rented a suite of offices in the Underwood building, employed a stenographer, and went out after "business." They applied for a permit to do business, doing business meanwhile, but they ran afoul a snag the blue sky law, and their application not long ago was denied.

They also employed an attorney, Aaron L. Sapiro, First National Bank publicity, who recently refused to have further dealings with their firm, and he is said now to be helping to locate them.

W. P. Baker, proprietor of the Bon [illegible] Apartments, Stanyan and Oak streets, on March 5 swore to a warrant charging Kinleyside with passing a worthless check for $5. The charge was dismissed by Police Judge Crist.

W. O. Purdy, 325 Fourth street, was one who was induced to invest $100 in "founders' certificates," giving his note payable March 1. He says now that Baker holds the note, Kinleyside having given it to him in lieu of cash for some accommodations.

JUDGE HOLDS COURT IN WARD OF HOSPITAL

MARTINEZ, March 31.—The preliminary examination of M. Smith and Joseph Rapp, charged with holding up a Wells Fargo driver, Otto Brown, on February 14, during which Brown was shot with his own revolver, was held in the German Hospital in San Francisco yesterday. Justice of the Peace Fitzgerald presiding. Brown, who is still suffering from the wound, identified the two men as the ones who held him up and also identified a purse and revolver found in their possession at the time of their arrest as his property. [illegible] of the deputy made it impossible for him to come to Martinez to testify, and court was held in the hospital ward instead. Further taking of testimony will continue.

JOSIE HARPER RELICS ARE SOLD

Sixty Cents Paid for Last Reminders of Jack London Heroine.

A fifty-cent piece and a dime went into the county treasury yesterday afternoon, and the last of the estate of Josie Harper, went into the hands of a stranger. The purchase consisted of a gold ring, the metal chased in rare designs, and a brassy stick pin.

The pitiful relics of the life of the woman once so vividly alive were sold in a manner very suggestive of the sad end of their one time owner. Josie Harer died in the county hospital. The ring and pin were yesterday sold at a "morgue sale."

Such a sale is held every six months in the Hall of Records when the effects gathered by the public officials from the estates of persons who die in some way but the ordinary one are disposed of at auction. Many things were sold yesterday. Edward Planer, deputy county treasurer, was the auctioneer. When he held up the gold ring and the stick pin, announcing that they were the last relics of Josie Harper, few bids were made. A stranger in the crowd offered sixty cents. It was accepted. He took his purchase, paid his money, and left the building.

Josie Harper's memory has been perpetuated by Jack London in his "John Barleycorn," in which recital he tells of the Harper woman's many kindnesses to him when she was proprietress of a road house at Thirty-ninth street and Telegraph avenue in the "old days." On many a cold morning, the author relates, when, as a small boy, he served the woman with a paper, she took him into her place and fed and warmed him.

But Josie Harper is officially dead. The last of her died yesterday in the Hall of Records.

Condemns Low-Neck Dresses for Girls

ALAMEDA, March 31.—"The mothers of today are too careless in allowing their girls to wear low-neck dresses," is the opinion of Mrs. E. O. Schetter and the sentiment of the Alameda Federation of Mothers' Clubs that prompted the adoption of a resolution to encourage simple dressing of school girls. At the meeting held yesterday afternoon at the Haight school the mothers passed the resolution, which indorsed the recommendation sent out by the federation of women's clubs at the recent Berkeley meeting advocating simple and modest dressing of all school girls in both grammar and high schools.

Mrs. Walton Farrar, president of the federation, said: "The mothers should encourage more modesty of manner in the girls and stimulate seriousness and deep thinking, as the girls of today will be the future citizens and have a vote in the ruling of the country. They should not be frivolous, but take matters more seriously."

TESLA POSTOFFICE MAY BE ABOLISHED

The postoffice at Tesla, in this county, one of the lower class offices of the service, will probably be discontinued for lack of a postmaster. This was the information received today by Congressman J. Arthur Elston from Daniel C. Roper, first assistant postmaster-general, who declares that with the resignation of the former postmaster, no proper candidate to take over the office has been presented to official notice. Unless Elston files objection to the postoffice department's action order of abandonment of the office will be made.

ABLE ASSISTANT CITY ATTORNEY RESIGNS PLACE

CHARLES E. BEARDSLEY, WHO HAS RESIGNED AS ASSISTANT CITY ATTORNEY AFTER BRILLIANT SERVICES.

Charles A. Beardsley, assistant city attorney for the past four and one-half years, tendered his resignation to the city council today, to take effect May 1. The resignation will be accepted with the deepest regret, as Beardsley has been recognized as one of the most brilliant attorneys ever connected with the city service.

Beardsley is a member of the law firm of Fitzgerald, Abbott & Beardsley. It is on account of the press of private work that he is giving up his connection with the city. The resignation of Beardsley will be considered among members of the legal fraternity as a distinct loss to the city.

While Beardsley has been chief assistant to City Attorney Ben F. Woolner, he has actually handled some of the most important litigation in the history of the city. He has personally tried over 100 cases and has lost in only one instance. Beardsley has also presonally prepared all the procedure for the recent bond issues, totaling several millions of dollars. This is exceedingly difficult work, as the slightest informality or error would result in invalidating the bonds.

HIGH PRAISE OF EXPERTS.

In connection with his work on the bond issues there is a letter on file from the biggest bond firm in the United States—Dillon, Thompson & Clay, of New York and Chicago, declaring that the bond procedure prepared by Beardsley and submitted to them is the best ever examined in their offices.

The commissioners refused to accept Beardsley's resignation today, in the hope that he might be induced to reconsider. The resignation will be acted upon next week.

"I am pressed with private business," said Beardsley. "There are ways in which it will be possible to terminate my connection with the city. I have given this matter full consideration and I shall act as if it had been agreed I should leave within a month. My relations with every official of the city have been of the most cordial character, but I feel I owe it to myself to act with a view to my best interests."

The city council this morning resolved itself into a meeting to pay tribute to Beardsley's ability.

"There is an old saying that there is no office which could not have been filled by some other man than the man who has actually filled it," declared City Attorney Woolner before the city council today. "I think Mr. Beardsley is an exception to that rule. There isno man in Oakland, no man of my acquaintance, who could have done the work he has done in the past five years as he has performed it.

"It is with a feeling of deep personal regret that I will accept this resignation. Our relations have been strong and close.

"Mr. Beardsley is a man far in advance of his years in ability and soundness of judgment. He has undertaken litigation for the city and has carried through cases single-handed for which the city would otherwise have had to employ high-priced legal experts at a cost of thousands of dollars.

KEEN LOSS TO CITY.

"The city will suffer the keenest loss through his leaving the service. I have known for some time that it had to come, and have tried to persuade him not to leave.

"But I realize that it is for Mr. Beardsley's best interests. I rejoice with him that he is leaving for a larger field of work, and I think we may all rejoice and look forward to seeing him attain a very high place in the legal affairs of California."

"It came to me as a shock that Mr. Beardsley was to leave the city's service. It will be a distinct loss to the city. I can appreciate the necessity which has led him to tender his resignation, however. For the same service he has rendered the city he would rave received higher pay from a private corporation.

"It will not be an easy matter to replace him. I wish to thank him in the name of the council for the splendid service he has performed for the city."

Commissioner Harry S. Anderson pointed to the fact that much of Beardsley's work had been on waterfront litigation, and so connected with his department.

"I have known him, when occasion demanded, to be at work before 6 o'clock in the morning," said Anderson, "and not to quit before midnight."

OTHER FAMOUS CASES.

Beardsley has represented the city in the famous Merritt Hospital cases, in which the city recovered some of the finest waterfront land on the Oakland estuary. These were the case of the City of Oakland vs. Wheeler and other trustees of the Merritt Hospital Association vs. Buteau and other trustees. He also appeared in the Kendal case, in which more waterfront and tide land was recovered. He represented the city in the Standard American Dredger suits, in numerous street matters and in about thirty injunction suits.

While Beardsley has been employed by the city he has continued his connection with the firm of Fitzgerald, Abbott & Beardsley. When he was appointed five years ago, it was with the understanding that he should be permitted to continue his private practice. At that time he was an assistant in the old firm of Fitzgerald & Abbott. So valuable did his services become that Attorneys Robert Fitzgerald and Carl H. Abbott received him as a partner in the firm, and the name was changed to include that of Beardsley.

It is to take up more actively the affairs of private practice that Beardsley is leaving the city service. The necessity that prompts this may be appreciated by the fact that Beardsley's salary with the city is the same as that of a city councilman, which positions are being eagerly sought by a number of candidates at the coming election.

The question of a successor has been discussed. Beardsley's advice as to a successor will be sought by City Attorney Woolner and the commissioners.

HIS FAREWELL WORD.

March 31, 1915.

Gentlemen—

I find that I am unable to give to both the work of the legal department of the city of Oakland and to my private practice with the firm of which I am a member the time and attention both require.

I shall be obliged to either give up my position as assistant city attorney or neglect my private practice. And, after careful consideration, I have decided to sever my connection with the city attorney's office of this city so that I may be in a position to devote my entire time to private practice.

I therefore request your honorable body to accept my resignation as assistant city attorney to take effect May 1, 1915, or at such earlier date as may be acceptable to your honorable body.

I desire at this time to acknowledge the courtesies shown to me during the last four years by the members of your honorable body and by the other city officials, and to express my appreciation of the uniformly harmonious relations that have at all times existed between all of the city officials and myself, and which my private practice alone forces me to terminate.

Respectfully submitted,
CHARLES A. BEARDSLEY,
Assistant City Attorney.

LONE BANDIT HOLDS UP CAR

Takes Company's Cash and Returns Coin Changer With Conductor's Money.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.—A lone highwayman, his face begrimed with soot, his feet muddy, his clothes of the sort that would be used by a mechanic in the workshop and who possessed a spark of kindness in his makeup, held up a Mission-Richmond car in daring fashion at 1 o'clock this morning. The robbery occurred at the terminus at Richmond and Andover street. It is a lonely spot at the top of a hill. Motorman Timothy Hart and Conductor A. R. Chase had turned trolley, shifted the headlight and made ready for the return trip. They were sitting quietly in the inside section. Suddenly a man entered. Not until he had reached them did the platform men realize that he was a bandit. A black cloth mask covered half his face and he carried a nickel plated revolver.

The conductor gave him a sack containing $19.80. The highwayman was not satisfied. Quickly he searched Chase's pockets taking an empty black purse, a key and six employes tickets. Then he relieved the conductor of his coin changer containing $4.25.

"Don't take my changer," begged Chase. "The money that is in that belongs to me and I have a big family at home to look out for."

"I am sorry, old man, I wouldn't rob the wife and the kids for anything," resonded the bandit as he returned the coin changer with its contents.

Warning the men to make no outcry he swung off and ran down Andover street toward Silver avenue. With bell clanging and police whistles blowing the men ran their car to Mission street where they found Patrolman George Ross. Together with Special Officer Dowd of the United Railroads, Policeman Ruggles and Special Policeman Sandowa, Ross made an immediate search. All Owl cars were stopped and the passengers looked over and the whole Ingleside district was combed, but the bandit got away.

The carmen had a good chance to look at him. His face was black as though he had just come from work. His shoes were muddy, his clothes were of the sort used in the foundry. He was 5 feet 8, appeared about 24 years old, and had a good growth of black hair.

FLEES WITH BABE FROM MEXICAN PERSECUTION

SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.—Fleeing from Carranza forces, who drove her from her home in the mining town of Pachuca and later trailed her to the coast when she escaped their vigilance in Mexico with her two-weeks-old infant in her arms, Mrs. W. G. Wimberly, wife of an American mining engineer, now a war refugee in San Salvador, arrived in San Francisco today. She was one of several on the steamer City of Para, from Balboa and the west coast, who told striking tales of hardships and persecution in the war-ridden republic.

DIVORCE SUIT FILED BY ARTIST

Gertrude Boyle Kanno Seeks Legal Separation From Her Spouse.

Gertrude Boyle Kanno, white wife of Count Takeshi Kanno, Japanese poet and philosopher, has taken the first step toward the realization of her ideal life with another life in filing a divorce complaint, charging incompatability, against her spouse. The action was filed two weeks ago and has been on the secret file of the San Francisco courts since that time.

Mrs. Kanno was arrested two weeks ago on an insanity complaint preferred by her sister, Miss Helen Boyle, who objected to the action of the sculptress in leaving Count Kanno because of her confessed admiration for E. Ihigaki, a young Japanese artist. In the detention ward of the central emergency hospital, Mrs. Kanno talked freely of her love for Ishigaki, admitting that she had asked her husband to leave her, that the path of true love might be unobstructed.

Kanno did leave her for a time, returning to "The Hights," the Joaquin Miller home in the Fruitvale hills. He could not remain away, however, declaring that he loved his white wife too well to give her up to his fellow countryman without a struggle. So he accompanied her into court when her insanity hearing was held before Judge Graham. There Miss Boyle admitted that she had made a mistake in having her sister arrested, and the sculptress was released.

Mrs. Kanno said last night that the summons in the divorce action had not yet been served on her husband, who is again back at "The Hights," ill. She contemplated withdrawing the complaint for the present, she said, because of his physical condition. She insisted, however, that she intended to press the complaint at a later date, when her husband's health is better.

Kanno and Miss Boyle were married at Seattle eight years ago, after vain efforts to have the ceremony performed in California. They met at "The Hights," where the Japanese was the protege of the late Poet of the Sierras. They lived in a cabin on the picturesque grounds for several years after their marriage, and it was only recently that Mrs. Kanno opened a studio in San Francisco, which led to her acquaintance with Ishigaki, the young Japanese artist whom she admits has supplanted Count Kanno in her affections.

FAMOUS MEN SEE "101 RANCH" SO CAN YOU; CLIP THE COUPON

These are the days of thrills and excitement a-plenty for the state and foreign commissioners to the Panama-Pacific Exposition.

During the past few days each of the distinguished representatives has been given an opportunity to discard his official robes and plunge in for a good time in true small boy style, with just enough of the peanut and red lemonade atmosphere to bring back the days of the corner lot and the big white circus tent.

The entertainment of the commissioners came about through special invitations sent out by the Miller Brothers, owners of the big "101 Ranch" Wild West Show on the exposition joy zone. Special days for the various state and foreign representatives, their assistants and families have been set apart by the obliging Wild West managers, with the result that the mammoth grand stand at the "101 Ranch" has looked more like a session of the State Legislature than anything less dignified.

Here are a few of the "big guns" who have wended their way through the Indian Village to the cowboy and cowgirl arena at the "101 Ranch":

Hon. William B. McKinley of the Illinois state commission; Lieutenant Anthony J. James, lieutenant to Admiral T. B. Howard; W. D. Smith of the Missouri state commission; E. Clifton, commissioner from New Zealand; Hon. S. Ishii, the Japanese commissioner; Hon. M. B. Ballivian, the commissioner-general of Bolivia; George T. Mills, exposition commissioner for the State of Nevada; William Hutchison, commissioner-general for the Dominion of Canada, and many others.

Among the distinguished guests who have seen the "101 Ranch" performance are Hon. William Randolph Hearst, Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt Jr., Mrs. Hermann Oelrichs, Mrs. Phoebe Hearst and the entire legislative body from the California State Legislature at Sacramento.

This is the joy zone attraction to which free tickets are given by The Tribune to its boy and girl readers under 18 years of age who clip the daily coupon. Only seven coupons are required to get a free pass.

One Pair of Glasses Does Work of Two

New Invention Makes It Possible.

It is no longer necessary for people who need glasses for both reading and distance use to have two pairs. By wearing the new patented "Caltex Onepiece" Bifocal two pairs of glasses are not required. Both reading and distance corrections are combined in one single lens and do away with unnecessary changing of glasses. They save time, temper and inconvenience; anyone can wear "Caltex Onepiece" Bifocals who requires two pairs of glasses. Remember the name "Caltex." ## "BATTER UP!"—HERE'S OLD SOL AT HOME AGAIN

Seals and Oaks Open 1915 Season Across Bay This Afternoon.

(By BILLY FITZ.)

A bit late, but nevertheless welcome, Old Sol came back home today, and as a result our baseball hungry populace will receive their delayed feast this afternoon. Los Angeles, profiting by a patch of sunshine, opened the league race yesterday all by its lonely, and were properly thrashed for their pains by McCredie's ever-dangerous Beavers. Meanwhile, for a few hours, last year's pennant winners hold an undisputed claim on first place, and the Angels are in the place made famous for two years by our own beloved Oaks. Clear weather was reported today from Salt Lake City and from Southern California, which makes it seem quite likely that the day's schedule will be as follows:

Oakland at San Francisco.
Venice at Salt Lake.

Harry Walton, secretary of the San Francisco club, announced this morning that all tickets purchased for yesterday's opening will be honored today at Recreation Park. Walton predicts an attendance of 12,000. The grass diamond has been reposing under a heavy canvas during the rain storm, and is in fair condition. Sawdust and gasoline were burned there this morning to assist the sun in the drying-up process.

Tyler Christian and Boss Wolverton are secretly a bit glad that rain necessitated a postponement, because it gave the players all a day of loafing, quickened public interest, and gave the pitchers further chance for rest. Likewise, the day's delay is responsible for a switch in the advertised batting order of the Oaks. Jimmy Johnston will get into the game today in place of Rube Gardner and will bat third, with Roxy Middleton in sixth place.

Of course, we must not overlook the fact that for this city, the real opening of the season comes tomorrow afternoon when the Oaks meet their old rivals on the local diamond. There will be no luncheon over here this year, but the usual parade and brass band will be in evidence, and some dignitary will have to throw the first ball. Just why it should be necessary for a city official to throw the first ball is a mystery followers of the game have been trying to solve unsuccessfully for years.

Harry Ables, Clinton Prough or Charley Pruiett will be the pitching selection for tomorrow, while Howard will probably start "Hook'em" Smith.

GIRL LASSOES COYOTE.

WICHITA, Kan., March 31. — Miss Dora Miller, 17 years old, who is visiting at the D. H. Smith ranch, Hardner, went with Smith to a trap that had been set for a coyote. Evidences showed an animal had been caught and had taken the trap away with it. While Smith went back to the house for a gun Miss Miller followed the coyote's trail on horseback. Catching up with it, she lassoed the coyote and choked it to death.

BEAVERS LEAD LEAGUE; ANGELS IN THE CELLAR

McCredie's Champions Are Off to Flying Start in Southland.

LOS ANGELES, March 31. — Portland won the opening game of the Pacific Coast league baseball season here, defeating Los Angeles, 3 to 1, in a fast contest. A large horseshoe of flowers was presented to Captain Dillon by admirers before the game, but the ends of the horseshoe pointed downward and the luck all ran out before the first inning.

A somewhat chilly atmosphere and a few fleecy clouds were the only reminders that snow in Salt Lake City and rain in San Francisco had caused postponement of the opening games.

Higginbotham, the Beaver pitcher, won his own game in the fifth inning by a single that scored Stumpf and Lober. Maggert, the Angel centerfielder, drove the ball against the centerfield fence in the next frame for a home run, but the bases were empty when he hit.

Chicago baseball stars formally inaugurated the season. Orvie Overall, former pitcher for the Cubs, threw the first ball, and Frank Chance, first baseman for the Chicago Nationals in their championship days, caught it, while Ed Walsh, boxman for the White Sox, acted as umpire. Then Mayor Rose and Chief of Police Sebastian tried to clip the corners of the plate, while the bleachers' occupants called a ball on each of them. The score:

United States Senator James P. Clark represents the interests attacking the validity of Governor George W. Hayes' veto. Hearing on the suit was set for April 6.

EMERYVILLE TO PLAY SAILORS.

The Emeryville ball tossers will take on the West Virginia team today on the Emeryville grounds. Drolette has signed up a few stars for today's game and figures to put up a fast game against the crack Sailor club. His club will lineup as follows:

RACING BILL SMOTHERED.

SACRAMENTO, March 31.—The Beban bill to create a racing commission was given rough treatment here last night in the Senate public morals committee, and it does not seem probable that the bill will ever see the light of day. There is a disposition in the legislature to frown down any racing legislation.

Mrs. Cleveland Forbes Big Surprise at Claremont.

By defeating Mrs. Alfred Swinerton yesterday in the first round of the Northern California golf championship, Mrs. Cleveland Forbes caused a big surprise at Claremont. The winner is comparatively a new player, but has taken to the sport naturally and gives promise of proving championship calibre. Putting was Mrs. Forbes forte yesterday, while at the same time it was the feature of play which Mrs. Swinerton could not seem to master. The steadiness of the winner in the last few holes was the deciding factor.

Miss Josephine Johnson defeated the Claremont captain, Mrs. F. B. Patterson, but not without having to display some of her best golf form. The summary:

The most exciting match in the second flight was that between Miss Cornelia O'Connor and Miss Vivian Gregory. Miss Gregory, whose handicap entitled her to three holes, won out on the twentieth green.

CHAMPIONSHIP FLIGHT SCRATCH.

Mrs. Cleveland Forbes defeated Mrs. Alfred B. Swinerton, 3 and 2.
Mrs. Julian Thorn defeated Mrs. H. H. Sherwood, 7 and 6.
Mrs. C. F. Ford defeated Mrs. F. W. Von Schrader, 7 and 6.

Miss Marie Louise Tyson won from Miss Alice Putnam by default.
Miss Lois Lehman drew a bye.

FLAWS ACCEPTS APPOINTMENT.

CHICAGO, March 31. — Magnus Flaws of Chicago today was notified of his appointment as presiding judge of the harness races to be held at San Francisco as a feature of the Panama-Pacific exposition. Two seasons are on the program, Flaws said, the first from June 5 to June 19 and the second from October 20 to November 13.

RIVERS AND DENNY LOOM UP AS NEW AMATEUR STARS

Two Heavy Hitters Will Meet Tonight for Lightweight Title of Oakland.

(By THE TIMEKEEPER.)

The fans are expecting to see the classiest bout ever staged in the local amateur game tonight when Mexican Joe Rivers meets Frank Denny in a return match. The boys are not only good as amateurs go, but either of them could have undoubtedly held his own in the trans-bay four round game at the time when that institution was going its best. Both the boys are almost new figures in the local ring, their reputations depending entirely on the showing they made in their last bout at the Wheelmen club two weeks ago. In that match Rivers took the count in the second round, but while it lasted the fans were certainly enjoying a contest.

Right at the start it was evident that the bout would end in the elimination of one of the scrappers, as both displayed accurate and heavy hitting powers.

Rivers is a powerfully built Mexican, while Denny is a rangy boxer. Both are fairly clever in their own style of milling, Rivers showing a slight advantage in experience over his opponent. Denny, by virtue of his longer reach, is the better on defense, and is almost as clever a boxer as Rivers. The outcome really depends upon which of the two gets in the first really clean punch.

Battling Johnson will try to do a comeback against Broadway George Heinhole. Both are aggressive fighters, and should furnish considerable action. What looks to be the next best bout on the card is the go between Abe Henderson and Rudy Nelson. Abe has been a uniformly good performer in the amateurs for several months, while Nelson also has considerable on the ball.

Johnny Conde and Joe Brown, two of the Wheelmen club's best, will battle for the lightweight championship of Alameda. The fans of the Encinal City have in the past supported both of the boys, but one of them will no doubt have to take the background after tonight. Conde has so far always managed to pull out with at least an even break, but some predict that he will meet his fate in the boy who, in the last show, trimmed the sensational Kid Petaluma. Conde will have quite a difference in reach to overcome, but is confident his side arm swings will reach Brown.

Other bouts on the card are: Al Rodgers vs. Kid Zucharee, Fred Graham vs. Pete Moran, Fred Perry vs. Kid Smiley, Whistling Jimmy Dutra vs. Dancing George Davis, and two curtain raisers.

DREW AND KELLY RUN AT U. C. TODAY

The University of Southern California track team will meet the freshmen of the University of California on the new oval at Berkeley this afternoon.

Fred Kelly and Howard Drew are the stars of the U. S. C. team and between them they will probably annex about 30 points on the tally sheet. Kelly is certain to capture both hurdle events and will place in the shot put, while Drew is good for first place in the 100 and 220 yard dashes, and perhaps in the broad jump.

California's strength lies in the number of entries from the freshman class. Sixty-four athletes will compete for the blue and gold against eighteen for U. S. C.

The meet will open at 3:30 o'clock, with the hammer throw at 2:30.

COLLEGE MERMEN TRAINING FOR SWIMMING MEET

St. Mary's College will enter a fast swimming team in the P. A. A. meet at Piedmont Baths next month. Walter Grace, the young island wonder, is at the head of a group of collegiate water dogs who figure to give local swimmers a merry time.

Herbert Hauser has charge of the plans for the meet which will open this handsome home for the sons and daughters of old Dad Neptune. Hauser believes the new baths will offer superior attractions to any in the West. The building has been open for inspection for the past week, and a constant stream of visitors attests to the interest in the enterprise.

The white tiled and marble pool, studded with many electric lights, the handsome lobby and the clean appearance of everything will prove a great attraction. The ultra violet ray system for the sterilization of the water is coming in for much attention. It is installed at the shallow end of the tank, in a glass enclosed tiled compartment, in the plain view of everyone and when in working operation will prove exceedingly attractive and interesting.

Special attention is being paid to the ladies' department, where cosy dressing rooms, white tiled marble showers, comfortable rooms for hair drying, electrically equipped, are provided. As soon as the bathing facilities are completed a fine sun room will be constructed on the Bay Place side of the building.

JACK JOHNSON OBSERVES NATAL DAY QUIETLY

HAVANA, March 31. — The day was a quiet one in the training camps of Jack Johnson and Jess Willard, the heavyweight pugilists who are to fight at the race course at Marianao, April 5, for the championship of the world.

Willard did no work aside from an early morning run on the road. He spent the afternoon, first in taking a swim, then visiting the race track, where he was followed about and cheered by a big crowd. Willard in his training makes it a practice to lay off one day for a rest during the week. Today he will go through a hard course, but hereafter will do just rough work to hold him to his present form.

Johnson is also letting down gradually in his work. At 7 o'clock this morning he took a 50-minute run. Later, after punching the bag and tossing the medicine ball, he boxed six rounds with his sparring partners, Bell and Scott. His other two boxers, Armstrong and Mills, were too badly battered up to put on the gloves with the big black fighter. Today is Johnson's birthday and he is not expected to do much more work than he did yesterday.

There has been in change in the betting on the outcome of the fight, Johnson remaining the favorite at about 2 to 1.

BOWLING

PEORIA, Ill., March 31.—The fifteenth annual tournament of the American Bowling Congress closed here last night.

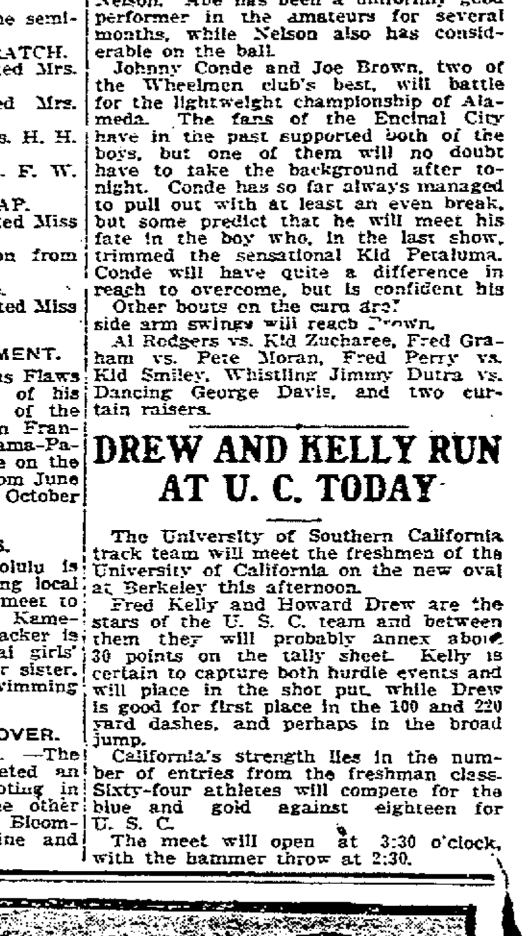

W. H. Pierce of Pueblo, won the championship in the singles with a score of 711, a new record in the A. B. C., the highest previous record being held by T. Haley of Detroit, who rolled 705 in 1910.

The championship in the doubles went to H. Allen and R. Allen of Detroit, who made 1297. In 1909 Schwoegler and Schwoegler of Madison, Wisconsin, rolled 1304.

The Barry Kettelers of Chicago clinched the championship in the five man event late Monday, with a score of 2907.

AMATEUR & SEMI-PRO BASEBALL

BY DIAMOND BILL

All the games scheduled for last Sunday in the Bay Cities series were postponed until Sunday, April 4. As the Berkeley Wasonas are preparing to enter the State league, Brainard will withdraw his team from the Bay Cities league after Sunday's game with the present leaders. Great Western Power will play the fast Holthamp Tailors, in the last game Pep Lloyd will pitch for this club, as he has signed with Stockton in the State league.

A warm battle is expected. The Power company has drafted Harry Monahan, the speedy southpaw late of the Berrilhons, who won the pennant in the Oakland Merchants' league. Monahan has promised to help the big power company to repeat. Weber will not be in the game again for a month, so the classy flinger is most welcome at this time.

The Buccaneer Guards will take on the Tailors, immediately after the game with Great Western Power at Bay View, commencing at 1:30. Loeffler has signed up Orstman, late of Napa, who has a good assortment of curves and can use his noodle. He will be pitted against Lefty McKimm, on the firing line.

Brainard of the Berkeley team, is receiving all kinds of encouragement from the Merchants of Berkeley, who will support the team in the State league. New suits have been ordered. Babe Danzig has been offered a good job in the accounting department of a prominent Berkeley bank, and will be seen on the initial sack. Dodge of the University team, is down for the pitching department, along with Hedemark. Clark Boldt will be stationed in leftfield and bat third, with Danzig as clean-up man.

The Alameda team in the State league will draw on a lot of the boys that have recently substituted on the team from the Encinal City in the Bay City league. The outfield, consisting of Flinger, Mackee, and Johnson, will probably play their last game with the Bankers Sunday.

"Lefty" Bechtle will play with the Power company, Sunday a. m., at Bay View, against the Tailors, in place of Brown, who is taking a much needed rest. Hiester arrived at Vancouver yesterday, expressing his suit to Manager McKee. The Power company's new suits are dark gray with a fine stripe.

Our old friend Frank Woodward of Great Western Power fame, is not only the sponsor of the amateur ball player, but on intimate terms with many of the big leaguers. Sunday, while the White Sox were killing the afternoon owing to wet grounds, our "amateur booster" was the host of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Comiskey, Tip O'Neill, Frank Cann, and Mr. and Mrs. Blackburne, all of the White Sox party. Frank Cann is married to one of the Comiskey girls, and is a cousin of Woodward.

Rhabart of the St. Mary's team has been offered the short stop job on the Berkeley team in the State league, and may appear second in the batting order. Rhubart is good with the stick, and can place a bunt with the best of them.

"Pep" Prentice has an offer to play third base for Modesto, but Brainard will not let him go. Fay and Weber of the Kilo-Watt club, have been approached with berths in the State league, but neither will consent to breaking away from the old guard.

If Danzig cannot be induced to sign up with Berkeley, Price, late of the Oaks, may take the job. Price has a nice way of standing at the plate, and can play the first bag to the queen's taste. He does not care to return to the Texas plains.

Jack Sproul of Grass Valley, will probably play the outfield, for Newark. Several of the country teams are trying to place him. He got such a poor deal at Pleasanton, he would prefer to avoid playing in that neighborhood.

Jerry Lawlor, has a couple of new ones which he expects to show to the fans in the near future. Allen is reported having signed with one of the fast out of town teams. Red Lydiat, while not in the box, can put up a bully game at first. He is one of the hardest hitters ever.

VALLEJO, March 31. — The Blanco & O'Keefe team of the Vallego City Baseball League will henceforth be under the management of Tony Blanco, one of the most popular players ever developed in this city. George O'Neil, former manager of the team, and "Chick" Rutran, outfielder, having decided to withdraw from the club. Manager Blanco has secured Charlie Campbell, former City League slugger, to hold down second base and Dick Ward will be shifted to the third sack. It is likely that Rutran's place in the outfield will be filled by Al St. John, a local amateur who gives promise of developing into a great ball player.

RECORDS INDICATE EASY VICTORY FOR SOUTHERN 'PREPS'

Track Events in Los Angeles Much Better Than at Palo Alto Meet.

Judging from the records accomplished by the Southern California high school track athletes in their prep meet held in Los Angeles last Saturday, the southerners figure to cop a big majority of points at Fresno on April 3 when the northern, southern and central high schools of California clash.

Manual Arts won the southern interscholastic championship by rolling up 35 points to Long Beach's 25 and L. A. Poly 15. Sixteen other prep schools besides the above three competed and finished under the 10 point mark.

The mile run in south was negotiated in 4 minutes 40 3-5 seconds, while the mile run at Stanford was run off in 5 to 1-5. Some difference. The 100 yard dash was covered in 10-2, while at Stanford, Teall of St. Mathew's high won out with a record of 11-2.

The 220 in the south was negotiated in 22 4-5; Stanford, 24 flat. The 440 at Stanford was won by Frank McKechnie, the Berkeley high marvel in 54 4-5, while in the southern meet, this distance was covered in 53 flat. The 880 yard run was made in 2 minutes 3 4-5 seconds, while at Stanford, the time was 2 minutes 10 3-5 seconds. Over seven seconds difference.

Thompson, the Southern California marvel, who represented Long Beach, did the 120 yard hurdles in 16 1-5 seconds, while Thompson, a San Jose high crack, who is considered one of the classiest prep school hurdlers in the State, went over the sticks in 17 2-5. The fight for first place at Fresno between these two lads will probably be a feature of the meet as both are wonderful athletes and are the mainstays of their respective teams.

The southern Thompson took first place in the discus, first in the high hurdles, tied for first in the high jump, and took third place in the 220 hurdles. The San Jose Thompson won the low and high hurdles, took second place in the broad and helped San Jose win the relay.

In the field events, the Orange belt lads eclipsed the northern prepsters' distances by big margins. The southern pole vault event was captured at 11 feet 9 inches, the best done at Stanford was 10 feet 2 inches. A southerner high jumped 6 feet 1¾ inches while Angell, the Palo Altoan who took first place in this event at Stanford jumped only 5 feet 7¾.

The broad jump in the south was marked at 20 feet 11 1-8 inches, at Stanford, 20 feet ¾ inch.

The relay in the south was covered in 1 33 3-5 seconds, at Stanford, 1 39 2-5.

RED WINGS TO TAKE UP BIKE GAME

The Olympic club upon entering the bike game has applied to the C. A. C. C. for membership so that the Winged O riders can ride in all sanctioned races. The C. A. C. C. will meet tonight at the New Century clubrooms when entries for Sunday's races will close. The Olympic club's entry into the big game should create more interest and competition. Sunday's races will be a 30-mile relay novice race in which five clubs have entered, a one mile novice championship and a 3-mile open race free for all. In the latter race the Olympic riders who will compete are Hans Ohrt, Stanley Carman, the crack from Newark and whose brother is the motor paced champion, and Fred Hoffman, the former Acme rider will ride in this race and should prove good for the Olympic club. The Fresno club has joined the C. A. C. C. and their riders will be seen in all the races.

All these races will be held at the Park stadium.

GIRL RISKS LIFE TO SAVE THAT OF FRIEND

SHEBOYGAN, Wis., March 31. — Nellie Gort, aged 18, narrowly escaped death today in saving the life of her chum, Anna Raber, aged 17.

The girls were on their way to work at a local glove factory. They held their muffs to their faces as a protection against the wind and snow.

Crossing the Northwestern road tracks they failed to see the approach of a south-bound passenger train until it was almost upon them.

Anna was paralyzed with fright, but Nellie seized her and jerked her from the rails. Nellie stumbled and fell clear of the track, while Anna was struck glancingly by the pilot and thrown several feet, sustaining a broken leg and arm.

QUEER FREAK RESEMBLES FISH, SNAKE AND LIZARD

BICKNELL, Ind., March 31.—A strange creature, presenting anatomical characteristics which might be attributed to fish, snake or lizard, has been placed on exhibition in a business house here. No one has found a name that seems to fit the animal or reptile, which was caught by Grant Hooper and Carl York, fishermen.

The body of the creature is twelve inches long, and in shape resembles the old-fashioned four-cornered dart kite. The head, in form, is like a snake's, but the resemblance ends there, for four sharp tusks protrude from the mouth. Apparently the creature breathes through gills similar to those of a fish. The horns and ears, which follow closely the form of the human ear, give a peculiar appearance to the head. The skin or hide is black and white in color.

PLENTY OF HOT WATER

This illustration shows it attached to your kitchen boiler. To use it you simply open the door, turn on the gas, light it, close the door and go on with your work.

The water passes from the boiler through the copper coils in the heater and back into the boiler—a short, hot road.

The length of time you let the gas burn is governed by the amount of hot water needed for dishwashing, bath, laundry or other purpose. A little hot water in the top of the boiler or a whole boilerful—just as required—then turn off the gas and expense stops instantly. The water is heated, not the kitchen, and, too a decided saving of money over the old-fashioned systems.

STORIES OF THE LINKS

"When one throws a brick at a yowling cat one looks at the cat—not the brick," remarks Miss Whitaker.

Right.

Continuing in her argument that folks who look at the ball when putting are doing things backward, Miss Whitaker says:

"When you play croquet you look at the hoop—not the ball. When you sew a button on a shirt you don't look at the needle. You look at the hole in the button. When you bowl you look at the pins—not the ball.

"So why," asks Miss Whitaker, "should one reverse the general order in golfing? Why should one do the backward thing in golfing? The thing to look at is the goal—not the instrument that is to take you to the goal."

Miss Whitaker's logic seems to us the best that ever has been offered as an answer to the moot question in golf.

Chester G. Horton, professional at the links of the University of Washington Golf Club, is the first of the pros in the Pacific Northwest to announce that he is going to make that trip to California next month to take part in the open event of the big tornament that will be staged in connection with the Panama Pacific Exposition. Toward the end of getting in shape for the scrap, Horton is spending more time on his own game at present than on that of his pupils.

While several other professionals have talked of the southern trip, none except Horton has concluded his plans. That there will be several amateurs of his section take part in the various events is well undersood. None will be pinned down to the actual declaration of his intentions, however.

A member of the Chicago Board of Trade, an enthusiastic golfer, has been presented by friends with the most wonderful golf club ever invented. It is guaranteed to overcome all difficulties and is fitted with all kinds of electrical devices that will assure a long, straight drive, if the user will only keep his head and push the correct spring.

The head of the club is seven feet long and there are three spots to drive from. One can obtain a slice, a pull or a straight ball by merely pressing the right button. On the top is a compass and a spirit level. A little way up the shaft is a fishing reel to be used in water hazards. The same reel operates in that the line is attached to the golf ball and the reel lets it out. If in the rough, the line can be followed to the lie.

The club is also fitted with electric lights in case of darkness and an automobile horn to save yelling "fore." There is also a small music box in the head of the club that can be played while waiting at the tee. This will also serve to annoy one's opponent while he is in the act of driving.

George Maxey, a veteran caddie, writing a pertinent article concerning the relationship of golfer to caddie in the Golfers' Magazine, says in part:

"In eight years' experience as a caddie I have noticed one thing which often puzzles club members. One man will take a caddie and after the game will report him a very good boy. The next day one of his fellow members will take the same boy and report him as being good for nothing.

"The reason is that the first man treated the boy well, took him into the game, as it were, asked his advice and did not abuse him if he carried it out badly. The second man started out wrong, excluded the boy from the game, blamed him for bad shots, etc. The first man may have started out with 'Good morning, son.' The second probably started out with 'Where's my kid?'

"The caddie is human and nothing his employer says or does escapes him. The first man had the caddie on his side from the start. The second man aroused his antagonism with the opening remark. The best golf is secured only with the whole-hearted assistance of the caddie.

"The caddie can do more to injure your game than any one other cause. If he is against you, it were better not to play, for the things he can devise to annoy you are many."

The worst golf score? Well, three fellows played a match game on the Garden City, N. Y., links last year during a tournament of the Carpet Trade Golf Association and if the scores they turned in aren't of a record nature, show us worse ones.

The "best" golfer of the three negotiated the 1 holes in 176, the next best took 191 swats at the ball, while the third "blew" himself to 285 swings.

In—9, 14, 12, 21, 16, 11, 14, 12, 21—130.

NO OBJECTIONS TO CREDIT PLANS

State Department Finds Arrangements Satisfactory, Says Bryan.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—The State Department has not felt justified, Secretary Bryan announced today, in objecting to credit arrangements made with belligerent governments by American financiers insofar as they have been brought to the department's attention. Secretary Bryan said the Department had taken no action and expressed no opinion on them.

U. C. EXPERIMENTS WITH FERTILIZER

BERKELEY, March 31.—Experiments tending to show the value of various fertilizers for orange, lemon and other citrus trees have been conducted at the citrus experiment station of the University of California under the direction of Professor H. J. Webber, according to his report to Dean T. F. Hunt of the department of agriculture. Twenty different plats of trees were laid out, each containing six navel oranges, six valencia oranges, six Eureka lemons and six Lisbon lemons. Each plat was treated differently as regards fertilizer.

The trees were planted in April, 1907, and hence are nearly eight years old. They have borne four crops, though the 1913 freeze caused considerable damage, especially to the lemons.

NITROGEN'S HIGH YIELD.

The most noticeable factor, Professor Webber says, is the high yields of the nitrogen plats, especially those treated with the nitrate of soda or with dried blood. The low yield of the untreated plats is also worthy of note, considering the indifferent effects sometimes obtained in the use of fertilizers. Plants treated with it is ordinarily designated as complete fertilizer—that is, one containing what is supposed to be the nearly correct amount of potash, phosphoric acid and nitrogen—are in excellent condition, and gave good comparative yields. The manure plats are rather disappointing in yield, but the trees are in excellent condition. In general the potash plats are poor in yield and the trees show little growth, being slightly if any better than the untreated plats. Professor Webber continues:

"One of the most interesting features of this experiment is the different degree or amount of mottle leaf shown by the different plats. Mottle leaf, which is probably a symptom of many diseases, is apparently the first sign of weakness or disease in the tree.

NOW BADLY MOTTLED.

The nitrate of soda plat, which has given a very high yield up to the present time, is now very badly mottled, about 80 per cent of the leaves being discolored. This plat is clearly the most mottled plat in the grove. It seems to be true that every plat receiving any nitrate of soda is badly mottled, as for instance, Plat A, 80%; G, 50%; H, 80%; L, 60%; Plat Q, however, which had nitrate of soda in a complete manure along with blood, superphosphate and sulfate of potash, was graded as having only 5 per cent mottling. Nitrogen from organic sources does not seem to have the same effect, as the blood and manure plats show much less mottling.

"The best plats in the experiments, all points considered, seem to be those treated with dried blood, as they have not only given high yields, but appear very healthy.

"The present results from the experiments would therefore indicte the importance of nitrogen fertilization, and the desirability of using nitrogen from organic sources rather than from such chemicals as nitrate of soda. They would also suggest that the soil at the experiment station require a minimum amount of potash. The results would leave us in doubt regarding the importance of phosphoric acid but suggest a medium amount as desirable.

"It must be clearly recognized that the results as yet give only suggestions. These experiments must be carried for a much longer period before the final results can be given. It is of the highest importance to get conclusions from a much larger and more complete series of plats, and this, it is expected, will form one of the main lines of investigation in the future."

SHAVED 'WHISKERS' FROM TELEPHONE

Intricate Process Basis of Suit for $5400 Against National Wireless Co.

SAN JOSE, March 31.—The intricate laboratory processes involved in the removal of "whiskers" from wireless telephony are being described on the witness stand before Superior Judge Gosbey in an action brought by Prof. Charles D. Herrold against the National Wireless Telephone and Telegraph Company for $5400, which he asserts is due him for salary for two years spent in the company's employ here.

It was explained to the court that a conversation not clearly received by wireless telephone has "whiskers" on it. Professor Herrold's work in the laboratory was devoted chiefly toward discovering a method for the elimination of these "whiskers," and perfecting wireless telephony.

The plaintiff is going over the whole history of the development of wireless telephone and telegraph in order to show the value of his researches.

The company contends that it owes Herrold but $423.50.

FATHER OF ATHLETE FALLS DEAD, TALKING

SAN JOSE, March 31.—Henry W. Edwards, father of Wilbur J. Edwards, a former bicycle rider of national fame, now cashier of the Security State Bank of this city, dropped dead while talking to friends on North First street last night. He had been under the care of a physician for heart trouble for some time and an inquest will be held.

Mrs. Edwards is survived by a widow besides his one son. He was 73 years of age and a native of Illinois. The funeral will be held tomorrow.

INJURY CAUSES DEATH.

SAN JOSE, March 31.—Fred Spur, a landscape gardener, who arrived here recently from Southern California, died last night in the Columbia hospital of injuries incurred Monday afternoon when he was struck by an automobile driven by R. S. Williams of 123 Martin avenue. A sister and brother lives in England. There are no relatives in this country.

Lord Rothschild Is Summoned by Death

By Associated Press.

LONDON, March 31.—Lord Rothschild, head of the English branch of the Rothschild family, died in London today.

Baron Rothschild was operated upon last Saturday in an acute case of hernia. For a time it seemed that his recovery was assured, but age together with the worries incident to the war caused a relapse.

It probably will be found that the affairs of the financier were so arranged that his death will cause little if any disturbance to the money markets.

BRINGS DAMAGE SUIT FOR REDLIGHT EVICTION

SAN JOSE, March 31.—Suit for the recovery of personal property, valued at $5000, has been instituted by Mrs. Emma Moreau of Ellis street, San Francisco, against Detective W. J. Dreischmeyer of the district attorney's office. Mrs. Moreau, as lessee, was alleged to have been proprietress of a place at No. 10 Orchard street, within a stone's throw of a fashionable young ladies' finishing school, in violation of the redlight injunction and abatement measure. She was evicted by Dreischmeyer with the aid of the police officials, and the entrance of the place boarded up. Dreischmeyer is employed in the office of District Attorney A. M. Free, who has been the target here of newspaper attacks for alleged failure to proceed against alleged houses of ill-repute. It is stated by Free that he has closed five places within the past few weeks.

STREET IMPROVEMENTS DISCUSSED BY COUNCIL

ALAMEDA, March 31.—W. R. Alberger of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways last evening appeared before the committee of the whole of the city corner last evening by an automobile provement of North Park street, in which the company will have to stand part of the expense. If the plan of the city engineer is adopted the railway company will have to expend $9000 to improve its portion of the street, from Buena Vista avenue to the bridge. Alberger said that the company was now in the midst of refinancing and that it cannot accomplish further improvements of construction until the matter is settled. He told the engineer, howver, that he would look over the plans of the city engineer and study the proposed construction. The matter will come up again April 20.

California Ripe Olive Day was observed by members of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce-Commercial Club, consolidated, at their weekly luncheon in the club grill room today. Ripe olives were featured on the bill of fare and olive leaves and branches formed the decorations. The growth of the olive industry in California was explained by W. F. Ogleby, of the faculty of the University of California, in a fifteen-minute talk.

The Hotel Oakland also observed Ripe Olive Day by decorating the big halls and corridors of the ground floor with olive leaves and branches and featuring ripe olives on their menus.

City Clerk Frank M. Smith announced today that the registration rolls showed that 82,268 men and women are eligible to cast ballots at the municipal nominating election of April 20. This is the largest registration in the city's history by more than 10,000. A large vote is predicted at the nominating election because of the interest in the campaign.

YOUTH IN CUSTODY.

BERKELEY, March 31.—The residence of A. Phillips, 1421 Russell street, was entered by a burglar night before last when an overcoat was stolen. The garment was sold in Oakland, where the police took into custody Harry J. Steele, a youth of 20 years, on suspicion of having committed the crime. He was turned over to the Berkeley police department for examination.

URGES CHICAGO WATERWAY PLAN

Governor Dunne Explains Project to Connect City With Mississippi River

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, March 31.—A navigable waterway—dreamed since the explorer Joliet visited Illinois in 1673—which would connect Chicago with the Mississippi river, at an estimated cost of less than $3,500,000, was explained today to the Chicago Real Estate Board by Governor Edward F. Dunne, who is fathering the latest project, and Senator Lawrence Y. Sherman.

The scheme, which consists of deepening rivers and canals already constructed to a depth of eight feet and connecting them, can be completed in two years at a cost so infinitesimal to the taxpayer, it would not be noticed, the governor said. He asserted the only taxation that would be felt would be interest on bonds during the two years of construction work. This would not exceed $320,000, which ultimately would be repaid to the citizens out of the income of the wterway, and the power incidentally developed thereby, he said.

GROWING OCEAN TRAFFIC.

"Since the opening of the Panama canal, ocean traffic has been wonderfully increased between the eastern and western seaboards of the United States," said Senator Dunne. "The ocean traffic is more economical than the transcontinental tariff and as a result the railroad tariff has been lowered, but not in the Mississippi valley. It costs, in many cases, as much as, and sometimes more, to ship direct from Chicago to San Francisco over the railroads than it does to ship from Chicago to New York and thence by steamer to San Francisco.

"Manufacturers on the eastern seaboard are able to compete successfully against manufacturers in Illinois. Many factories heretofore successfully conducted in Illinois will inguish as a result of the advantage thus obtained by eastern manufacturers unless we open water transportation to New Orleans.

AFFECT FARM PRODUCTS.

"The market prices of all farm products are made in Chicago and if this waterway will have the effect of lowering freights to and from Chicago it will increase the value of every bushel of wheat and corn and of every animal sold by the farmers. On the contrary, if we fail to recognize the great opportunities which will come to the manufacturers and producers, in my judgment competition with the producers of the east, who have the benefit of ocean transportation, will be disastrous to us."

Freight would be carried on self-propelled barges with a capacity of 1000 to 2000 tons, the governor said.

KNOWS BRANDS OF ALL TEXAS CATTLE

FORT WORTH, Tex., March 31.—One of the most interesting characters at the Texas Cattlemen's convention in San Antonio was W. L. Callahan, cattle inspector for the Texas Cattlemen's Association in the Kansas City stockyards.

"Led" Callahan, who is an expert brand inspector, got his training in his "business" on the West Texas plains, and is one of the best known Texas cowboys of the old frontier days. It is his business to watch over 2,000,000 cattle yearly in the Kansas City stockyards, and by his work he saves the Cattlemen's Association's members thousands of dollars.

Callahan is said to know more brands than any man who ever punched cattle on the Texas plains. People who know him say that he is familiar with 15,000 brands. He is familiar with the principal brands of Montana, Wyoming, Nebraska, Kansas, Arizona, Colorado and Texas.

When bulletins of new brands reach his desk he looks them over, tucks them away in his brain alongside the thousands of other cattle markings he knows and never forgets. Callahan credits his good memory for brands to his life on the plains. He says that it was his business training from youth up.

Every cattleman in Texas knows Led Callahan. He is one of the trio of brand inspectors of the state. Tom Poston and Sam Rutledge, inspectors of the Fort Worth markets, are the other members. These men and their work have put the old-time cattle "rustlers" to the bad. It is impossible to market cattle that have been stolen at these markets, without charges being preferred against the "rustlers."

AXE WIELDER IS BEAR FIGHT HERO

CINCINNATI, O., March 31.—Moving pictures he saw today have given A. A. Campbell, efficiency engineer of the Union Gas and Electric Company, a chance to locate his wife, who has been separated from him almost a year. She is the daughter of Mrs. W. H. Campbell of Butler, Pa.

Late today Campbell viewed scenes in films depicting Red Cross nurses as they boarded the liner La Touraine at New York on their way to Havre, France. He was amazed to see flashed on the screen the picture of a nurse whom he identified as his wife. He told of the circumstances which led to a separation from his wife in New York after a misunderstanding. Campbell has been trying to locate her for several months.

He immediately wired his brother, L. C. Campbell of New York, asking him to cable to Havre, where the La Touraine is docked and make an effort to reach his wife. Campbell says he believes a reconciliation can be effected.

BANANAS ARRIVE IN LOCAL MART

Over 1000 Bunches from Honolulu, Beside Eastern Shipments, Lower Prices.

More than 1000 bunches of Honolulu bananas and a large consignment of eastern bunches came into the Oakland market today, and were selling at 4 to 4½ cents a pound. Other fruit arrivals were a number of boxes of superior Bellefleur apples from cold storage and 50 boxes of Oregon Winesap apples. The former sold at 60 to 65 cents a box, the latter bringing $1.45 to $1.50. California apples, however, are in poor demand.

The range on asparagus narrowed to from $1.10 for No. 2 choice to $1.75 for graded stock, with the appearance of 660 boxes this morning. Green peas were easier, though today's consignments were lighter than usual. Los Angeles dropped to 2@3½ cents, small local peas selling at 6 cents a pound and Telephones bringing 7 to 7½ cents. Green onions continue to drag, and wilted stock sold slowly at 50 to 75 cents. The demand for rhubarb is poor, but a fresh consignment sold at a higher rate of $5 cents to $1 a box.

One car of Nevada Burbanks came in, selling for extra fancy at too at $2.25. Fresh consignments of Island Celery to the extent of 16 whole and 15 half crates also arrived. There were two grades, crates of No. 2 being offered at $2.25 and of No. 1 at $3.25. Half crates sold at $1.25 to $1.50. Sales of celery were brisk.

Due to overcupply, lettuce weakened to a range of $1 to $1.40 per crate. Stock left over from the week end cleaned up at the lower rate of 75 cents to $1.25. Another arrival consisted of 7 crates of Florida tomatoes, which were selling at $5 to $5.50 per crate of 6 baskets.

1915 MEN SOUGHT TO DONATE $1915

Two Teams Will Conduct Campaign for Exposition Entertainment Fund.

SAN JOSE, March 31.—A five-day campaign by rival teams of a hundred men will be instituted here Monday morning for the purpose of finding 1915 men who will contribute a dollar a month each for a fund to entertain visitors during the remainder of the exposition year. Headquarters will be established in the Elks building and the losing team will be required to banquet the winners.

At a mass meeting last night Howell D. Melvin, prominent in the Native Sons, and Roy Newberry were selected team leaders. Each chose 100 assistants.

The two teams will meet Friday night and arrange plans for a campaign which is expected to keep the town in a turmoil most of next week.

At the mass meeting last night the town was likened to a big department store which has brought thousands of people into its place of business by a big advertising campaign and then discovers that it has forgotten to employ anyone to show the goods on its shelves. Although $150,000 has been raised by taxation for advertising at the expositions and in the East, the county discovers that none of this is available for work at home to reap the benefits of this advertising—hence the "service department" with its special list of 1915 contributors was planned as an adjunct of chamber of commerce work.

SANTA FE TO REFUND SPUR SWITCH CHARGES

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—The Santa Fe Railway was today authorized by the Interstate Commerce Commission to refund all charges collected by it after August 12, 1914, for carload switching to and from industries on spurs or sidetracks in San Diego, Cal., and San Francisco, moving incidental to a system line haul from or into those cities. It was authorized also to waive collection of the charges, pending the operation of a new schedule effective April 1, which cancels them.

AMALGAMATED OIL CO. REDUCES ITS DIVIDEND

LOS ANGELES, March 31.—The Amalgamated Oil Company reduced its monthly dividend from $1.25 to 75 cents per share yesterday, according to a telegram received at the stock exchange. Payment will be made April 24 to stock on record April 19. The concern is capitalized at $5,000,000. The West Coast Oil Company's dividend will remain unchanged. The United Oil Company has declared a quarterly dividend of ¼ cent a share.

Will you spend one cent and 10 minutes daily on music?

¶ Mr. Business man, you go home tired and sometimes worried—what you need is relaxation and inspiration—why not turn to music? You will find in making music the most wholesome, inspiring and vitalizing relaxation. Bear in mind, we suggested making music—you can make it—all music is available to you with the wonderful PIANOLA. At first you will spend ten minutes every evening playing your favorites—you will soon become so absorbed and so entertained that the ten minutes will stretch to an hour, and you will prefer to play masterpieces—not only you but all your family will play and enjoy music. As to the cost—the price of a PIANOLA and sufficient player music if spread over the busiest portion of your life would hardly amount to a cent a day.

PROSECUTION OF CONSUL TO STOP

State Department Intervenes in Case Against Dr. Wilhelm Muller.

By Associated Press.

SEATTLE, March 31.—It is announced here that the prosecution of Dr. Wilhelm Muller, German consul at Seattle, and B. Max Schultz his secretary, charged with conspiracy to bribe an employe of the Seattle Construction and Drydock Company to reveal secrets of his employers' business will be dropped in a few days.

The state department desires that the prosecution, which is under a state law, be discontinued and Prosecuting Attorney Alfred H. Lundin, who caused the arrest of the consul and his secretary, consented to the discontinuance when he discovered that a federal statute prevented his bringing the consul before a state court. Federal courts according to the statute, have jurisdiction in all cases against consuls.

Consul Mueller was charged with negotiating with Dan Tarnazicky a detective, to obtain from John Murdock, assistant shipping clerk of the construction company, evidence to substantiate Ambassador Von Bernstoff's allegation that the company was building submarines and shipping them in sections to British Columbia. The consul was only technically arrested.

MASQUERADES AS WOMAN TO ESCAPE FROM PRISON

SAN RAFAEL, March 31.—Masquerading as a woman, Henry A. Young, serving an eight-year term at San Quentin for burglary, escaped from the penitentiary yesterday, but was captured again even before he had been missed by his keepers.

Beneath his male attire he had concealed a skirt, which he had made from a blanket, a waist made from the lining of a coat, and over it a shawl, also for which a blanket served, and an improvised Tipperary veil.

He had to cross the San Rafael channel, about eight feet in width and deep. On the bank of the channel Young discarded his feminine apparel, and as a real man clad only in undergarments, he dived in.

His clumsy swimming attracted the attention of E. W. Jackson, who only the day before was appointed a deputy sheriff, and E. M. Fairchild and they hauled him out when he reached the shore almost dead from exhaustion and the effects of the cold water.

WANT PROTECTION OF FUR-BEARING ANIMALS

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—An early move of the new House Ways and Means committee when Congress convenes will be to press for action on the bill to protect the fast disappearing fur bearing animals in Alaska, committee members said today. The proposed legislation would enlarge the scope of the present law by making it unlawful in addition to the killing of fur bearing animals there, to injure, trap, hunt, disturb, catch or pursue them, as well as hair seals, harbor seals, sea lions and walruses. It would bar the sale, barter, shipment, possession or control of any of these animals, dead or alive. The plan is taken from various state game laws. The Department of Commerce, which is charged with the execution of the present law is powerless to enforce its regulations because persons prosecuted must be caught in the actual killing of the fur bearing animals, and there are various confusing interpretations and evasions to be obviated.

CREEKS RUNNING HIGH.

CHICO, March 31.—The Sacramento river has reached the 17.5 mark at Chico Landing and is rising slowly under the swell of the recent rains and Mud Creek is out of its banks. Several other small creeks are running high and a number of roads have been flooded on the Glenn county side.

STATUE ON DISPLAY.

GRASS VALLEY, March 31.—"Tanity," the statue modeled by Mrs. Nonette Hennessey, wife of a local school principal, and soon to be shipped to the Panama-Pacific Exposition, has been placed on display in her studio here prior to its being taken to San Francisco.

BILGER OUTLINES IDEAS FOR CITY

Plans for Tax Reductions Are Discussed Before Carmen's Union.

Three hundred members of the Carmen's Union assembled in their headquarters in Pythian Castle at Twelfth and Franklin streets last night to hear Frank W. Bilger, candidate for mayor, outline the policies he will follow in the event of his election.

After being introduced as a man who is known to be fair to organized labor, the candidate spoke in part as follows:

"It is about time that Oakland had a business man for mayor. By a business man I mean a man who has established a business here, has made a success of it and who has grown up with the city. I have been here for thirty years and for the last twenty-five I have been in business life.

"You will readily see why we need a business man at the head of affairs of this city at this time. During the past few years there have been some costly mistakes made. Especially is this the case in regard to the city hall and the auditorium. There have been other costly mistakes that would not perhaps have been made if there had been a strictly business administration of public affairs. The public should have known at the beginning just what was to have been expended on our two biggest public buildings and there should not have been a second bond election necessary to finish them. There should have been a proper publicity given to the exact cost and plans and then the public could have voted intelligently.

"It was a great mistake to go ahead with either of these two buildings—the city hall and auditorium—knowing full well that there was not enough money voted to finish them. I promise you that there shall not be any such mistakes if I am elected mayor of Oakland. Such mistakes are too costly and are not a square deal with the taxpayers.

"Oakland is naturally a manufacturing city and we must have more industrial plants here. This can be helped by some radical changes in the city charter. It is a fact that our charters full of fads that look well in theory but which are not practical and are not according to good business policies. The charter was largely the work of politicians and there were very few business men on the board of freeholders.

"The charter makes it possible to run the city government on a very expensive plan and this system of expense has passed the limit of reason. There can be some very wholesome retrenchments if the charter be amended to suit business conditions.

"I intend to give this my earnest attention and to prepare the necessary changes as soon as possible. You know in private business a man does not wait a year or two before he corrects errors that are the cause of waste. He gets at them at once and this is the way I shall handle the city's business if elected mayor.

"I have refrained from criticising the city officials because the majority of them are going out of office but I will say that it is high time to put on the brakes and to do everything possible along business lines to reduce the tax levy and encourage new industries to come here. This is the program that I announced when I first became a candidate a year ago and it evidently appears so good to some of opponents that they have adopted it for their own."

JUDGE AS SOLOMON

RICHMOND, March 31.—Police Judge William Lindsey yesterday afternoon enacted the role of a Solomon when he settled the difficulties of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Scott, 834 Ohio street. Mrs. Scott had her husband arrested for alleged threats to kill her. Following a lengthy lecture by Judge Lindsey Scott, who is a marine engineer, agreed to pay his wife $50 a month for the support of herself and three children. Scott agreed to refrain from further bothering his wife.

FIRE CHIEF BALL TO RETIRE JULY 1

After twenty-seven years' service in the fire department, during seventeen years of which he was the head of the department, Nicholas A. Ball announced to the City Council through Commissioner Fred C. Turner this morning a request that he be retired on July 1. The request will be considered by the Board of Fire and Police Relief Pension Commissioners at a meeting next Monday. Ball will be retired on half pay.

Ball's coming retirement has been rumored for several weeks, and the question of his successor has been made a campaign issue in the coming city election. The office is appointive, and a score of candidates are in the field for the position. The various candidates for commissionerships have come forward in support of different aspirants for the position. Ball's successor is not to be appointed until two years after a Mayor have been elected at the May election.

Ball's retirement will pave the way for many reforms in the fire department, which will be undertaken when the new fire chief will take office on July 1.

In announcing Ball's request for retirement, Commissioner Turner explained that the official's age and his length of service in the department were the reasons for the request. Turner paid a tribute to the fire chief, expressing regret that he desired to leave the department.

Ball became eligible for retirement under the provisions of the charter and the rules of the Civil Service Commission last October. He entered the department twenty-seven years ago as a boseman and in the short space of ten years worked his way to the position of fire chief.

MAYFIELD HELD FOR SUPERIOR COURT TRIAL

Herbert R. Mayfield alleged partner of Albert E. Sells, confessed murderer of aged Jacob Vogel and his wife Elise, in their Galindo street home on the night of February 11, was held to answer to the Superior Court by Judge J. C. Quinn, on a charge of robbery. Mayfield is accused of having in the company of Sells and Charles E. Slich, robbed the offices of the Standard Oil Company on the morning of September 20 of last year taking $404 from the vaults.

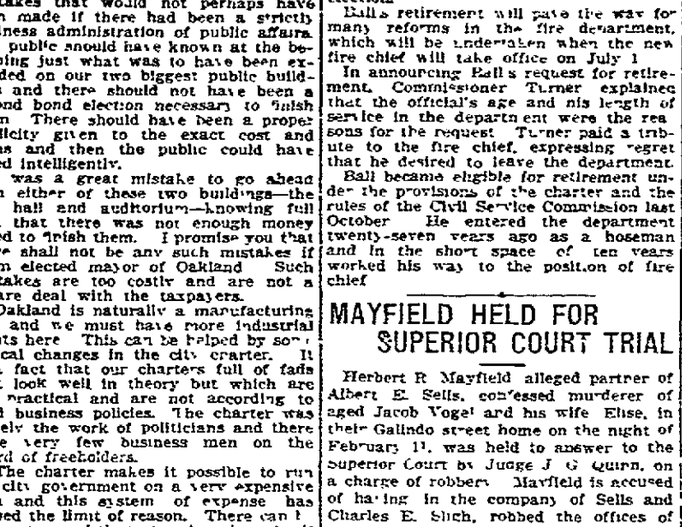

It was in this robbery that H. P. Case, the night watchman, was bound and gagged by the robbers. On the stand today Case was unable to identify Mayfield as one of the three men who robbed the oil company's offices, saying that he had been blindfolded.

FORMER GOVERNOR IS SPEAKER ON BUSINESS

Ex-Governor James N. Gillett was the chief speaker at the weekly luncheon at the Hotel Oakland today of the New Industries Committee of the Chamber of Commerce-Commercial Club, Consolidated. He made a short address on general business and industrial conditions throughout the state. The other speaker of the day was Colonel William J. Barrett, who spoke along similar lines.

EL DORADO CLAIMS PRIORITY.

PLACERVILLE, March 31.—El Dorado county claims priority in the raising of ripe olives. It was in this county that they were first grown and this was announced yesterday, during the observance of the day, by local committees. The first olives were raised here by the late A. T. Johnson.

Put CRISCO to this Test

A severe test for any shortening is its use in hot bread. Make some Crisco biscuit; they are delicate—in looks, odor and taste. They are light and daintily brown. Break one open and you will be delighted with the appetizing aroma, free from any suggestion of lard. They are just as wholesome and digestible as their delicacy promises.

You will find equally as attractive points about Crisco in other branches of cooking. For instance, you can fry without smoke and odor. You can use the same Crisco for frying all manner of foods and all will have a new wholesomeness.

Below is a good biscuit recipe, or you may use your own favorite recipe by using from 1/5 to 1/4 less Crisco than you would of lard. Note how Crisco stands the test.

Baking Powder Biscuits

2 cupfuls flour — 1 teaspoonful salt
2 teaspoonfuls baking powder — 2 tablespoonfuls Crisco
¾ cupful milk

(Level measurements)

Sift together the dry ingredients. Mix thoroughly with the Crisco, using a knife or spoon, and add gradually the milk, mixing with a knife to a soft dough. Toss on floured board, pat and roll to one-half inch in thickness. Shape with a biscuit cutter, place on a floured tin and bake in a hot oven 12 or 15 minutes.

RAILROADS WOULD CUT INTERIOR CITY RATES

By Associated Press.

PORTLAND, Ore., March 31. — Transcontinental railroads terminating in Portland on Puget Sound are preparing to reserve themselves in the historic long and short haul rate question.

After nearly twenty years of persistent effort in opposing Spokane and other interior cities in their fight for lower proportionate rates, based on the rates to the coast terminals, the Panama canal has forced the carriers to face about and propose rates to the interior points even lower than were asked for in the Spokane rate case.

They have presented their proposals to the Interstate Commerce Commission and the commission is to hold a hearing April 12, at Washington, D. C.

Shippers of Northwest coast points are preparing to protest against the proposed low interior rates. Representatives of the Portland and Seattle Chambers of Commerce conferred here on the question. It was announced that they would be represented at the coming hearing at Washington.

Participants in the conference said that because the canal had made competition by the railroads to coast points unprofitable, the railroads had decided upon lower interior rates in an effort to increase their business there.
